RENOVATION AND IMPROVEMENT OF GREENBELT LAKE PARK AREA

The city of Greenbelt is engaged in a program of renovation and improvement at Greenbelt Lake Park involving the cooperation of the Department of Public Works and the Recreation Department, among others. Paving of new pathways, a bandstand for summer concerts, and a water system are among major recent projects.

During the past week the city Public Works Dept constructed a walkway along the south side of the lake, leading from Braden Field to the right-of-way between 38 and 40 Lakeside, where a new foot bridge crosses a small stream. The hard-packed gravel surfacing was laid on Aug 1. The crew also repaired the animal merry-go-rounds at the Lake Park playground and at Candy Cane City.

New Bandstand

The Greenbelt band stand was inaugurated on July 30 with a concert by the Greenbelt Concert Band. The band stand was constructed by the City of Greenbelt Public Works Department during the month of June. The facility is in a bowl setting, with Greenbelt Lake in the background. The wooden stage is built in two levels; the first level is twenty feet and the second level twelve feet from front to back. The rise between levels is 16 inches. The two levels are accessible by three, two-by-four foot steps, which are spaced at intervals. A railing extends around the second level, which is approximately five feet in height, above ground level.

The stage front is fifty-four feet in length. The entire stage area contains 1,494 square feet. There are five electrical outlets in the stage area. Lighting is supplied by four 500 watt, quartz-iodine lamps. A 250 watt mercury vapor light fixture, with a photoelectric cell is attached to a rear post. Sound is delivered through a Newcomb 125 watt amplifier, which has the capability to drive twelve speakers. Two Electro Voice 848 speakers are now being used with two 500 Turner microphones.

Fowls are reappearing at the Lake again. The former flock of ducks, which delighted city residents, was wiped out by an unknown disease. Now, however, they have been replaced by at least five ducks and two Toulouse geese.

Locks Now Required On Apartment Doors

New regulations making more secure locks mandatory on all entrance doors in apartments in Prince George's County were approved this week by the Commissioners.

This new ordinance calls for a solid, locking interior bolt on each entrance door to eliminate simple latches which can often be forced by insertion of a thin strip of plastic or similar action.

The revised ordinance calls for "deadbolts with 5/8th inch minimum throw" and "deadlatches with 1/2 inch minimum throw."

It provides that locks "shall be so constructed that both deadbolt and deadlatch can be retracted by a single action of the inside door knob, "to insure rapid exit in case of emergency.

Kindergarten Registration Scheduled for August 25

The third registration for kindergarten for the 1967-1968 school term will be held on Friday August 25, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., in all elementary schools. Parents should register their child at the elementary school in their attendance area.

The registration made on August 25 will be handled on a space available basis only. In some schools, space is available for children to be enrolled at this time. In other schools, children may be registered but will be placed on a waiting list until withdrawals occur.

Parents must present the child's birth certificate and vaccination & diphtheria immunization records. Children entering kindergarten must be five years old by January 1, 1968. For further information call 627-4800 Extension 295.

New Routes from Greenbelt Rd. Open With Paving of Lakeside and Westway

Two new routes into Old Greenbelt have now been opened up with the paving of Lakeside Drive extended and Westway extended into the University Square Apartment development. The base-coat was laid this week after several delays caused by rainy weather.

REGISTRATION IS LIGHT FOR COUNCIL ELECTIONS

City Clerk Nita Maschauer reported this week that only 58 new names have been added to the list of citizens eligible to vote in municipal elections since the last official voters' list was issued in June. At that time, a total of 1,724 citizens were registered. A number of names, whose owners did not vote in either of the two last city elections, have been removed from the list.

To be eligible to vote in Greenbelt council elections one must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, and a resident of Greenbelt for at least six months prior to the election.

Greenbelters who wish to vote for the new city council on September 19 are reminded that they can register at the municipal building on Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. In addition, a special registration day is scheduled for Saturday, August 19, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Registration closes at the end of business on Monday, August 21. This is also the deadline for the filing of nominating petitions by candidates seeking council office. Petitions must contain at least 51 and not more than 86 names of qualified registered voters. A voter may sign only one nominating petition. Married women are asked to sign petitions as Mary Doe, not Mrs. John Doe, in order to expedite the checking of the petitions.

