County Schools to Open August 28

by Barbara Likowski

Schools in Prince Georges County will open Wednesday, August 28 for 103,886 students. (Although this is about 1600 less than last year, the drop in enrollment is slightly less than that of the last few years.) Twelve magnet schools will open on Wednesday, six for the talented and gifted and six workplace schools.

The schools for the talented and gifted are full and there is a waiting list for them. Some applications for the workplace or extended day schools are still being accepted. Interested parents should call 952-4706 for further information.

Emphasis this year will be on criteria reference testing. This means looking at where students are and building on the skills that students need. The message given to the students will be that all can learn; all can be successful.

Registration

State law requires school attendance by every child between the ages of 6 and 16. Those who will be five before January 1, 1986 may attend kindergarten. Parents of students new to the school system who have not pre-registered should bring their child's birth certificate, proof of residence in Prince Georges County (deed, rental contract), record of immunization and the child's last report card if entering first grade or above.

Lunch prices will be the same as last year: 90c for lunch; 40c, reduced lunch; 55c. breakfast; 30c. reduced breakfast and 25c for milk for elementary pupils. Lunch for secondary school students will be 95c and breakfast 55c.

A requirement that students in grades 1 through 12 maintain a 2.0 or better average in order to participate in extracurricular activities was put into effect during the last school year. According to school officials this is working successfully. An increase in summer school attendance this summer might be attributed to students efforts to be sure to qualify for participation in extracurricular activities.

Expulsion Policy

Strict standards will continue to be upheld for drug, alcohol and weapons (including knives) abuse. Students need to be aware that none of these may be brought to school at any time, and that expulsion will result should this rule be broken. According to the Code of Student Conduct, students will be expelled for the first offense involving the use of or possession of weapons. For incidents involving drugs or alcohol the student will be expelled for the first offense involving distribution and the second offense involving possession. Most of these students are not eligible for readmission to the Prince Georges County school system. Students who are readmitted must remain expelled for at least the remainder of the semester in which the incident occurred and the following full semester. They must also present documentation of satisfactory participation in an alcohol/drug treatment program.

Pros and Cons of County's Action On Sunrise Stirs Strong Response

by Bob Hickman

There are no strings attached to the six-point development plan offered by the county executive to the city of Greenbelt last month, according to Fern Piret, a representative of Parris Glendening.

Speaking at a city public meeting held on August 14 to discuss the six-point plan and its relation to the Sunrise Village Apartments and the third tower of the Maryland Trade Center, Piret said, "None of the things that I have been talking about are contingent on any action that the city takes." She was referring to the city's possible position on tax-exempt bonds.

The six-point plan includes adherence to a time schedule previously given to the city on road construction, advanced funding for road improvements to the Baltimore-Washington Parkway bridge if federal funds are delayed, quarterly updates on progress on road improvements, a promise not to extend "special inducements" to any future developer in East Greenbelt without consulting with the city "until road improvements are in place", increased funding for park development, and transfer of half of a 72 acre parcel of land to the city for use as parkland, with the other half proposed to become a single family home development.

The meeting, which was attended by about 30 people, including county council member Richard Castaldi, began with presentations from Piret; Jim McCaig, developer of the Sunrise Village Apartments; Bernard Facchina of Coakley and Williams; and Don Reider of the Hunting Ridge Condominium Association Land Use Planning Committee.

Much of the early discussion centered on the proposed use of tax-exempt bond funding for the Sunrise project. Piret said that the county is "entertaining" the possibility of the use of such bonds for the Sunrise project in order to increase controls and exert influence on the quality of the project.

When asked to explain what the differences would be with and without tax exempt bonds, developer McCaig mentioned better quality and durability of the structure, energy conservation, at least twice as much money put into landscaping, a health club, card room and arts and crafts center, more extensive building security. Later in the meeting, he said that the only way to put up a quality building in Prince Georges County at this time is with tax-exempt financing. Otherwise, he said, the building might be no more than a tax shelter that would be sold in 5 to 7 years rather than a building that lasts. At Mayor Gil Weidenfeld's request, McCaig agreed to furnish the city with a list of these differences.

