GVHC Board Acts On Sub-Leases, Discusses Landscaping, Sales

The Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation board of directors at its regular meeting on Friday, August 26, agreed to allow two GVHC homeowners to extend their sub-leases beyond the original two-year period. The decision was made after hearing Paul Campbell, GVHC manager, read letters from the absentee owners reaffirming their desire and intention of returning to Greenbelt as soon as circumstances permit.

The GVHC manager can grant permission to sub-lease for special reasons up to two years but must get board permission for beyond that period. In the discussion it was brought out that the GVHC contract permits a homeowner leaving Greenbelt to sub-let his home if he is unable to find a purchaser after a reasonable period.

Campbell presented to the board the semi-annual auditor's report covering the internal operation and general accounting accuracy of the Corporation for the first six months of 1955. The report stated: "The accounting procedures and system of internal controls appear to be generally sound and accurately maintained."

Landscaping Program

Another matter brought up by Campbell was the progress on landscaping the community, for which the GVHC appropriated $2,000 this year to continue the landscaping begun last year along the Southway entrance and up Ridge Road toward the North End. The principal problem is coordination with the city.

Campbell reported that City Manager McDonald feels that it would be improper for city employees to do planting work on private property, which bars mutual work by the city and GVHC. Director Frank Lastner and other board members disagreed with the city viewing GVHC land as strictly private property and felt that such land (as opposed to land that belongs to members' homes) should be considered community park land.

Director Hans Jorgensen, who is directing the landscaping program, agreed to explore the situation for a possible solution. Campbell said he would like to see the city and GVHC each spend $4,000 and get the entire job of landscaping the city accomplished at once with joint labor.

Sales of Homes

The sales of members' homes was also discussed at the meeting. Director Bruce Bowman presented figures showing that during the past four months 49 percent of the resales of members' homes were accomplished through GVHC, 26 per cent were handled directly by the members themselves, and the remainder were handled by a local realty company.

Campbell said that the GVHC sales staff indirectly aids members who make direct sales since the prospective purchaser often comes to the GVHC sales office first where he is briefed on the mutual homeownership arrangement and sold on the advantages of Greenbelt. Later the client might decide to buy a home direct from an owner in which case GVHC does not get the two-and-a-half percent service fee. The GVHC manager said that such direct sales are on the increase but that he is not disturbed by it and is glad that the sales staff can serve the members in this way.

Campbell suggested that sales might be aided by asking other real estate agents to refer customers to GVHC for a small fee. In the discussion Campbell indicated that GVHC is not interested in permitting any single real estate agent in taking over the entire sales program for the Corporation. Also in connection with sales, he reported that he and Treasurer John Jhariss are still working on a plan whereby GVHC will finance the down payment of purchasers to make it easier for members to sell their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lake, 4-D Gardenway, announce the arrival of James Arden, Jr. on August 23 at Prince Georges Hospital. James weighed six pounds, fourteen ounces at birth and joins two sisters, Frances (5) and Sandra (2).

Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Branch had a delightful vacation touring the upper New England states. First they visited friends at Melvin Village on Lake Winnepausaukee, New Hampshire and spent two days seeing such interesting spots as "the old man of the mountain" and Cranmore Mountain in Conn. where the ski trails are famous in the winter. From there they stopped off at York Harbor, Maine and spent a few days fishing and swimming where they camped right on a bluff overlooking the rocky coast of Maine. They went on up to Bar Harbor where they camped in Acadia National Park for several days. Too cold for swimming but the quiet peaceful life of the mountain and cool climate made this a most enjoyable part of the trip. On their return trip south, they visited with the Ramsdells, former Greenbelters, in Natick, Mass. and also visited friends in Newburyport, Mass., and Boston.

The Mack L. Waldens, 1-B Southway, had the pleasure last week of a visit from Mrs. Walden's aunt, Miss Edith Vonder Haar of Chicago. Short trips to New York and Ocean City, Md. were enjoyed during this time.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kramer of College Park have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Edward M. Halley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Halley of Greenbelt.

Miss Kramer is employed by the Veterans Administration. Mr. Halley is a senior at the University of Virginia. No date has been set for the wedding.

Lee and Larry Fink and sons Walter, Robert and Tommy vacationed in Detroit, Michigan where they visited former Greenbelters Kal and Esther Tillem and their children Laura, Larry and Amy Lee. They all enjoyed touring the motor city. The Finks then went camping in Canada and found it fun but were forced home by the hurricane.

Walking the boardwalks of Atlantic City last week were the Nusinovs, Skolniks, Hertz family and Chasanows. All had a merry time.

The Novicks and sons, 45-S Ridge enjoyed a 10-day vacation in the big city of New York.

Relaxing on the sands of Elberon, New Jersey last week were the Tratlors, 1-H Southway. Pauline celebrates a birthday on Friday.

Visiting the Justmans this week is Ricky Justman (8) who flew in from New York. Rickey's parents will be here over Labor Day weekend.

We are very glad to hear that Earl Webster, 4-H Gardenway is coming along nicely and is expected home from Prince Georges Hospital on Friday. Earl, who is only 6½, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Webster. He fell out of a tree on Monday, August 22.

