Greenbelt Bicycle Coalition Leads Tours of Metro Site

by Bill Clarke

On August 4, members of the Greenbelt Bicycle Coalition (GBC) led a five mile bicycle ride from the Greenbelt library to the Greenbelt METRO/MARC station. The ride was a special event organized for the Governor's Bicycle Advisory Committee Second Annual Meeting in Greenbelt.

The purpose of this ride was to show public officials the problems bicyclists encounter in bicycling to the new rail station.

Gerry Gough, the METRO Government Relations Officer for Maryland, and Sharonlee Johnson, the METRO bikes-on-rails coordinator met the group at the station for a tour and briefing. Johnson pointed out where bicycle lockers and racks would be installed. Gough reviewed METRO's policies regarding bicycles.

Biking with the GBC to the METRO station were, Bill Kelly, Washington area representative to the Governor's Bicycle Advisory Committee, John Porcari, staff assistant to the County Executive, Eric Berlin, Greenbelt City staff, Dan Andrews a College Park City Councilman, Bill Clarke, a member of the Greenbelt Advisory Planning Board (APB) and Ellen Jones, Director of the Washington Area Bicyclists Association (WABA).

One of the primary goals of the GBC is to urge local governments to provide adequate public facilities for bicycling to the new METRO/MARC station. As part of this campaign it will lead bicycle tours from the library to METRO twice a month until METRO service starts on December 11. The next two tours will start on Tuesday, August 24, at 6:30 p.m. and Sunday, September 5, at 2 p.m.

Information on how to sign up for a bicycle locker or how to get a bikes on rail permit will be provided during those tours. For information, call Alan Turnbull on 982-6460.

The next meeting of the Greenbelt Bicycle Coalition (GBC) will be at the Greenbelt Police Station, 550 Crescent Road, on Monday, August 23, at 7:30 p.m.

Castaldi Proposes New Facilities Test

The Prince Georges County Council is considering legislation that will expand the adequate public facilities test for new development to include school facilities. Proposed by Greenbelt area county council member Richard J. Castaldi, council bill CB-53-1993 provides that a subdivision plat need not be approved if it is found that existing or funded new school facilities are inadequate to serve the number of students to be generated by the new development. Where school facilities are inadequate the developer may participate in or fully fund such improvements as will alleviate the inadequacy.

Similar adequate public facilities tests now are required of new developments for roads, sewers, and police and fire facilities.

As of September 1993, according to Castaldi, student enrollment exceeded capacity in 46% of the county's elementary schools, 16% of the middle schools and 20% of the high schools. "We are expecting 2,200 new students to enter the system by 1994," Castaldi advised. He believes that CB-53-1993 offers a solution to the complex problem of school construction in future years.

Greenbelt Hosts Maryland Bicycle Advisory Comm.

by Bill Clarke

"Welcome to the Greenbelt Convention Center" declared County Councilman Richard Castaldi. "This place has it all—conference rooms, a downtown quality restaurant (the Beijing), outstanding recreation facilities, a museum tour—all within a couple of minutes walk."

Senator Leo Green joined Councilman Castaldi in welcoming 65 people to the second annual meeting of the Maryland Bicycle Advisory Committee on August 4. The group used the Greenbelt library and City of Greenbelt meeting rooms during the day and the Beijing of Greenbelt for a dinner meeting and public forum. Special events featured a bike tour to the Greenbelt METRO station, a tour of the Greenbelt Museum, and a swim at the Greenbelt Aquatics Center.

State Delegates Joan Pitkin, Jim Hubbard and Jim Rosapepe joined the Committee during its dinner meeting at the Beijing Restaurant. Delegate Pitkin's keynote address focused on the need for injury prevention programs and legislation.

Delegate Jim Hubbard reiterated the need for more injury prevention and safety education programs. There were a record number, 18, of fatal bicycle accidents in Maryland last year. Most of the victims were adults.

Delegate Jim Rosepepe said he believes that there is going to be a revolution in how government provides for personal transportation. Bicycling should play a major role. He urged bicycle advocates to think big.

Greenbelt Mayor Gil Weidenfeld opened the public forum to give the public a chance to ask questions and make statements.

Many of the statements during the public forum criticized the loss of good bicycle routes because of highway "improvements." When sections of MD 32 were upgraded to an expressway, signs prohibiting bicycles were posted. Maryland prohibits bicycling on the shoulders of expressways. Many other states allow bicycling on expressways and interstate highways where there is an adequate shoulder.

The Maryland Bicycle Advisory Committee consists of 13 members appointed by the Governor to advise state agencies on policy issues that pertain to bicycling. Seven of the members are private citizens appointed for their expertise and interest in bicycling. The other six members are professional staff from the Departments of Transportation, Education, Natural Resources, Health and Mental Hygiene, Economic Development and the State Police.