Facchina reminded those present that his firm had worked closely with the city in developing the Maryland Trade Center Park. He characterized the third tower as "the most exciting building in the county." He also pointed out that the firm intends to add 100-200 rooms to the Holiday Inn. In answer to a question from councilman Richard

Friends Petition to Help Keep Barbershop Open

Customers and friends of Pat's Barbershop in Roosevelt Center are gathering signatures on a petition requesting a waiver of the Health Department's requirement that all barbershops must have a public restroom. The barbershop was closed last Thursday for lack of a license which cannot be obtained without a restroom. Copies of the petition are available for signing at the office in the Co-op grocery.

Monday Is Last Day to Register To Vote in the City Council Election

Voter registration is moving at a slow pace according to City Clerk Gudrun Mills. Greenbelters must register by the Monday, August 26 deadline in order to vote. All eligible Greenbelt residents are encouraged to register now and vote September 30. As of August 20, there were 3,025 registered voters. Only five voters registered between August 13 and August 20.

Registration for state, county and national elections does not qualify people to vote in city elections.

Residents are eligible to vote if they are United States citizens of sound mind who are domiciled in the City of Greenbelt and are 18 years of age by election day. The city charter defines domicile as the dwelling place which the voter intends to be his permanent home.

A special Saturday registration will be held August 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the city offices.

Registration may be made in person at the following locations and times:

City Offices, 25 Crescent Road, Friday and Monday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Greenbelt Homes, Inc., 15 Hamilton Place, Friday and Monday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Greenbriar Community Center, 7600

Hanover Parkway, Friday and Monday 12 noon to 5 p.m.; Saturday 12 noon to 5 p.m.; Green Ridge House, 22 Ridge Road; Hunting Ridge Club House, 6914 Hanover Parkway, Friday and Monday 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday-Sunday 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Windsor Green Community House, 7474 Frankfort Drive, Friday and Monday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Springhill Lake Community House, Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Previously registered citizens need not re-register unless they have moved from Greenbelt and then moved back or have failed to vote in the last two general elections. A copy of the voter registration list is posted in the city offices and at all registration centers.

Community's Deposits Frozen for 20 Days

by Mary Lou Williamson

In a written statement issued Tuesday, August 20, Governor Harry Hughes granted the request of Community Savings and Loan Association, of Bethesda, to temporarily halt withdrawals while the association seeks federal deposit insurance. The Maryland Deposit Insurance Fund (MDIF) concurred with the strict freeze prohibiting withdrawals for 20 days from the close of business on Monday, August 19. Virtually no withdrawals from any accounts may be made explained Norm Silverstein, spokesman for MDIF, the state agency that now insures those S&Ls that have not yet obtained federal insurance, including Community Savings and Loan.

A very narrow exception provides for Community's directors, with MDIF permission, to pay out construction or real estate loans if those payments will not have a negative affect on Community's ability to pay its depositors, said Silverstein.

Community experienced long lines of depositors at several of its branches including Greenbelt requesting withdrawals on Saturday and again Monday, after news that its subsidiary EPIC was experiencing problems. Federal Home Loan Bank Board officials have told Community to sell EPIC in order to qualify for federal insurance.

Community is one of the state's largest S&Ls which has not yet received either conditional or final approval for federal deposit insurance.

Community closed its branches Tuesdays for two days, but then announced late Wednesday they would remain closed. Any business that could be transacted in the branches may be done by phone. Customers may call 493-6555 for business or to ask questions. No announcement has been made about reopening the branches.

Council Discusses Possible Site for Greenbelt Museum

by Virginia Beauchamp

Only a few days after the Greenbelt Museum Committee requested the city council's support to explore possibilities for finding and purchasing a building to be developed and furnished as a Greenbelt museum, a possible site has emerged. This is the vacant convent building—two adjacent row houses with interior access—at the 58 court of Crescent Rd. The residence, which had been used by the nuns on the faculty at St. Hugh's School, is currently vacant.

Committee chair Dorothy Sucher, who had been looking for a GHI residence — preferably a duplex with attached garages — asked council to consider the possibility of acquiring the residence, whose location so close to the town center is considered especially attractive. At the last minute the topic was added to the agenda for a council work session, held Monday, August 19.

Discussion brought out some of the complexities of the issue. As councilmember Toni Bram put it, "I'm breathless just trying to take in the idea itself — it's happened so fast." City manager Jim Giese noted that while the building is centrally located, parking problems there would be "atrocious." He felt that the site could be suitable as a temporary facility — especially to have something in place by the city's 50th anniversary celebration — but that it would not be acceptable as a permanent site.