Dr. Max Kramer, his wife and 17 year old daughter from New York stopped off last week to visit with his brother, Reuben Kramer and family, 5-H Ridge. Dr. Kramer was on his way back to Las Cruces, New Mexico where he teaches at the University of New Mexico.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Feltner, 8-D Plateau on the birth of a boy on August 23 at Prince Georges Hospital.

Happy birthday to Lisa Dondy who will be 7 on Labor Day, Sept. 5.

Lutheran Kindergarten

Lutheran Kindergarten begins sessions at 9 a.m. Tuesday morning in the Church, 22 Ridge. Mrs. Helena DeGourse of Beltsville will teach again this year. This is Mrs. DeGourse's second year with Lutheran Kindergarten.

Mrs. DeGourse will meet with parents of all children enrolled and prospective students Thursday, September 1, at 7:30 p.m. At this time Mrs. DeGourse will explain in detail the kindergarten program.

Kindergarten enrollment is limited to 25 pupils.

Community Festival Opens Friday Featuring Contests, Local Talent

A wide variety of Greenbelt talent, including musicians, singers, artists, dancers, baseball stars, majorettes, and girls who know how to be popular, will join with talent and entertainers from the surrounding area to make the first annual Greenbelt Community Festival over the Labor Day weekend from Friday night to Monday night a dazzling event.

square dances attracted 25,748 fathers, mothers and children.

In addition to the daily program at each playground, thousands of children participated in the County-wide bicycle rodeo, fishing rodeo, Junior Olympics, checkers, horseshoe and softball tournaments. Each playground was sponsored by a local community group which not only purchased necessary game and craft supplies for children but furnished volunteer help, transportation for county-wide events, and prizes. The Recreation Department provided 143 trained playground leaders, supervisors and specialists to conduct the program at cost of $44,000 or about 10¢ per child per day.

An event recently added to the schedule will be a baseball game between the Rockville, Md., Boys Club, midget champions, and a specially selected team of players from two leading local teams, the Pirates coached by Lou Tierney and the Coop club coached by Bernie Emmert. The game will be on Sunday at 2 p.m. at Braden Field.

Contestants in the popularity contest are already rapidly gathering in votes. Added to the list announced last week, which included Grace Wolfe, Sharon Thomas, Addie Speziale, Betty Jensen, Maureen Moore, and Sharon Scates, are Joanne Iseli representing the Fire and Rescue Squad Auxiliary, Judith Lewis sponsored by the Izaak Walton League, and Phyllis Chasanow carrying the banner of the Jewish Community Center.

The distinction of casting the first vote went to Mrs. Mildred Jones of 20-G Ridge. As the latest count Miss Iseli was in the lead.

High Point Opens Tuesday, Sept. 6

On Tuesday, September 6, the opening day of the 1955-1956 school term, students from Greenbelt who attend grades 10, 11, and 12 at the High Point High School will board their school buses at the same bus stops and at the same time they did the past school year. School buses will stop for High Point students at 7:50 a.m. at Eastway and Crescent, at Laurel Hill and Ridge Road, and at the Greenbelt Center.

Those students who attended High Point will report on Tuesday morning to their last year's homeroom to be given their 1955-56 school schedule and homeroom assignment.

Students who attended the Greenbelt Junior High School and who will be enrolled in the tenth grade at High Point this school year will report to the cafeteria for their schedule and homeroom assignment. A special area in the cafeteria will be designated and marked by a sign as the place where the former Greenbelt Junior High School students will report for their assignments for the coming school year.

Students new to the area who registered during the summer or on Thursday, September 1, the special registration day, will also report to the cafeteria for assignment.

Those students who moved in to Greenbelt since June 15 and who failed to register at High Point prior to Tuesday, September 6, will report to the library for scheduling by Mr. Novak and Mrs. Spencer, the school counselors.

As in the past, school will be in session for the morning only on the first day of school. A six period program will be scheduled for Tuesday morning to give students a preview of their schedule and school officials an indication of class loads.

On Wednesday, September 7, school will be in session for a full school day, and the school cafeteria will be opened for the school lunch program.

Kids Fishing Rodeo

The Children's Fishing Rodeo will be on Sunday at the Lake from one to six p.m. (not on Saturday as erroneously listed last week). Prizes will be awarded to children under 14 for the most fish caught, the biggest fish, the smallest of legal size, and to the winners of the casting contest. The prizes, now on display in the Tobacco Store window, will be awarded to the boy and girl winner in each event.

Entries have been announced for the talent contest which will run three nights with the finals on the fourth night. John and Dorothy Belieff, husband and wife team, are scheduled to do a ten-minute skit on Friday night and also slated for that night is Lester Wolfe, a violinist. Also scheduled during the Festival's run are Carol Ann Huff, accordionist, Betty Hughes, popular singer, and Bill Dotson, singer of popular and light classical songs. Martin Berkofsky, a 12-year-old pianist will also perform as will a girls quartet consisting of Carol Dietrich, Sharon Romer, Diane Finlay, Maureen Moore, and Ann Pendleton, accompanist.

