Babe Ruth League Lists Team Rosters

Heavy rains last Friday and Saturday washed away any chance of outside drills for our Co-op Babe Ruth League. Exercise for most players took the form of a hike to the City Office bearing their Birth Certificates for this year's playing eligibility. There are still eight or ten lads who haven't presented their document—and it is still a necessity.

There will be one final practice Saturday morning before the regular season gets under way. The official opener takes place Saturday, June 25 at 11 a.m. when a delegation of local people, including City Manager Charles McDonald, Co-op General Manager Sam Ashelman, County Commissioner Frank Lastner, Mayor Jim Wolfe, and Councilmen Tom Canning, Ben Goldfaden, Bob Hurst and Jim Smith will be on hand to get the Ruthers off to a good start.

Last season's Most Valuable Player will be presented the Babe Ruth Commissioner's trophy just prior to game time. Speculation runs high among players on just who is MVP, but his identity will not be known until he is called to receive the award.

In addition to the "Opener", regular games will be played Monday, June 20, Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23. Printed schedules will be distributed soon.

Long awaited rosters of the four Co-op Babe Ruth teams are as follows: Co-op Variety Store, Last year's champs: Billy Morin, Barry Petroff, Ronnie DonBullian, Frank Jerry, Donnie Estep, Ralph Arroyo, Paul McDonald, Rex Megill, Cece Sweeney, Neil Vaughn, Carleton "Junior" Schosser, Billy Page, Paul Greene, Billy Pettit and John Stuart.

Co-op Drug Store lists Eddie Brooks, Lance Waldon, Stuart Long, Doug Endres, Billy Steele, Dick Bragonje, Bobby Canning, Ken Reamy, Ron Bussard, David Olds, Tommy Iveson, Chuck Clark, Bobby Oring, Earl Doss and Billy Cronin.

Co-op Supermarket has a great squad in: Fred Slaugh, Dave Flynn, Wes Hogan, Rich Fonda, Gary Porter, Dick Ellis, Mike Dean, Ronnie Newman, Hank Trattler, Garry Dinehart, Carl Knickelbein, Johnny McCarthy, Bobby Sharp, Tom Bartholomew and Nolan Miller.

Special Police Officer Patrols Center Area

A new special police officer has been hired by the city to patrol the Center recreation area, the city disclosed this week. David Nusz, a University of Maryland student and football team member, has already begun his tour of duty in the Center area. Nusz hopes to move to Greenbelt soon and expects to be married in the fall.

FIRE-FIGHTING IN CITY

All remaining fire-fighting equipment owned by the city was dedicated to the local volunteer fire department at the city council meeting last Monday night. In another action, the council decided to put the city under the county fire code and abide by all its regulations and requirements.

GVHC Restricts Sale Of Members Land

A policy affecting the sale of GVHC land already in use by GVHC members was firmly established by decision of the board of directors of Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation at the regular board meeting Friday, June 10, to restrict the sale of such land.

The issue arose when a builder who had purchased two triangular Lakeside lots that are separated by GVHC property asked the board to sell him the intervening GVHC land. The builder stated that FHA will not approve mortgages on these lots because of their triangular shape.

One of the lots is 145 by 95 by 161 feet while the other lot is 103 by 189 by 198 feet. He hoped to purchase a pie-shaped wedge of GVHC land behind the 7-Court which would convert his two lots into one large rectangular piece of land.

When the board learned that such a sale would take away land presently in use by GVHC homeowners, particularly a large section that is part of the 7-Court, the sale was disapproved. A resolution set the following policy: "That we adhere to the existing policy not to dispose of any GVHC land which infringes on tacitly established boundaries of individual members."

In other action, Director Percy Andros announced that people had noticed the start of the sodding work by GVHC crews on the bare areas of GVHC land and had expressed their appreciation.

Paul Campbell, GVHC manager, read a letter from the National Parks Service, announcing that plans had been completed for the complete landscaping of the entire Greenbelt interchange of the Washington-Baltimore Parkway. Not only will the triangle adjacent to the 11-Court on Southway be planted with shrubbery, trees, and plants, but the area between the exit from Baltimore and the Glenn Dale Road as well as other pieces of land in the vicinity will also be beautified.

The letter stated that the National Parks Service was confident that the people of Greenbelt would be highly pleased with the plans for landscaping that have been made. It is expected that work will begin in the fall.