Hearing on Election District Lines Aug. 15

The Board of Supervisors of Elections will hold a public hearing on August 15, 1967, 7 P.M., County Commissioners Hearing Room, Courthouse, Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

This will be the first in a series of hearings regarding certain precincts within the county where changes due to the number of registrants have been indicated. Any interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to present their observations on dividing precincts and/or the changing of precinct boundary lines. This first hearing will concern itself with 6 precincts including the 3rd precinct of the 21st election district which covers central Greenbelt.

To make a presentation, please call 627-3000, Ext. 411, by Aug. 11. Proposals should be in writing.

RICHARD STENHOUS NEW ASST. CITY MANAGER

Richard G. Stenhaus, formerly of Rhode Island, will begin work Monday in his new post as Administrative Assistant to Greenbelt's City Manager. Holder of a Master's degree in Public Administration from the University of Rhode Island, Stenhaus has previously worked in city-related summer jobs in that state. His degree courses at the University were oriented towards a municipal career. In addition, he has worked in the Planning Division of the Rhode Island Highway Commission as police officer and life guard in the resort community of Westerly, R. I.

Stenhaus has just completed a six-month tour of duty with the Rhode Island National Guard at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri. He will live with his wife, in an apartment in Greenbelt.

Labor Day Committee Meets

The Greenbelt Labor Day Festival Committee will meet on Friday, August 11, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held in the City Council Room of the municipal building.

The main topic of the meeting will be the setting up of booths. All participating groups are asked to attend.

County Department of Public Welfare, Food Stamp Division, County Service Building, Hyattsville, Md. Phone 779-1160.

The grade on Westway adjacent to the Jewish Community Center is so steep that rains which have followed upon grading preparatory to paving have caused enough erosion to require regrading and the postponement of the paving. After a city inspection, the go-ahead for paving was given last week. Because of this delay, the extension of Lakeside Dr. received its paving ahead of Westway. According to original plans, they were to have been paved in the reverse order, so that residents would become accustomed to using Westway — and not Lakeside — as a shortcut from Lakecrest Dr. to the municipal center.

Progress Reports

Three major municipal projects are all still in the pending stage. The architectural firm that planned the Municipal Service Building is preparing specifications necessary before bids can be called for. Similarly, specifications for the reconstruction of Parkway Rd. are being drawn up. Parkway, the last remaining "old" street in Greenbelt not yet repaved, will receive curbing on both sides of the street. Broken spots in the pavement will be replaced, and the entire pavement resurfaced. Sidewalks will also be repaired.

The third major project, the renovation of the Center mall, is not so far along. City council met August 1 with the landscape architect, T. D. Donovan of Silver Spring, to discuss preliminary plans for updating the mall. Because the proposed design exceeded the $40,000 fund set aside for the project, the architect was asked to scale down the design and resubmit it as soon as possible. It is expected that he will meet again with council sometime during the month of August.

White to Serve On Task Force

Greenbelt councilman Francis White was named last week to a "task force of municipal officials" being organized for the Constitutional Convention by the Maryland Municipal League.

The task force will prepare material and make presentations opposing the Eney Commission proposal, which would make extensive revision in the relation of local government to county government.

A seminar will be held on August 17 for task force members to acquaint them with the present constitutional situation.

G. Gough Plays in 'Streetcar' at Olney

Greenbelt's Gerald Gough will appear in the upcoming production of "Streetcar Named Desire" at the Olney Summer Theater. The play will run for 4 weeks starting August 10. Gough will play the part of Pablo Gonzales, a buddy of the roughneck Stanley Kowalsky played by Michael McGuire. The part of Blanch DuBois will be played by Meg Miles.

Gough will be returning to the theater after an absence of ten years. He appeared at the Erie Playhouse in Erie, Pennsylvania, The Hilltop Parkway Theater in Baltimore, and the Tower Ranch Theater in Rhinelander, Wisconsin. He also represented the National Education Association on the C.B. S. Television Network series, "The Great Adventure" during the 1963-64 season.

WHAT GOES ON
Thursday, August 10, 7:45 p.m. GHI Board Meeting, Hamilton Place.
Friday, August 11, 8 p.m. Labor Day Committee Meeting, Municipal Building, 8:30 p.m. Duplicate Bridge, Co-op Hospitality Room.
Monday, August 14, 8 p.m. City Council Meeting, Municipal Building.

