GHI Will Absorb Home Fire Losses

By AL SKOLNIK

As its first action, the newly-constituted board of directors of Greenbelt Homes, Inc., agreed to absorb the cost of fire losses not covered by GHI insurance rather than pass the costs on to the individual members affected by the loss. This policy does not refer to a member's personal goods such as rugs and furniture which, in any event, would not be covered by the GHI insurance.

The necessity for this action arose as the result of a Firemen's Mutual Insurance Company decision to use the depreciated value in paying for replacement of damaged interior property. Up to now, the insurer has met full costs of replacement, though not required under the terms of the contract.

The main items affected by the depreciation deduction are such things as wall paint, window covering, and floor covering (linoleum, vinyl tile in bathroom) which are the member-owner's personal responsibility. Roofs would also be affected, but these, in any event, would not be a member-owner's direct responsibility.

Under Firemen's new rule, it would pay the replacement cost of, say, a new paint job, less the amount that the original paint job has depreciated. The problem facing GHI was whether the difference between the amount of the claim settlement and the cost of repairs to place in new condition should be borne by the individual member suffering the loss or by GHI.

General manager Paul Campbell pointed out that, aside from the fact that a sharing of the misfortune by all members is more in keeping with the spirit of co-operative housing, any attempt to charge the individual member would raise administrative difficulties. Some members would prefer to do their own replacement rather than pay out of pocket money for part of the work. Most likely, there would also be disagreements over the dollar amount or percentage of depreciation applied.

GHI experience has indicated that so far about 75 percent of fire damage affects those items that are member-owners' direct responsibility, i.e. interior decorating, floor covering (not rugs), floor finishing, and window covering.

Campbell explained that the new ruling of the insurer would not affect structural damage items such as rafters, wood trim, and presumably the hardwood floors. These items would be fully covered for replacement costs. As for the roofs, less than 50 percent roof replacement is considered patching and of no added value and would be fully covered; over 50% would be treated with depreciation depending upon age.

Burgoon Defeats Zubkoff For GHI Presidency, 5-3

BY AL SKOLNIK

Ed Burgoon for the seventh straight year was elected president of Greenbelt Homes, Inc., defeating Harry Zubkoff in a 5-3 vote, while other old board members swept the remaining executive positions on the board, successfully blocking determined attempts by a group of newly elected members to win positions as corporation officers. This was the first time in some years that Burgoon has faced opposition for the office of president.

Majer And German Win Bicycle Rodeo

Valclav Majer and Sandra German were the respective winners of the boy and girl championship at the Bicycle Rodeo, which was held last Saturday, May 27 at The Center School. Each received an award of five dollars in United States savings stamps.

Fifteen boys and nine girls between the ages of five and twelve entered the contest, and their friends and parents turned out to support them. Second-place winners J. Walsh Barcus and Marsha Berkovsky were each awarded two dollars and fifty cents in savings stamps. Milton Greenbaum and Janet Garrney won third place.

The savings stamps were sponsored by the Greenbelt Jaycees, safety stickers were sponsored by the Greenbelt Lion's Club, and the certificates for safe bicycle riding by the Mobil dealers.

Award Fuel Contracts

The GHI board of directors met on May 11 and awarded fuel oil contracts once again to Sinclair Refining Corporation and Southern States Cooperative, for the heating season beginning June 1. These companies submitted low bids of 10.60 cents per gallon for #2 oil and 6.713 cents for #6 oil, respectively.

Sitters' Pool

The Greenbelt sitters' pool, a group of local parents who have organized to act as baby-sitters for one another, has announced that new applications for membership will be accepted. Information concerning the rules of the club may be obtained by calling Mrs. Rose Pratt, GR. 4-9480. Mrs. Pratt will also accept applications for membership.

Budget Review Set

This week is budget week for the city. Tonight the city council goes into executive session to consider and make tentative decisions on the $334,120 budget for 1961-62. It will have before it a comparative report on municipal pay scales in this area, a report on replacement costs, and a report on revenues and expenditures from the Youth Center since its opening. Later in the week it will receive a report from the Recreation Advisory Committee analyzing the recreation budget.

All this is in preparation for the public hearing to be held on Monday, June 5, at the city offices at 8 p.m. The budget must be adopted by June 10 and the council expects to spend most of next week meeting this deadline.

Women's Club Officers

On Thursday, May 18, the Woman's Club of Greenbelt held their Annual Spring Luncheon at the Peter Pan Inn near Frederick, Maryland. About 75 women attended, and witnessed the installation of officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. C. Wayne Tucker; vice president, Mrs. Lloyd L. Moore; Recording secretary, Mrs. Cyril S. Turner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Clayton S. McCarl; treasurer, Mrs. Beverly Fonda.