Another problem aired at the work session involved getting the approval of residents of the court and of nearby neighbors. Also mentioned as an issue was how the purchase would be financed, or whether a leasing arrangement. See MUSEUM, page 3, col. 3

Update on Fund Drive

The Friends of the Greenbelt News Review report that to date the fund drive has collected $12,526 from 599 donors, and has recruited 82 volunteers.

"The goal is in sight," says the Committee's treasurer Mark Davis.

THANKS

To the Editor:

We thank all our friends who gave us their encouragement and backing during the time in which we were contemplating running in this year's election for city council. But after consulting with some of our friends and other family members, we came to the conclusion that there is still a lot of work for us to do in Greenbelt, which cannot be done should I be elected to the city council.

We hope that in 1987 we still have your backing should we decide to run in the city election then.

Once again thank you, Greenbelt.

Jose R., Anna E., Mary C. and J. R. Morales II

THANKS

I couldn't end my visit in Greenbelt without a sincere thank you to one of its residents.

I was swimming in the Greenbelt Center pool last Friday when I discovered the clasp on my necklace had broken and my diamond and opal pendant was lost somewhere in the pool. I was just about resigned to the thought that I would never get it back when a young man named Steve Stewart offered to look for it. He dived for quite a long time and when he found it, he refused my offer of a reward. I can only say I am very grateful to him, not only for the return of the pendant, but for his generous offer to help.

Bertha Boushell

Bertha I. Boushell, 94, of 19B Parkway died August 11 at the Greenbelt Nursing Center. Mrs. Boushell was the wife of the late Harold Francis Boushell and the mother of George, Harold, Carl Boushell and Ethel Kramer. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

In Memoriam

For over 30 years, Belva Weisel lived in 21 Court Ridge Road, and when she died on July 15 she left a neighborhood bereft of a woman most often described as "a helper."

"She was always helping people," remembers neighbor Dot Merryman, "and people who moved away could recall her kindnesses when they came back to visit."

She was a Democratic Election Judge at Center School longer than anyone can remember — at least 20 years, recalls her husband Lawrence. She was Chief Judge for probably half that time.

Active in the Woman's Club, Belva was an energetic membership chairman. She enthusiastically sold baked goods, she donated home-baked desserts to the Greenbelt Arts Center's monthly bake sales and was an early supporter of the GAC.

Golden Age Club President Florence Holly remembers her as "a wonderful Hospitality Chairman . . . of course, she loved food." Florence adds with a smile.

The smile is something most people interviewed about Belva remember most. "She was a very sweet woman," recalls Muriel Weidenfeld. And when Belva learned early this year that she had cancer, she vowed to fight it right to the last.

Her family lives close by. Daughters Barbara and Susan live in Beltsville, and Elaine Eubanks is in Bowie with husband Bob and children Billy, Kim and Barbara. Son Larry, his wife Bernadanne and daughter Sarah now live in the 21 Court home.

In a telephone conversation a few months ago, Belva spoke candidly of her illness. "I have my family and my friends," she said, "and they're all helping me to be brave." In the end, it was Belva Weisel, 62-year-old Greenbelt volunteer, who helped all the others to be brave.

She rests in George Washington Cemetery on Riggs Road.

15 K Race Will Be Run During Labor Day Festival

A 15 kilometer (9.3 mile) run will be held on Sunday, September 1, as part of the Labor Day Festival. The race starts at the tennis courts at Braden Field, goes down the path to Crescent Road, right for 30 yards and then left up Northway to Ridge and left to a right on Research Road, down a long hill to a right on Beaver Dam Road, underneath the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, pass Soil Conservation Road, about 1/4 of a mile to the turnaround point and return. The 15K starts at 6:10 p.m. and a 3K (1.8 mile) at 6 p.m. There is an entry fee. All Greenbelters in both races will receive prizes from the Greenbelt Running Club, now part of the Prince Georges Running Club, which, along with the D.C. Road Runners and the Greenbelt Recreation Department are sponsoring this event. For information call Larry Noel 474-9362.

St. Hugh's School Opens September 3

The doors will open for about 210 students at St. Hugh's Catholic School on Tuesday, September 3. During the first week, second through eighth grades will attend from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. A full day for first through eighth grade students — 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. — will begin the following week.