Baptist Bible School Begins Next Monday

Preparations have been made for 200 boys and girls to attend Vacation Bible School at Center School beginning Monday, June 20 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. The school, sponsored by Greenbelt Baptist Chapel, will be graded on age basis to meet the needs of each child. Children from four to twelve are invited.

Registration takes place Friday, June 17 at North End School from 10 to 12 a.m. and at Center School from 1:30 to 3 p.m., or by phoning GRanite 4-9424. There is no registration fee.

Free bus service will be available for children living in the North End. Bus stops will be: Ridge Road at intersections of Eastway, Northway, Plateau, Laurel Hill and Research, and Hillside and Laurel Hill. Children should be at their bus stop Monday morning at 8:30.

Commencement program for parents, will be held Wednesday, June 29 at 7:30 p.m. at Center School. Picnic at Greenbelt Lake on Thursday, June 30, 9 to 11:30 p.m. will conclude Vacation Bible School activities.

20 Tot Playgrounds To Begin In July

A city-sponsored "tot playground" program will begin in July for a seven-week period, for children from 3-6 years. The city council appropriated $1400 for salaries last Monday night after Allan Chotiner, chairman of the city recreation advisory committee, recommended the program in the second of a series of reports to the council.

There will be no fee for children, and the teachers are expected to be adults qualified for the job. About 20 tot playgrounds are included in the program which will be offered two hours a day.

Other recommendations from the committee which were not formally acted upon by Council included: A bus transportation service for youngsters attending the County sponsored recreation program in the North End area; a guarantee of three free nights at the community building for the Youth Center program. The addition of several new buildings in the community, Chotiner stated, should free the community building from the use by other organizations which have conflicted with the youth program previously.

Citizens Assn. Board Plans Meeting June 28

Crowded conditions at Greenbelt's swimming pool will be one of the topics for discussion at the June membership meeting of the Greenbelt Citizens Association on Tuesday, June 28 at Center School. Beginning at 8 p.m. "The Baltimore Plan," a film of neighborhood cooperation on back-yard beautification, will be shown.

The GCA board of directors met Monday night to plan the meeting and elect officers of the organization, to which all Greenbelters automatically belong. The board, elected at the May membership meeting, re-elected Walter R. Volekhausen chairman and Eleanor Ritchie vice-chairman. George Reeves, vice-chairman for part of last year, was elected secretary and Leonard Baron treasurer.

Baron, Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. Jane Hunt, Herman Sirlin and Hal Silvers are the freshman members of the 7-man card.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

Strawberries and ice cream, coffee, kool aid, home made pies and cakes will be featured at the annual Strawberry Festival, Friday, June 17 from 7 to 10 p.m. on the Lutheran Church lawn. Everyone invited.

Two Young Mothers Charm Council Into Passing Anti-Baseball Law

By I. J. Parker

Greenbelt youngsters must confine their ball-playing to designated areas henceforth, the city council decided last Monday night, when they passed an ordinance prohibiting the "striking or kicking" of balls, or other missiles in public areas that are not posted for that purpose. After consideration of such an ordinance for several meetings, passage of the ban followed the plea of two charming young mothers from the North End area to protect their children from ball-players near their home.

Margaret D. Zanin and Joyce E. Wickers of 13-Z-3 and 13-Z-2 Hillside informed the city council that balls are often batted into their yards where their children play and have nearly struck and injured them. They also objected to the destruction of their hedges and flowers and the objectionable language of the youngsters playing ball. The mothers stated the area was much too small for playing ball. "I've never seen so many foul balls hit in my life," Mrs. Zanin declare.

Councilman James Smith reiterated remarks he had stated before the council previously. He called for the ordinance which would put protection of private property above the rights of youngsters to play ball in hazardous areas, and declared the ordinance would put the police officers in a better position to prevent accidents from this activity.

Lone dissenter was Councilman Tom Canning. "Nobody is going to pinch a kid for playing ball," Canning declared. "There will be signs all over town, and the city is full of signs as it is," he added.

A survey of the city will be made by City Manager Charles McDonald in order to designate the areas in which ball-playing will be permitted. Signs will be posted in non-ball-playing areas. Throwing a ball (playing "catch") is not prohibited by the new ordinance.