City Notes

Work is underway to complete the storm sewer in the vicinity of Ivy Lane and Ridge. The paving contractor for the developer of Boxwood Village, Inc., has now laid pipes under Ivy and Ridge and has constructed a connection between the two pipes. Hooking up the Ivy Lane pipe has, however, been delayed because the pipe must first be cleaned of silt and debris—no small undertaking, since the pipe is about a block and a half long.

In preparation for the Washington area's AAU Junior Olympics Diving competition, which will be held at the Greenbelt pool on August 19, adjustable fulcrums for the diving boards, which are required by AAU standards, have been ordered. Delivery is expected about August 15, and the Public Works Dept. will install them in time for the competition.

Carlton Powell, city employee, slipped off the trash truck on July 19. He suffered head and foot injuries.

Food Stamp Program

The Prince George's County Department of Public Welfare announced that 1,023 persons, from low income families, participated in the Federal Food Stamp Program recently.

Food stamps can be purchased monthly or semi-monthly and are used to buy from any grocery store, dairy, bakery or home delivery service participating in the program.

Prince George's County residents interested in obtaining information about the Food Stamp Program should contact the Prince George's

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Independence Day was celebrated without the usual fireworks display; the city fathers thought such a display would be both a waste of money and in poor taste in time of war. However, there were many other events—a parade, a band concert, games, races and speeches. All units of the Civilian Defense Corps and the newly-formed company of Minute Men marched in the parade . . .

Of the projected 1,000 Defense Homes, 196 were finished and occupied. By mid-July 154 more homes were nearly completed and occupants chosen. There was also a long waiting list of prospective tenants . . .

Bids were invited for the construction of a new 17-room elementary school and a 6-room addition to the high school. It seemed likely that the earliest date for completion of these additions would be the spring of the following year. Principals of the two existing schools announced plans for double shifts of students in the fall term . . .

Transportation problems were more acute than ever because of rationing of tires and gasoline for private cars. The Cooperator said, "Public transportation is too expensive, too slow and too crowded to be satisfactory." A Transportation Exchange Column was started in the paper which listed, free of charge, both "Rides Wanted" and "Passengers Wanted." . . .

Twice-a-day home delivery of mail began early in June. Until then, Greenbelters had been obliged to walk to the Post Office each day for their mail . . .

Schrom Airport, a privately owned airfield located in the south-east corner of Greenbelt, was taken over by the U. S. Army for military purposes . . .

Greenbelt Consumer Services announced plans to build a second food store in the North End of town, and also to enlarge the existing G.C.S. drug store, beauty shop and food store . . .

The C. and P. Telephone Company advertisement in the Cooperator urged everyone to cut down on the number of phone calls made, both local and long distance, saying, "War Cal's Come First."

Where To Go . . . DAVID P. STERN

Scenic and historic Harper's Ferry, at the junction of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, has always been the target of short weekend excursions by Washington area residents. By taking the Beltway, Interstate rte. 70-S and rte. 340, Greenbelt residents can easily drive there in less than two hours.

However, there also exists another way, somewhat less conventional: the Baltimore and Ohio railroad runs several trains through Harpers Ferry, stopping right in the restored part of town, now administered by the National Park Service. A convenient train - no. 9, running through to Chicago - leaves the Silver Spring railroad station (off Georgia avenue, just north of the District line), at 1 p.m. every day and arrives at Harper's Ferry one hour later. A train in the opposite direction passes Harper's Ferry at 4:27 p.m. The return trip costs $3.75 (half price for children, no charge under 6 years) and one can park one's car at the Silver Spring station for 25 cents.

Between trains is just about all it takes to explore Harper's Ferry. At 2:00 or 3:00 (both times, usually, on weekends) a park ranger leads a conducted tour through the restored area, recounting the town's history and pointing out major sights: the tour starts at the visitor center on Shenandoah street and is highly recommended. The center also gives a 5-minute slide show at frequent intervals and booklets describing the town and its history are available there, including an explanatory booklet for a self-guided tour, about 1 1/2 miles long, around Virginius island.

Other sights include Jefferson's rock (which used to be balanced on its edge, until precautionary columns were added to prop it up), from which a wide view unfolds before the visitor, a museum (free of charge) devoted to John Brown and his insurrection, which took place in Harper's Ferry, a commercial "War Museum" on the same subject and various restored old buildings. There exist a few restaurants and souvenir stores.