Children in the first grade will be tested during the opening week of school. All parents will be contacted about test dates and times.

Father Hugh Monmonier, O.S.B. is the school's new principal. Serving as vice-principal is Lois Barron, who will also head the math program. The staff is new except for Barron, a part-time math teacher during the past school year, and Sister Francis Virginia Reid, C.S.C., a second grade teacher, and school secretary Alice Clark.

Nine teachers serve the student body. It is also expected that the Prince Georges County Board of Education will provide on OMA (Operation: Moving Ahead) teacher.

Saturday Movies Continue

One more Saturday Morning at the Movies before school begins, reminds Greenbelt Arts Center Vice-president Noreen Yoch as she urges Greenbelt children to take advantage of the special Walt Disney film series continuing this Saturday with "The Rescuers."

Beginning at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 24 and September 7 and 14, the movies are open to everyone for a small donation. Popcorn and soft drinks are available at a price "a quarter of what you might expect," she adds.

A grant from the City of Greenbelt and a donation of free tickets from the American Legion ran only through July, so a strong response is needed to support continuation of the film festival into September.

Skipping Labor Day weekend, the series continues on Sept. 7 with "Pete's Dragon" and on Sept. 14 with "The World's Greatest Athlete."

ment might be preferable. A decision could not be made, most council members felt, without full public hearings.

With a city council election coming up, one councilmember out of town during August, and the pressures of campaigning and candidates' nights during September since all incumbents are running again for office, there seemed little opportunity to tackle the question before October.

On the other side of the question, however, councilmember Dick Pilski and Don Volk both felt that the opportunity might be lost if action were delayed. Pilski pointed out that disposal of the property would be the responsibility of the archdiocese which, now alerted to vacant condition of the residence, might proceed to sell it at once.

Sucher, asked about her feelings on acquisition of the property, expressed "mixed feelings." She felt this might be a rare chance to acquire two adjacent homes that were vacant at the same time; nevertheless, she wanted the people of Greenbelt fully behind the project. She thus felt unwilling to proceed without some sense of that support.

Mayor Gil Weidenfeld said he felt the issue was "not timely," that it could be more appropriately taken up and explored by the next council. Most of the people in the room seemed to concur, as did the majority of council.

Candidates' Forum To Be Held Sept. 23

A Candidates' Forum will be held on Monday, September 23 at 8 p.m. in the Greenbriar Community Building's Terrace Room. All City Council candidates — incumbents and challengers — will be asked to discuss their positions on issues of importance to the city, including police protection and development. People should prepare their questions and be there on Sept. 23 so they will be better informed when they cast their votes on election day, Sept. 30.

Lecture on Central America

"U. S. Relations with Central America" will be the topic of a lecture and discussion by Don Irish at the Paint Branch Unitarian Church, 3215 Powder Mill Road (near Cherry Hill Rd.), Adelphi, on Sunday, August 25, 7:30 p.m. Dr. Irish is professor emeritus, social and political sciences, Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, and since 1967 has lived, studied and taught extensively in Latin America. He will analyze how American policy conflicts with federal legislation and international commitments. The lecture is free and the public is invited.

GHI Board Authorizes Program to Control Water Problem in Larger Townhome Basements

by Mavis Fletcher

With the adoption of a strategy for controlling water infiltration in the basements of the larger townhomes, the board of directors of Greenbelt Homes, Inc., at their August 8 meeting, set in motion the beginning of the rehabilitation program for these homes. At the July 11 meeting, the board had authorized General Manager Ron Colton to negotiate a loan from the National Cooperative Bank to refinance a "rehab" program for these homes. The board's motion, passed unanimously, stipulated that up to $600,000 could be borrowed.

According to Colton, the loan will be for a fixed interest rate for 15 years. Security for the loan will be the larger townhouses; other GHI homes will not be involved in this transaction. However, at the August 8 meeting, member Betty Deitch, referring to the fact that the larger townhome owners will not be required to purchase NCB stock, asked whether the other GHI members are, in effect, subsidizing the loan being made to the larger townhome owners. She maintained that these owners are being excused from the stock purchase only because of the large holding of NCB stock that GHI has by virtue of the stock purchase made in order to get the earlier loan to rehab the brick, block and frame homes.