Recreation Committee Makes Recommendation

Allan Chotiner, Chairman of the Greenbelt Recreation Advisory Committee, appeared before City Council Monday, June 13, armed with proposals for Council's consideration. The committee recommended that:

(1) 10 adults be hired to supervise the 20 tot playgrounds at one dollar an hour; spending two hours in the morning at one playground and two hours in the afternoon at a second playground necessitating an allocation of $1800. Chotiner stated "Considering the large number of youngsters in our community that are in this age group and that they are the only age group in our community without a planned recreational program, it was the feeling of our committee that some consideration must be given for their general welfare."

(2) a program be evolved to provide bus transportation to the North End playground for the youngsters of Greenbelt. Four trips daily could be worked out in conjunction with the present bus transportation program in our community.

(3) Council immediately consider the all-important issue of the need for reserving the auditorium for use of our teen-agers so that previous to the first week in September both a planned program and specified evenings, reserved solely for tenn-agers' use, can be announced.

The School Corner

By Joan Dickerson

School is out for the summer! Everyone—children and teachers are looking forward to a summer of fun and relaxation. (But not parents!)

Center School PTA presented bouquets of red roses to the women teachers and Miss Long, Principal, Friday, June 11, in appreciation for their services. Tie clasps were given to Cyril Kovalichick, 6th Grade teacher and Sherman Friend, custodian.

Pupils of Mrs. Thompson's 4th and 5th grade combination celebrated the last day of school with a picnic at their teacher's home in Berwyn Heights. It did not rain that day.

GVHC Board Reawakens Sleeping Dog Problem

Serving notice that they do not intend to let sleeping dogs lie, the board of directors of Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation have indicated their determination to continue the restrictions against dogs in Greenbelt. The issue was raised by President Ed Burgoon at a joint meeting with the city council Tuesday, June 7, and discussion continued at the regular GVHC board meeting Friday, June 10.

Burgoon asked for the city's cooperation in enforcing the GVHC regulation passed by the membership in June, 1953, which forbids the keeping of pets in GVHC homes. The rule, which was reaffirmed by GVHC members at a later membership meeting, has always been applied more rigidly against dogs, since far more complaints have been made against them than other types of pets.

GVHC policy is to take action against homeowners who possess dogs whenever complaints are lodged by neighbors or when dogs are discovered by the GVHC management. However, Paul Campbell, GVHC manager, has revealed that in recent months fewer complaints have come in, although he is continuing to notify GVHC residents known to have dogs in their homes that they must remove them.

The problem of dogs in Greenbelt, both in regard to their creating disturbances at night and destroying flowers and shrubbery planted by GVHC homeowners, is accentuated by the lack of control over stray dogs. The positions of the city and county in this connection were discussed at the Tuesday and Friday meetings.

The city has an ordinance that any dog taken off an owner's property must be leashed, muzzled and accompanied by a responsible person. However, the city has found it difficult to enforce this ordinance because of lack of facilities for catching and holding dogs and transporting them to the nearest dog pound at Hyattsville.

The county is reluctant to come into a city to help with the problem unless specifically requested. GVHC Director Frank Lastner explained. The county also does not like to make a trip here when there are only a few dogs to be picked up. He noted that the county has recently tightened its procedure for licensing dogs and has opened up a new pound at Forestville. Dog owners must now pay a fee of five dollars to claim their pets.

The basic problem of finding a way to transport stray dogs from Greenbelt to the dog pounds does not appear to be solvable at present. However, Campbell stated that he felt discussion of the issue with the city was fruitful in that it reminded the city council that the problem is a serious one for both the city and GVHC.

Bonfires Prohibited In City By Council

Bonfires are prohibited in the city unless a permit is obtained, the city council voted last Monday night. The approved ordinance does not bar barbecue fires in a citizen's yard, but is intended to prohibit the burning of trash, leaves or other material which is normally disposed of through city collection service. The ordinance resulted from a near-mishap when a youngster came home with his clothes afire after straying too close to a neighbor's trash fire.

Mrs. Grace H. Pehl arrived last Tuesday from Warrensburg, Missouri, to visit her son, Mel Pehl, and his family at 2-B Crescent. Mrs. Pehl, who will be here visiting more of the summer will have ample time to get acquainted with her newest granddaughter.

Last Saturday night, June 11, the Choral group held a party indoors in the JCC Building. Originally scheduled as a picnic but called indoors because of rain, the occasion was still a gay one and the members enjoyed themselves with parlor games.

Happy birthday to Diana Leasia who celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party in her home, 45-H Ridge on June 13.