Joe Comproni opened the proceedings by nominating for president Harry Zubkoff, top vote-gatherer in the May 17 election. Zubkoff accepted but then stated he would withdraw if Frank Lastner would accept a nomination for president. Zubkoff noted that Lastner was the only incumbent board member, supporting the previous board's policy, to be re-elected by the GHI membership. Lastner, however, declined the nomination. Henry Brautigam nominated Burgoon as a man of experience whose good work deserved a vote of confidence by the board.

Only eight of the nine board members voted in the election. The non-voter was Lloyd Moore, who was out of town on business. Prior to the nominations, Burgoon read a letter from Moore in which the latter said that if nominated for another term as treasurer, he would accept. Moore also left proxy votes for all four board officers, but Lastner objected on the grounds that there was no provision in the by-laws for proxy voting by absentee board members. This objection was not contested. (Moore later told the NEWS REVIEW that his letter contained instructions for the casting of his proxy vote for certain candidates for office, provided they were nominated.)

Lastner was nominated for vice-president by Zubkoff and elected unanimously. He has served six years in that office. In the election for treasurer, Hans Jorgensen nominated Moore, and Zubkoff nominated Comproni for that office. Moore, who has served four years as treasurer, won in another 5-3 vote.

For the office of secretary previously held by defeated board member Bruce Bowman in the May 17 election, Allen Morrison asked for further nominations and when none were forthcoming, he himself placed Hans Jorgensen's name in nomination. Jorgensen defeated Zubkoff by the same 5-3 vote.

All the officers receive a salary of $750 a year, including the vice-president, whose stipend was increased from $500 to $750 at the annual membership meeting.

STATEMENT BY BURGOON

Following his election as president, Burgoon expressed a desire to cooperate with all elements. He stated he would welcome all suggestions and has no desire to "dictate" policy. He would like to see all policy matters hammered out at the conference table and differences brought out in the open rather than kept submerged.

At the conclusion of the voting, Burgoon asked for comments, and Zubkoff took the opportunity to state that he felt the board had made "a terrible mistake" by not choosing one of the new freshman directors as an officer. He said it indicated that the board was not concerned with the wishes of the membership, as expressed in the recent balloting. He characterized himself and his two supporters on the board as "loyal opposition" equally interested in the welfare of the members.

The establishment of board committees was held in abeyance. Upon Comproni's suggestion, management was directed to outline in writing the duties and functions of the standing and

Our Position Stated

It has come to our attention that in some quarters of the community there is an impression that the News Review has embarked on a policy of all-out support for Harry Zubkoff and his supporters on the GHI board and, in fact, helped to elect him by giving prominent display and space to his letters to the editor. We would like to clarify our position.

First, it should be noted that Zubkoff did not begin his major letter-writing campaign until after GHI board member Bruce Bowman refuted Zubkoff's views (previously stated in two very brief letters) in a lengthy letter which we published in full. Zubkoff's reply was carried on the front page as was Bowman's reply to this letter. The reason for this was partly space problems but also because the Zubkoff-Bowman controversy had become big news worthy of front page coverage.

The election of Zubkoff by the top number of votes as well as the election of others on his slate indicates to us that on many issues there will be sharply differing ideas on how the interests of the members can best be served. Any conflicts of opinion will be big news, with the outcome of great concern to all GHI members who compose the vast majority of our our readers.

Therefore, the News Review intends to give full and complete coverage to future GHI board meetings as we have done in the past. Our news reports will be fair and impartial, giving equal space and emphasis to both sides. Any opinions which we may form in regard to the actions of the board will be expressed in our editorials which are not merely one man's viewpoint but must be accepted by our five-man editorial board. As usual, all parties have recourse to our letters to the editor department to maintain their arguments, although we reserve the right to cut unusually long letters.

We firmly hold that the influence of the News Review in the community is a precious commodity not to be dissipated or frittered away by capricious or irresponsible reporting and editorials. We will continue to maintain our high standards. At the same time, we intend to speak out to the residents of Greenbelt when we believe their interests warrant it.

St. Hugh's Election

The Home and School Association of St. Hugh's elected the following officers at their meeting on May 18: president, Jack Costa; vice president, Patrick Kelly; secretary, Helen O'Loughlin; treasurer, Patricia Kantwell.

'Callous Disregard'

TO THE EDITOR:

Last Thursday night, in its first post-election action, the Burgoon-led faction on the GHI Board of Directors, pointedly demonstrated that it has no intention of relinquishing one iota of control over that body.