Greenbelt Grab-bag . . . by Punchin' Judy

"I was so overweight, that I was ashamed to leave the house, even to put out the garbage."

The speaker was an attractively curved young woman, who was telling her success story at the Maryland State Convention of the TOPS POUNDS SENSIBLY, and Punchin' Judy, having taken off eighteen of them more or less sensibly, found herself, to her great surprise, attending the convention as Chapter Queen and graduate. There she was, coming down the runway, complete with graduation cap, corsages, badges, ribbons, streamers, and everything except flashing neon lights. If the effect was not exactly that of Miss America, it was at least as good as the launching of an airplane carrier.

"Why in the world do you need to belong to TOPS?" we asked one willowy young lady.

"You should have seen me nine months ago," she answered. "I weighed 108 more pounds than I do now."

We were flabbergasted. It seemed impossible that the picture of a huge flabby matron could possibly show the same question.

This gal was the queen of the convention, but there were many similar successes, and their stories were fascinating.

Springhill Lake Slighted?

To the Editor:

I, too, read Mr. Von Eckardt's article and felt that the gentleman was very kind to Greenbelt when one keeps in mind what it was meant to do and the Greenbelt of the present. The article omits any reference to Springhill Lake: Would one as alert and informed as Von Eckardt omit forty percent of the current population of a City or is it possible that he could not see the geographical relationship?

Harold H. Kramer

P.S. Did the group being interviewed think of mentioning Springhill Lake?

One housewife reported that her ungainly figure made her embarrassed to attend PTA meetings. Hmm, we hmed. Could this be a reason why our PTA has such poor attendance?

A Greenbelt girl floated by, a vision in white chiffon. The "before" picture pinned to her back attested to her success story.

But the hit of the evening in our opinion was the jolly grandmother who told her story. It seems she got to thinking, one one night, that when she died, she might be so heavy that the pallbearers would drop her coffin. She painted a vivid picture of her body rolling obesely in front of the horrified mourners. Fearing that her daydream might become reality, she hurriedly joined her nearest TOPS club, and there she was on the stage, very much alive and newly trim, encouraging other members.

Nobody likes food better than your faithful correspondent, and if we could lose weight, so can you. But maybe you're already slim. Practically everybody in Greenbelt must be, since our club has so few members. And that, gentle reader, is our subtle way of saying why, for Pete's sake, don't you come to the meeting on Monday at 8:30 p.m., at the GHI Building on Hamilton Place?

Community College Admission

Students who wish to enroll in Prince George's Community College this fall have until August 25 to submit their applications.

The college will conduct day and evening sessions this fall on its new campus at Largo Maryland, with an enrollment of approximately 4,000 students.

For further information write or telephone the Admissions Office, Prince George's Community College, 301 Largo Rd., Largo, Md. 20027, telephone 335-6000.

"Will be interesting to see"

To the Editor:

I read with interest Katherine Keene's long attack on "Potomac Magazine" writer Wolf Von Eckardt. It is very interesting that whenever someone points out that a majority of the G.H.I. Board is not interested in building moderate income housing (using the F.H.A. income limit of $9450 for a family with three children) the honesty of such a person is always attacked by one of Mr. Charles Schwan's car pool members or one of his G.H.I. Board members. At the risk of another personal attack on myself I would say it will be interesting to see whether the persons who buy the fourth free standing home and the townhouses of "long lasting quality materials" Miss Keene refers to are G.H.I. members with large families, or outsiders, or G.H.I. members with high incomes and small families. Perhaps when this evidence is in G.H.I. members will be able to tell whether or not Mr. Schwan is interested in what he considers to be "compatible" residents as Mr. Von Eckardt suggests he does.

Our Neighbors

Elaine Skolnik - 474-6060
Delighted to learn that former Greenbelters Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Long of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, are summering in Greenbelt. Their telephone number here is 474-0369. Mrs. Long keeps me posted on the activities of Greenbelters in Florida.

Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott, 9-B Laurel who are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary today. A party honoring the couple will include their four children, twelve grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren.