Mr. and Mrs. James San Antonio, 54-E Crescent, announce the arrival of their first child, Patricia Mary. Patricia was born in Prince Georges Hospital on June 8 and weighed five pounds, six ounces.

The Edgar Taylors, 4-D Crescent are entertaining his sister and her family from Phoenix, Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe and their three children are visiting Washington for the first time and plan to stay approximately a week.

On June 6, Brownie Troop 310 held a cook-out at the Lake for their last meeting. Many of the fathers helped out and everyone had a very good time.

Congratulations to Earl Porter, 2 Forestway who is a carrier boy for the Washington Post and Times Herald and who has just graduated from Northwestern. Out of a total of 4,000 boys, Earl and nine others were selected as outstanding carrier boys for native intelligence, business acumen, and good appearance.

The R. C. Hulls, 33-K Ridge have a new telephone number—Granite 4-9532. Mr. and Mrs. Hull have just returned from witnessing the graduation of their grandson, Paul Lepiecq at Brown University, and also visited their daughter, Mrs. Lepiecq in Briarcliff Manor, New York. Mr. Hull also attended the 55th class reunion and commencement at Columbia University, New York.

Tommy Fink, 20-J Ridge, celebrated his seventh birthday on June 2. Tommy's teacher, Mrs. Ravitz, attended his party.

Bernard Harris and Al Skolnik were winners in last week's Penthouse Bridge Tournament at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare Building.

Friends of Gladys Chasoff, 45-N Ridge will be happy to hear that she is recuperating very nicely from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Young travelled from Salt Lake City, Utah to attend the graduation ceremonies of son, Vernon Young, 4-K Plateau. Vernon received his medical

Half An Answer

As city councilman Robert Hurst stated at the council meeting last Monday night, "Prohibiting ball-playing in certain areas is only meeting the problem half way." He reminded the council that more play areas are needed in the city and only by providing these supplementary areas can the problem be fully met. All Greenbelt residents abhor restricting the free play of their children, knowing that the community was planned and conceived with children's interests and welfare in mind. In a city with over twenty uniformed baseball teams, it seems silly to have a problem of ball-playing in public areas. However, many citizens have rightfully complained that often this game of baseball imperils the safety of their tots playing in these same public areas or even in their own yards.

There have been flagrant instances of destruction of gardens, hedges, shrubs and some window-breaking. Although the latter is in the best traditions of American childhood, some consideration of the rights of private property and peace of mind is mandatory.

The council warmed up in the bull-pen a long time before finally deciding to alleviate a sensitive problem. Apparently it took a "ladies day" at the council meeting to turn the trick, and other groups can learn a lesson from the "pitch" of two pretty mothers who presented their case to the council last Monday. This double-play combination seemed to resolve the issue in the council's mind, although Tom Canning remained a holdout.

We hope that the city will endeavor quickly to provide proper public areas for ball-playing so that the youngsters who wish to participate in a wholesome athletic sport need not feel unduly restricted.

Burrows Head South To Teach In Florida

The Glenn Burrows of 1-H Westway have a good reason to migrate South this summer. Glenn will be on a six week leave from his job as Statistical Consultant in the Office of the Chief of the Agricultural Marketing Service to teach in the 1955 Summer Session of the University of Florida. The Southern Regional Graduate Summer Session in Statistics is sponsored by the University of Florida, North Carolina State College, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the Southern Regional Education Board. Glenn will give his course from June 21 to July 29 on "A graduate program in statistics for statisticians, research workers and teachers in social science, education, psychology, public health, engineering, biology, business and the physical sciences." He will also be a lecturer and consultant on the Theory of Sampling.

Glenn used to teach at the Mathematics Department of Michigan State College, and was Assistant Professor in the Mathematics Department of the College of William and Mary, later holding this position at Wayne University. He was also research associate at the Institute of Statistics, University of North Carolina.

Glenn and his wife, Muriel, have been in Greenbelt since 1953. They have two children, Michael, three and a half, and Judy, two. Although Muriel's father, Dr. Harold Hotelling, is a well known statistician and economist now with the University of North Carolina, and her husband and friends are statisticians, Muriel is well content to leave the study of statistics to them. The Burrows are active in Greenbelt Community Church, the Greenbelt Citizens Association, the Greenbelt unit of the League of Women Voters, and the Library Advisory Board. Their joint and current interest is the Greenbelt News Review.