By a vote of 5-3 across-the-board, Burgoon and his adherents assumed continued dominance over the corporation body by putting themselves right back into offices they had occupied prior to the recent election.

There is little doubt but that the margin would have been widened to 6-3, except for one absent member, who, nevertheless, tried to get his ballot counted despite rules barring absentee voting.

Denial of a single position of responsibility on the Board to any of the three newly-elected members, shows a callous disregard for the wishes of the membership. For those three - Zubkoff, Comproni, and Morrison - were elected on a reform slate having the avowed purpose of effecting a purpose of effecting certain changes in GHI policy.

This direct affront to the new board members (one of whom was chosen by a record majority), serves as a clear-cut indication that nothing in the nature of a "Fresh Approach" to the administration of the Corporation is intended; and that that segment of the membership which voted so overwhelmingly for a "Change", has little or no chance of realizing one - at least, not in the very near future.

Such arbitrary action, not to include at least one of these new men a position of responsibility on the Board, is by way of serving notice that the Burgoon-controlled majority has openly declared a state of "Cold War" with the opposition, a war in which the Burgoonians hold a decided edge.

If this considerable advantage is to be nullified at all, it can only be accomplished by the members who elected the opposition slate. They must rally to its support. They must give active, rather than li-service, to the reform principles enunciated by it during the campaign.

For only by weight of popular opinion on the side of reform elements on the Board, can members hope to bring about the changes for better, more efficient administration that will benefit the Corporation as a whole.

CLAUDE WIMBERLY

Thanks

TO THE EDITOR:

The large turnout of voters at the recent GHI meeting is gratifying to all candidates, winners and losers alike. Although I fall within the later category, I am pleased to find that five capable men were elected to the Board of Directors, including my running mates, under whose leadership we may all look forward to a revitalized corporation dedicated to serving the interest of the members. To all those who campaigned and voted for me, I offer my thanks; in the future I shall attempt to contribute more extensively to community affairs in an effort to express my appreciation for your widespread and encouraging support.

Very resp
Very respectfully yours,
William P. Heltn

Thanks

TO THE EDITOR:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to those who supported and elected me to the Board of Directors of Greenbelt Homes, Inc.

It is my intention to serve the Corporation to the best of my ability and to always represent the interests and desires of the membership.

Sincerely,
Ed Peters

Siren Notes

BY RITA FISHER

For the second week in a row, Greenbelt's Cadillac ambulance has won a trophy as the "best appearing ambulance" in a parade. This time the parade was at Seat Pleasant. I noticed an announcement down the firehouse that informed the men of the department that Frank Bequette has volunteered to keep the Cadillac shined and polished without any assistance other than without any assistance other than the washing off of dust with "cold water" only. So far, Frank has been keeping his part of the deal so well that our ambulance dazzles the judges and blinds their eyes to all other ambulances in the parade.

Another member of the department has won an award that should be noted here. Duncan Munro was awarded a $25 defence bond when he came out as top man in the Road-e-o, which was held last week. There were both a written test and an obstacle course. Dunc will be representing Greenbelt at the Maryland State Road-e-o this Saturday. Lots of Luck.

Bottoms Up, Kids

What do you prefer -- paper cups or bottles for your soft drinks?

If you are a teen-ager, you should favor the bottles. This is what teen-ager Joe Miller told the city fathers at the last council meeting when questioned on this matter. "Soda in paper cups is not as tasty" and in this opinion he was joined with a resounding he was joined with a resounding "Check" by his compatriots Patty O'Connell and Billy Hodges.

The question came up when councilman David Champion suggested that it might be more economical for the city to have paper-cup type of vending machines, rather than bottled vending machines which require involved bookkeeping in keeping records of bottle returns. Superintendent of Recreation Warren Leddick favored the present bottled machines because of excellent service and the fact that the distributor makes contributions to local recreational programs.

When later asked by Mayor Alan Kistler what type vending machines were used in the schools, Miller answered with one word, "Milk!"

Last Monday night the Democratic Club defeated the Co-op 9-4 to give the Democratic Club a 1-1 record and move CO-OP into a last place tie with Lakewood with 2 losses and no wins.

City workers have graded the roadway to the Youth Center and begun last week to pour sidewalks leading to the building. Sodding around the building and swimming pool is underway this week also. At some undetermined later date a subcontractor will lay the paving for the roadway from the municipal parking lot.

A private contractor has been digging out the hillside to the rear of the firehouse and carting away dirt to be used as fill for a property on Lakeside. After the lad behind the firehouse has been leveled, it will be planted to grass.

Lee Byrd checked on some suspected boys and was able to get a confession. The money had been left in various apartment basements by the boys and was recovered and returned to the owner.