Colton finally agreed that the larger townhome owners would have had to purchase stock in NCB worth 1% of the loan if GHI had not already had such a large holding in the bank. Colton promised to review the matter with Comptroller Don McGinn and to report back to the board.

The problem of water infiltration will be attacked by two methods, according to plans outlined by Jay Freedman, Staff Engineer. The board gave tentative approval to a proposal by Geotechnical Services, Inc., to produce engineering drawings and to make borings for a system of outside French drains in the 65 Court of Ridge Rd. and along 5A-5H Laurel Hill Rd. leading to a large drain which will follow the swale back of 5J-5N Laurel Hill and on down the hill. The drains will be about 30" wide and up to 12' deep and will be filled with gravel, topped with a filter and covered with a layer of sod so that they will not be obtrusive. This system is designed to catch surface water and underground seepage before it can enter the basements of the homes.

Because Fall is usually a good time to undertake such work, the board passed, unanimously, authorization for a contract, not to exceed $6,000, with Geotechnical Services to do the preliminary work. Under a suspension of the rules, the authorization was passed for first and second reading. Excused absences of President Margaret Hogensen and Directors Debbie Hartwick and Janet Cantwell required a supporting vote from the presiding officer, Vice President Wayne Williams, since suspension of the rules requires a two-thirds majority of the board.

Passed for first reading was a contract with Tri-State Water-proofing Co. to construct French drains inside the basements of seven residences in these courts. This method, which Colton said had already been used successfully in some homes in these rows, is designed to get rid of the water which escapes the large outside drains. The contract price is $16,555.

Opposition to Sunrise Village

By consensus, the board agreed to have a representative appear at the city council's August 14 hearing to oppose Prince Georges County's proposals to sell tax-free Industrial Development Bonds for the benefit of Sunrise Village Apartments, a proposed high-rise luxury apartment development. If the city supports the bond issue, the county, among other inducements, has offered to turn over to the city some surplus land which abuts GHI property. Nevertheless, the board decided to oppose the county's proposal.

Also by consensus, the board approved in principle a proposal for a division of responsibility between GHI and the city of Greenbelt for the eight playgrounds now owned by GHI but outfitted and maintained by the city. A recent Park and Recreation Advisory Board report had recommended to the city council that the equipment in these playgrounds be repaired and then the playgrounds be turned back to GHI. GHI's proposal to the city would set up a new sharing of costs and responsibility for these playgrounds with the city continuing to cover insurance costs and GHI taking over maintenance. Some formula for sharing equipment replacement costs is also envisaged.

Crescent and Ridge Again

The board, also by consensus, agreed again to raise the question of a sidewalk along Ridge and Crescent between the Westway intersection. On the strength of a petition from 24 residents, the city council had deleted the sidewalk from the street repair plans for this stretch of road. The GHI board, however, decided to send a letter to the city council asking them to review this decision and to publicize the review so that both sides might be heard more fully.

Member Steve Curtis, spoke strongly in favor of reconsidering the need for a sidewalk, giving the opinion that a compromise could be worked out. Member Betty Deitch, however, characterized one of the proposals—construction of a sidewalk next to the street with no grass buffer strip—as creating a hazard by putting bicycles and tricycles adjacent to the street.

11 Court Ridge Parking

In the face of a 13 to 5 vote by court residents to retain the current reserved parking in 11 Court Ridge, the board voted 4-1 (Director Ray McCawley opposed) to rescind a 1979 decision on parking in the court. The 1979 decision was made, as an exception to the rules, by counting garages as parking spaces so that members who did not rent garages and for whom no garages were available were given reserved parking places. Ruth Myers, a resident of the court, insisted that the reserved parking decision violated the rules and regulations and should be rescinded. She was supported by Dott Wingfield, who also resides in the court. As a result of the vote, the court's parking designation will be changed to restricted, with parking for court residences on a first-come-first-served basis.

SUNRISE and the County's Proposals

Pilski, Facchina said that the Coakley-Williams development is an ongoing process and "we should be able to pursue it and not have it dependent on any other project."

Reider expressed the concern of the Hunting Ridge Land Use Committee dealing with development of Schrom Hills Park and their opinion that only city-controlled funds should be used for the park. He also presented a detailed plan for the park's development, including a lake, track facility, picnic area, two softball fields which could double in the off-season as a football field, and a tot lot in the center of the complex.

