KID CARE WARNING

The city health authorities remind residents caring for children in their home of the County Law regarding this practice. It is unlawful for anyone to care for an unrelated child or children under 10 years of age in Prince George's county without first obtaining a permit from the County Health Department; unless such child is placed by a Placement Agency, complying with Chapter No. 63 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for 1949.

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION: $24 for first offense. Not more than $100 for the second and each subsequent offense.

Tommy Mount to Speak At Lions Club Dinner

Tommy Mont, head football coach at the University of Maryland, will be guest speaker at the Greenbelt Lions Club dinner meeting next Monday, September 10, 6:45 p.m. at the Community Church.

It is expected that Tommy will give a few brief insights into what has been termed the "Mont Era" of football at Maryland, in comparison with the seasons just finished under Jim Tatum.

Lion members are urged to bring guests; and those others wishing to come are welcome. However, dinner reservations must be made in advance by Friday night by call in Lion Art Plackett at GR 4-9418.

Our Neighbors

It's a boy for Russell and Vivian Greenbaum, 1-G Westway. Eric Rafe arrived September 1, weighing 5 lbs. 12 oz. and joins a sister, Rachelle.

Edward C. Turner

Specialist Third Class Edward C. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Turner, 35-G Ridge, recently was named Soldier of the Month for the 59th Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion's Battery D at Fort Bliss, Tex. Specialist Turner, an armorer in the battery, was selected in competition on a basis of neatness, knowledge of military subjects and efficient performance of assigned duties. Turner entered the Army in December 1953. He attended Northwestern High School in Hyattsville.

Vernon Carl Iseli, Jr. will be home on the seventh of this month to visit with his family. He will be coming from the Marine Air Station in Miami, Florida. Vernon will be home for 15 days and is looking forward to seeing his many friends, and visiting with his family.

To the Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who helped make the Labor Day Parade such a grand success. Thanks to all of you who worked so hard to complete the necessary arrangements for such a project, to every one who participated in the parade, and especially those of you who were kind enough to come and watch the Parade.

Vernon C. Iseli, Sr.
Director of the Parade

Gratitude To Everyone

The Advisory Board of the Greenbelt Youth Center wishes to express its gratitude to everyone who worked for, participated in, or contributed their time or money towards making the Second Annual Greenbelt Festival the outstandingly successful event that it was. Our appreciation goes especially to the Festival Committee and all those who served as committee chairmen on it, the Greenbelt city council, the city manager and the city departments, the Volunteer Camp Shows sponsored by the D.C. Recreation Department, the Frazier School of Dance, the Greenbelt News Review and all the organizations who participated so wholeheartedly. We hope that each of you who attended enjoyed it to the fullest extent.

JCC Adds Eighth Grade

The Jewish Community Center Sunday and Hebrew School has added an eighth grade to its program for the first time this year, because of increased enrolment. Registration for new students will begin at the JC building, Sunday, September 9, at 10 a.m. On September 12, at 8:30 p.m., Benjamin L. Yapko, principal of the B'nai Israel Religious School in Washington, will address a JCC Parent-Teacher Get-together on "The Parent Makes the Jewish School." Actual class work will begin September 16.

Labor Day Festival Thrills City; Nancy Kurth Wins Popularity Crown

Nancy Kurth, representing the American Legion Post 136 won the bejewelled tiara and is this year's "Miss Greenbelt," the honored prize of the 4-day Labor Day Festival held last week in the community. Garnering 46,629 votes, Nancy led Ginger Lagana (Athletic Club), Diane Finlay (Lions Club) and Joanne Iseli (Fire-Rescue Squad) in the race as most popular girl. The contest brought in $1086.18 to enrich the Youth Center building fund.

The popularity contest was one of the highlights in many events offering prizes. Andy O'Connell won the Golfing contest, A. David won the horseshoe singles event with the doubles going to Donnie King and Brent Barker. Police officer Joe O'Laughlin won the mens 50-yard dash.

Majorette Winners

Among the majorettes the winners were the following:

Individual performance, Greenbelt Division, junior group; Lillian Castaldi, first, Ruth Chasanow, second, and Karen Jorgenson, third.