A playful German Sheppard jumped on a woman on Plateau and the action resulted in a torn sweater. The animal's owner was charged with letting a dog run loose.

The theft of a power mower on Plateau led to the arrest of two adults. The men were spotted as they drove off, and the description of the car was given to police. Officer Byrd spotted the car the next evening and after questioning the suspects, the men were charged with larceny. Both men were Branchville residents.

The Greenbelt warehouse was broken into on Thursday night and $50 was stolen from the Greenbelt bus. Police are checking on several leads.

A resident of Hillside reported on Sunday morning that women's underclothes, which had been left on the line overnight, had been stolen.

Police were looking for the driver of an auto which hit a telephone pole and left the scene without reporting the incident to police. They found a car with damage possibly resulting from the crash, and upon investigating the driver, found that the man was driving on an expired permit. The man was so charged.

newly-proposed committees for discussion and approval at the next meeting on June 8.

There was favorable comment from board members on the NEWS REVIEW'S editorial suggesting a fine arts commission to consider application of GHI policy with respect to uniformity of paint program and perhaps to consider appeals from members. The organization of this committee as well as a committee dealing with the suggestions made at the annual meeting by Bernard Bordenet will also be carried out at the next meeting.

SALES REFERRAL OFFICE

Zubkoff raised the question of the board's previous decision to open a sales referral office in the center. He requested permission, which was granted, to submit a series of questions on the matter to general manager Paul Campbell. The answers are to be presented for discussion at the next board meeting. Sales office policy and the question of whether GHI should solicit listings were also touched upon but deferred for discussion until a later meeting.

Zubkoff suggested that meeting agendas be circulated in advance and given publicity through the NEWS REVIEW. General manager Paul Campbell explained that many items come up at the last minute and that the need for a formal agenda was not great since the minutes usually outline what is coming up. However, it was agreed that a partial agenda could be circulated.

Zubkoff also suggested that the minutes be prepared immediately after the meeting so that their content would become known sufficiently in time for analysis before the following meeting.

Zubkoff and Comproni suggested that each member be given a list of housing rules and regulations now in effect. Campbell explained that such a handbook is already being compiled and will be published shortly. Everyone agreed that more news letters were in order to keep the members informed of the thinking behind board policy.

Little League

by BUD DEAN

Monday - The Lions chalked up a fine win behind the pitching of Chuck Figlia, who tamed the DAV Tigers. Lions 4 - DAV Tigers 3.

Tuesday and Wednesday - cancelled. To be played Saturday.

Thursday - Vaught and Coulter combined pitching chores to toss a no-hitter at the American Legion Cardinals as the Lions, aided by Figlia's 3d homer of the season, gave them their second win in a week. Lions 8 - American Legion Cardinals 1.

Friday - rained out.

Saturday - on a day more suited to football than baseball, the league had a full day starting at 11 a.m. and running till 5 p.m. Mike Jones of the GHI Giants not only pitched a fine game but aided his own cause by getting 2 for 3. It was a squeaker for the Giants as the Co-Ops Ford and Burnatti tried to keep them in the game with their hitting. GHI Giants 4 - Co-Op 3.

An 8-hitter tossed by 9-year-old rookie Ronnie Sillman combined with the hitting of Hooven, Rogers, Moraz, and Shegogue gave the Pepsi Cola Athletics a win over the luckless Jim Lemon All Stars. Hooven and Rogers homered for the Athletics. Pepsi Cola Athletics 21 - Jim Lemon All-Stars 5.

The Indians and DAV Tigers battling for the lead in the National League had a hot game going until the Tigers started rapping the ball; then it was Kaie bar and door, as the Tigers had 13 runs to the Indians 6. Falter of the Indians gave it a good try with a perfect day at bat -- one of his hits being his first home of the year. DAV Tigers 13 - Indians 6.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

Nothing Down
$23 a Month

All of us have good intentions about building up a savings account, but things turn up and we keep putting it off and never get to saving that nest egg.

But just look around you and see the goods that you have accumulated--your car, house, furniture, television, refrigerator, washing machine and so on. Most of you have bought these by paying a little down and a little each month. Being able to borrow for big things has made it possible for many of us to have them, and we just wouldn't have been able to get them otherwise.

So why not use the same system to get a savings account? A $501.82 account costs you nothing down and $23 a month for 2 years. $502.86 costs you $44 a month for 1 year with no down payment. In case of your death the monthly payments are cancelled and an additional $500 is placed in your account.

You can buy a savings account for any amount with no down payment and up to five years to pay. It is a good feeling to have the security, satisfaction, and peace of mind you get with a savings account. And children can do this too!