Heidi Garner, 46-G Ridge, is in Chicago working at the Howell Neighborhood House.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Elizabeth Domchick, 45-C Ridge, broke a bone in her foot. We hope it mends fast.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Burke, 119 Lastner Lane, and Mrs. Jean Loffler, 9127 Market Lane, were among the four Prince Georges county teachers who participated in a six-week workshop in education in family finance at the University of Maryland. The workshop was designed to enable teachers to weave economic and consumer education topics into courses ranging from social studies to mathematics.

A warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. David Zarovsky, 69-F Ridge, who have moved to Greenbelt from Brooklyn, New York. They are the parents of Mrs. Mollie Boykoff, 2-C Northway.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Elsie Farmer, 2-G Northway, is at home after surgery. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Ruth and Bruce Bowman, 14-Z3 Laurel, have just returned from a European holiday. Their travels took them to England, Wales and France.

The Gordon Allens, 14-X Ridge, motored to Michigan where they visited friends and relatives in Midland, Higgins Lake, and Roscommon County.

Sorry to learn about Hal Silvers' injury. We wish him a speedy recovery. Silvers, chief of the Prince Georges County Civil Defense unit, resides at 11 Pinecrest.

Birthday greetings to Jackie, Marion, and Janice Shabe, 1-C Northway. They were 10, 9, and 8 respectively on August 5, 14, and 17.

A happy birthday to Joe D. Aulisio, 36-R Ridge, who will be 10 years old on Aug. 11.

The twin five-year-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quackenbush, of 9252 Edmonston Road, Springhill Lake, suffered a pair of the oddest accidents - that we have ever heard of. Robert broke his arm on June 28, and John promptly followed suit a week later, in the corresponding arm. We wish them a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Blanche announce the arrival of a son born in Scotland on July 28. Scott weighed 6 lbs. 14 oz. and will be coming to Greenbelt on September 29. His father is with the United States Navy at Edzell. His maternal grandmother is Mrs. E. Hodkinson, 3-H Laurel.

It's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roebuck, 14-G Ridge. Laurie Ann made her debut July 2 weighing 6 lbs. 7 oz. She joins two sisters, Tammy and Pamela.

Men's Slow Pitch Championship Games

Christmas in August

Residents of Greenbelt who see a decorated Christmas tree in the front yard of the Mowatt Memorial Methodist Church next Monday night, August 14, needn't think that their eyes are deceiving them. The decorated tree will symbolize a "Christmas in August" celebration sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church to begin at 6:30 p.m. with a pot luck picnic.

The purpose of "Christmas in August" is to collect good used clothing for the use of needy children in Washington, D.C. Distribution of clothing will be handled by the Urban Institute. Residents of Greenbelt who wish to donate good used clothing for children of school age may telephone W.S.C.S. president Mrs. Fred Ford, 474-8343, to arrange for clothing "pick-up" Adult clothing will also be accepted.

The Men's Slow-Pitch Championship games were played this week. The Brass Lantern and the Villa are batting it out in a two-out-of-three tournament. The Villa took Monday night's game with the score 5-3.

Greenbelt Lake Concert
 On Wednesday, August 16, the High Point High School Symphonic Band will play at the Lake Band Stand at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited. Bring your friends and relatives, blankets and lawn chairs, and enjoy an evening of music.

Peace in Vietnam Float
 The Greenbelt Committee for Peace in Vietnam will enter floats in the Labor Day Festival, and operate a booth at the Center. Those wishing to assist are asked to contact Mrs. Irene Hensel, at 345-8630.

Boys Club Baseball

Bobby Bergin's hit in the last of the 7th inning drove in the winning run, Alan Burt, to give the Greenbelt 14 & Under Baseball Team a 4-3 victory over East Pines, Monday, July 31.

The game, played at Braden Field, was the last of the season for the local nine.

EXPO '67 TOUR

The Greenbelt Travel Club has only two vacancies remaining for the Expo Tour on August 27 through 30. However, those who may wish to go after they have been filled can make arrangements through the Travel Club to go with either of two other groups. One leaves Capital Plaza on August 19 and is similar to the Travel Club's tour. The other, leaving from the Silver Spring B. & O R. R. station on August 22, is a five day four-night tour, which includes a full day in New York City with accommodations at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel in New York. This tour will return Greenbelters to their court areas by about 3 a.m. on Sunday, August 27. For further information, contact the Greenbelt Travel Club at Twin Pines Savings & Loan Association.