Individual performance, Greenbelt Division, senior group; Nancy Kurth, first, Paula Henry, second, and Kathleen Maddon, third.

Group performance, Greenbelt Division, Greenbelt Stepperettes.

Individual performance, Non-Greenbelt Division, Under 8 years old: Gerry Walters, first; Nancy Webster, second; Eight to 11 years old: Gail Luke, first, Elaine Martin, second. Twelve to 14 years old: Kathy Lambert, first, Nickie Adcock, second; Senior Group, Mary Lou Brookbank, first, Frances Sparks, second, Dorothy Dennard, third.

College Park Majorettes won group performance honors in both the junior and senior divisions of the Non-Greenbelt group performance competition.

Parade

The huge parade on Labor Day morning thrilled the spectators lining the parade route with units of mounted police, majorettes, drum

"The Legionnaire"

By Thomas J. Freeman

The festivities for the Labor Day weekend were very fruitful for the American Legion. Our own Nancy Kurth, daughter of a legionnaire, was crowned Miss Greenbelt of 1956. The final outcome for that title was 46,654 votes. We wish to congratulate the Athletic Club and their entry who took second place for the title.

The American Legion Junior Drill Team, under the leadership of Ted Pugh, was awarded a trophy for the best appearing drill team in the parade, which gives them their second trophy won for outstanding performances.

We wish to thank the Washington Park Police for the wonderful showing they made in the parade and the cooperation and thoughtfulness they showed in making it a success. I might add that five of the officers are members of Post 136.

The trophy awarded to the organization who put in the most man hours at the festival also was taken by the legionnaires, which goes to prove that close harmony and cooperation in the Legion has brought us ultimate victory. Commander LeRoy McCauley wishes to express his gratitude to the legionnaires who participated in making the festival a success as far as the Legion operations were concerned.

BOWLERS

The Greenbelt Men's Bowling League (College Park Alleys) commences on Tuesday, September 11, 1956, at 9 p.m. All bowlers interested in joining the league or entering a team, kindly contact either:

and bugle corps and spectacular floats. Winners in the parade competitions were:

The Branchville Rescue Squad won a first aid contest and the Riverdale Heights Fire Department a hose-laying contest.

Art Prizes

The Art Exhibit in this year's Labor Day Festival showed a big turnout in the painting category, and a small turnout in handicrafts and in children's art. About 37 Greenbelters entered work, with about 60 entries exhibited.

Prizes of gold cups were awarded as first and second prizes in the adults' and children's categories.

First prize in adult painting was won by Ted Bly, 8-F Plateau, for the first painting he ever did. Second award was split between Bill Luther, 22-E Parkway, and Cassie Mae Stone, 7-J Southway. Honorable mentions went to Mrs. Alice Whitbeck, 19-H Ridge, and Mrs. Esther Hollen, 57-M Ridge.

First prize in sculpture, ceramics, and metalwork went to Mrs. Mary Tchikoff, 44-C Crescent. Second prize was won by Mrs. Mollie Reuben, 5-J Ridge, while honorable mention went to James Smith, 19-H Ridge.

First prize in photography went to Vic Boswell, 8-L Parkway.

First prize in drawings went to Herbert Laamme, 5-K Ridge, while Mrs. Resalie Gordon, 4-F Gardenway, won second prize.

First prize in children's painting went to Stephen Mintz, 1-C Westway, while second place was split by Jonathan Abramowitz, 3-1 Eastway, and Susan Lawson, 19-D Ridge. Frank Mintz, 1-C Westway won Honorable mention. (Two of the jurors disqualified themselves from judging the children's painting class.)

First prize in children's sculpture went to Leon Smith and second prize went to Darrill Smith, both of 1-B Westway.

The committee, consisting of Ben Abramowitz, Don Uhlin, and Gordon Lawson, wish to thank those volunteers who spent much time acting as hosts and hostesses at the exhibit.

The Community Church resumes Winter Schedule this Sunday with Church Services at 9 and 11 a.m.