Special majorette solo performances will also be given. Ann Walker Bittenbender will twirl her baton in her inimitable style on Friday night, Janet Padgett will be featured on Saturday night, and Shirley Hamby will star on Sunday night. In addition, each night there will be a half-hour variety show by professional talent from Baltimore called "Beverly Presents" and featuring Miss Beverly Marsh as producer and m.c.

Churches Participate

Local church leaders are also taking an active part in the festival. Not only are all local religious groups featuring special homecoming services for former Greenbelt residents but several of the religious leaders will lead off activities each day and night with special prayers and invocations. Leading off will be Father Victor Dowgiallo of St. Hugh's who will make the opening invocation on Friday night.

A total of 24 local organizations are cooperating in running the Festival. This includes operating booths selling food and cold drinks, running the various games including a Bingo game by St. Hugh's, selling tickets for the kiddies rides, supplying materials and food to be sold, and donating the more than 40 trophies that will be awarded.

The Festival has attracted wide interest in the Washington area. Twelve majorette teams from such widely scattered areas as Annandale, Va., Oxon Hill, and Surraville will perform. Congressman Richard Lankford, representative in Congress from the fifth district which includes Prince Georges, St. Marys, Calvert, Charles, and part of Baltimore County, will speak on Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. Joining him will be former Congressman Lansdale G. Sasser and County Commissioner Frank Lastner, former mayor of Greenbelt.

The food sold at the festival will be unusual and varied. Not only will there be the usual soft drinks, ice cream and hot dogs but there will be special Italian meat-mall sandwiches prepared by Joe Cipriano of Glenn Dale and kosher hot dogs and other kosher delicacies sold by the Jewish Community Center. The Community Church will also have a bake sale.

Chairman of the Festival Committee is Vincent Caruso and the hard-working coordinator of events and activities is Eli DonBullian, whose basic planning has fathered the Festival.

FESTIVAL ART SHOW

To the Editor:
 There are last minute instructions that I would like to make concerning the art show in the Greenbelt Festival. There are many, I am sure, who will bring their work but who haven't as yet contacted me by mail. There are many more in all probability who have interesting things to offer but shy away from a public showing.

These latter are particularly showing the persons with the sort of work we want—products of any nature that are done artistically by the people, the kind of performance that is not seen in professional galleries.

There will be adequate space allotted to local teachers of Greenbelt art classes for group displays. We have room for sculpture, ceramics, textiles, paintings, drawings, etc. The exhibitors can mount their works on stands, boxes, small tables and clip, tie, or hang their works on the pool fencing.

Each exhibitor is responsible for his own work, its safety during the day, and its removal at night. The hours will be from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. on Saturday through Monday. Trophy cups will be awarded on Monday at 3 p.m. Sales are allowed with a 15 percent commission for the Greenbelt Youth Center.

I will meet all exhibitors at the right of the pool entrance on Saturday, September 2 at 2 p.m. to begin the display of work.

High Point News

With expected enrollment of approximately 2,000 High Point High School will open next week for the first time with a full complement of students. Last year, first in which High Point was in operation, the school did not have a 12th grade. Seniors who would have comprised that class remained at Northwestern.

With expanded classes and larger enrollment, sixteen new faculty members have been added to the staff, with last year's 58 teaching positions increased to 74, according to Allan I. Chotiner, principal.

It is expected that the "activities bus" will be available again this year. This service, unique in the county, was provided last year for students who remained at High Point after school hours to participate in extra-curricular activities. The two buses left the school at 5:15 p.m. and carried students to their home neighborhoods. For this the passengers paid a ten cent fare.

Farm Bureau Becomes "Nationwide" Today

This is the day the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies become "Nationwide Insurance", adopting a flying eagle as their trademark and "In Service With People" as their motto. Under their new name, the Companies plan to expand their operations until they serve the entire country.

The name Farm Bureau was known to Greenbelters not only as a source of insurance coverage through representative Anthony M. Madden but also as the source of funds for the cooperative purchase of the town and for the expansion of Greenbelt Consumer Services into Takoma Park and Wheaton.

A story of tremendous and speedy growth lies behind the Companies' decisions to change their name and to expand their area of service. Despite the fact that it now operates in only 13 states and the District of Columbia, Farm Bureau's auto company is the fourth largest auto insurer in the U.S.A. and the second largest of the mutual companies. In Maryland, Farm Bureau leads all other companies in auto insurance premiums.

"This is a demonstration of the power of people organized to serve their own need", said Anthony M. Madden, Greenbelt's Farm Bureau representative, in discussing the name change and expansion plans. "Farm Bureau was started about 29 years ago by a small group of farmers with only $10,000 capital.

WOMEN'S BOWLING

There will be a meeting of the Greenbelt Women's College Park Bowling League Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Greenbelt American Legion. Bowling starts Thursday, September 15 at seven o'clock. We have an opening for one more team, so any regular or new bowlers who are interested call Dolores Baxter, GR 4-7456 to register.