Impact on City

Councilman Thomas White assessed the risk the city is taking and "what you are getting for it." He said that the city incurs some risk in certifying that requirements for certain facilities have been met. The question is "how much risk do we want to take?" He particularly pointed to the Hanover Parkway/Greenbelt Road intersection, which he said has a D (acceptable) rating but which is close to an E (unacceptable) rating. White pointed out that two traffic studies of this intersection have been done, neither of which took Sunrise Village Apartments as currently proposed into account. This additional traffic, he said, might give the intersection an E level rating. He said he was also concerned about tipping the balance against Coakley and Williams, who have been living up to their commitments!

On the credit side, White weighed what the city would get from the county's offer in additional park funds are "nice but really don't take care of the risk"; as for the surplus property, he noted that the city thought this land had already been committed to the city and, therefore, half of it is really being taken away. "What are we getting for this risk?" he asked. "Conditions which Coakley-Williams are required to meet and a parcel of land we thought we had," he answered.

When asked by Pilski about the county's priorities with regard to the Sunrise Village apartments and the third tower of the Maryland Trade Center, Piret said, "We believe that both projects should go ahead in as timely a fashion as possible. I defy anybody to suggest that we, as a county, are opposed to the development of (the Coakley-Williams) project," she said.

Councilmember Richard Pilski expressed the opinion that the present situation was unfair to Coakley-Williams and that it is essential to help them. "They're trapped," he said. (Maryland Trade Center III cannot be built until the city certifies that the required road improvement schedule is in place.) To applause, councilmember Edward Putens said that he agreed that the present situation was unfair to Coakley-Williams but that he was even more concerned about the residents of East Greenbelt, who have to wait 10 or 15 minutes at the intersection of Hanover Parkway and Greenbelt Road.

Citizen Views

Several citizens spoke out strongly on the issues of the use of the tax exempt funding and more development in the area.

Susan Malone of Windsor Green said that she felt betrayed by the county under this set of circumstances and that it should not happen in any part of Greenbelt again, much less East Greenbelt.

Piret pointed out that it appears to the county that the project will go ahead with or without the bond funding and that the use of bonds will merely give the county more control and both the county and the city a better product

Malone also expressed the concern that without the bonds the city might eventually be stuck with a run-down building, an outcome which would have an adverse effect on property values of homeowners

Steve Curtis, a resident of Ridge Road, said he had philosophical problems with granting funds for those who need it the least, as opposed to those who need it the most. He pointed out that many of the Sunrise tenants would be at the higher end of the rent spectrum. (McCaig had earlier mentioned rents ranging from $550 per month for an efficiency to $980 per month for a 2 bedroom/2 bath apartment.)

"Unless we start using green concrete for the buildings and green asphalt for the roadways, there's not going to be much of a green belt around here," he said, adding that the city council should attempt to slow development for the next few years.

GHI Opposition

Ron Colton, general manager of Greenbelt Homes Incorporated (GHI), representing the board of GHI, said the board questions the use of tax exempt bonds for luxury apartments. He also spoke of a surplus of rental housing. Despite a "dearth" of single family housing in Greenbelt, he said that the board would prefer that the entire 72 acres of surplus school board land become parkland. Colton also warned of a "treadmill" caused by making bigger intersections, which accommodate more traffic, which encourages more development, which requires bigger intersections.

Joseph Isaacs, of Boxwood, added that if Sunrise had been brought to the city's attention earlier, it would have been opposed based on longstanding policies. He urged the council to push for advance notice for planned development. He also expressed his agreement, with two exceptions, with the other five parts of the six-part plan the county has offered in response to an initial letter by the city. He added that the entire 72 acres of surplus land should go to park land, and that the increase in funding for parks should be multi-year instead of for just one year. He also said the county should add the 10-acre site on Mandan Road north of Greenbelt Road, which had been mentioned earlier by Putens.

Piret, in response to a request from Putens, had investigated this 10-acre site and found that the Board of Education, which owns it, has no plans at present for declaring it surplus. She said she would look further into the matter to see if it may be deciared surplus in the future. She also agreed to look into the possibilities of an additional traffic study which would take into consideration the Sunrise Village development, as suggested by the city Advisory Planning Board.

Councilmember Toni Bram, summarizing, said that the reality is that Sunrise is coming and that at the same time the county has offered some sweeteners. In this case, she said, the city should make the best of the situation, so that in two or three generations the city is still livable. "What's going to happen to the people that are here after we're gone?" she asked.

The council agreed to consider the issue related to Sunrise Village Apartments and the Maryland Trade Center at its September 9 meeting. Later, a work session on these issues was scheduled for September 6.

The men were described as a white male, 35 years old, 220 lbs., 6'7", with long black hair, wearing sun glasses; and a black male, 30 years old, 5'9", 135 lbs., wearing sun glasses. Anyone seeing persons of this description are requested to call Det./Sgt. Craddock on 474-7200.

On August 13 at about 6 p.m. a woman was sexually assaulted in the hallway of a building in the 7700 block of Hanover Parkway. The suspect is a black male, 6' tall, muscular build. He was wearing white shorts and no shirt. A search of the area was negative.

A resident of 9 Parkway was arrested on August 10 for assault, possession of a sawed-off shotgun, and discharging a weapon within 1000 feet of a residence. The man fired a round from the shotgun into the wall next to the door where officers were standing on the other side of the door. The officers had been called by the man's wife, whose life had been threatened. The man was incarcerated in lieu of bond.

On August 9 two residents of Research Road reported being the victims of an apparent flim-flam operation. A white female, described as 25 years old, 5'7", 125 lbs., brown hair, blue eyes displayed sample photos of children and gave a price list to the victims. The victims made a cash deposit and an appointment to have pictures taken of their children. No one returned to take the pictures. The police request that the police be called if anyone comes to their homes representing "August Studios."

As the Greenbelt Boys and Girls Club football practice season enters its fourth week, the teams have been set and the players are now vying for specific team assignments. Although the Club was prepared to field up to five teams this season, registration in certain weight classes was not sufficient for a team.

The County Boys and Girls Club "weigh-in" for the Greenbelt teams is scheduled for Saturday morning, August 24th, 10:15 a.m., at the Youth Center. Players and parents are reminded that all team members must weigh-in at that time. If there is a problem, the parent should contact the team's coach or the football commissioner by the end of practice, August 23rd.

The teams should be receiving their game uniforms shortly, with the first league games scheduled for Sat., Sept. 7th. The coaches will be attending a County Rules Clinic on August 27th and the team schedules should be given to them at that time.

CITY NOTES

Air conditioning units in the Police Department, City Office, CARES and Youth Center malfunctioned during the heat wave. The units were repaired by the contractor.

The parks crew removed annuals from beds on Southway and replaced them with chrysanthemums for the fall. Routine maintenance was done on the ballfields and golf course. Grass was cut along roadsides and playgrounds.

The general crew worked on erosion control at Northway Ball Park and on street maintenance on the roadway leading to the park.

What are plaque-dissolving agents?

Plaque is a sticky, almost invisible film that constantly forms on the teeth. Most dental problems occur as a result of the failure to thoroughly remove plaque daily through the use of dental floss and proper brushing.

Research has been underway for many years to discover a means of dissolving the plaque that is left behind after a thorough daily cleaning. Mouthwashes seem to be the most promising plaque-dissolving agents. Although not completely understood at this time, the effectiveness of any mouthwash is apparently linked to its ability to destroy the bacteria found in plaque.

A recent study released by a major brand of mouthwash claims 50% reduction in plaque formation in carefully monitored test subjects. Past studies using several different brands have resulted in varying degrees of success. What is common to all research is the fact that mouthwash is to be considered an additional, rather than a substitute means of plaque control. Also, it must be remembered that further research is necessary to verify and repeat the findings before this can be considered an acceptable form of dental disease prevention.

CONSIDERING A CHANGE IN RESIDENCE?

There are three key elements to consider:

- A) Your needs: things you positively have to have.
- B) Your wants: things you'd like to have, but don't necessarily need.
- C) Your qualifications:
 - 1) Your initial investment (cash to move in)
 - 2) Your total income (gross yearly income)
 - 3) Your debt service (total indebtedness)

I would like the opportunity to discuss with you how we can combine these three factors to assist you and your family in achieving your housing goals both within Greenbelt and the metropolitan area - of course with no obligation.