Legislation establishing the Committee was drafted in the Greenbelt Library in January 1991 by a group of bicycle enthusiasts. Delegate Rosapepe introduced the bill in the Maryland General Assembly.

Police Believe Serial Rapist Involved in August 3 Assault

by Elaine Skolnik

The Greenbelt Police Department and the Prince Georges County Police Department believe that three rapes—one in Greenbelt—that have occurred between June 7 and August 16 have enough similarities to suggest they were carried out by a serial rapist. The attack that occurred in Greenbelt on August 3 (not August 10 as reported in last week's News Review) took place between 1 and 5 a.m.

The suspect broke into a residence in the 7200 block of Mandan Road by breaking out a sliding glass door of a townhouse. Once inside, the suspect confronted a man and his wife with a crossbow, bound and gagged them, and then sexually assaulted the woman. The suspect, who fled after the assault, is described by the Greenbelt Police Department as a black male, 25 years of age, of medium height and weight. At the time he was wearing a black inside-out sweat shirt, black pants tucked into black combat boots, black gloves, and a black ski mask.

According to Prince Georges County Crime Solvers, Inc., investigators say that the first rape occurred in Glenn Dale on June 7 at 5:30 a.m. At that time the suspect shot the victim's dog with a crossbow. The latest rape, on August 16, took place about 3:45 a.m. in Bowie. The suspect broke out the sliding glass door of the victim's house, bound her and began choking her, showed her a crossbow and then sexually assaulted her.

According to Crime Solvers, the suspect has been described as a black male in his 20s., between 5'6" and 6 feet, weighing between 150 and 200 pounds. Always armed with a crossbow, the suspect usually wears black clothing, black combat boots and a black ski mask.

Both police departments are offering rewards for information leading to the man's arrest. Information will be kept confidential. In Greenbelt, call Detective Marie Croisette at 507-6590. Crime Solvers can be reached at 735-1111 or toll free 1-800-673-2777.

The information in this article was compiled from press releases from the Greenbelt Police Department and Prince Georges County Crime Solvers, Inc.

More on 1993 Legislation

by James Giese

Here are summaries of some of the other legislative proposals considered by the Maryland General Assembly during its last session which were highlighted by Greenbelt's Senator Leo Green and Delegates Joan Pitkin and Jim Hubbard during interviews earlier this year. Delegate Mary Conroy was out of town at the time of the interviews. Some proposals were enacted into law, others failed.

Low Vehicle Emissions—Another part of the Governor's legislation, this bill, which was enacted, enables the Department of the Environment to establish low emission standards for vehicles comparable to those imposed by the State of California. The bill becomes effective only if at least two of the neighboring jurisdictions to Maryland pass similar legislation. The legislators noted that adjacent states were actively considering similar laws. All of the district's delegates and the senator supported the bill.

Gun Control—A bill to ban certain assault pistols did not get out of committee and Senator Green was not familiar with it. He noted he had supported the previous gun control measure passed in Maryland. This year's bill, proposed by the Governor, was enacted. It requires the same waiting period for guns sold at gun shows as is required for guns purchased at a dealer's store. Pitkin stated that she had co-sponsored all of the Governor's proposed gun control legislation.

Ban Keno—Green noted that the Finance Committee upon which he had served until this session had unanimously urged the Governor last summer not to initiate the game of Keno as part of the Maryland Lottery. However, the Governor had the authority to do it, and did do so, utilizing the funds estimated to be gained from it to help balance the state budget. Green opposed legislation to now prohibit Keno, because of the negative impact it would have on the budget.

"If it had been abolished, we would have had to raise major taxes," Green stated. "Also, the Governor had contracted to purchase the necessary equipment. Banning Keno at this time would have been irresponsible." Green was in the minority in the Senate, which passed it. However, the bill was defeated in the House. Pitkin was a co-sponsor of the bill.

Wanted: Candidates

Mayor Gil Weidenfeld's surprise announcement that he will not seek reelection to the City Council, after serving for 22 years, guarantees that someone new will become a member of the council. We urge anyone interested in serving the community as a council member to run for the office. A democracy functions best when the voters are given a choice of candidates for each office.

Once again, this year the News Review will provide assistance to all candidates seeking the office and, we hope, to the voters of Greenbelt. First, as in the past, we will publish the biography of each candidate. These biographies are prepared by the candidate and will be published twice—upon filing and in the issue before the election.

In addition, this year we will publish a series of articles between the September 20 filing deadline and the November 2 election date. The articles will present candidates' responses to questions posed by the News Review. We hope in this way to help clarify candidates' positions and to provide information to voters.

We are concerned about the lack of rumors of potential candidates preparing to announce. Now is the time for all good people to come to the aid of their city. The filing procedure is simple and there is ample time left to do it. Let's get going.

Legislation

crease the speed limit to 65 MPH in certain rural areas was again defeated in the legislature. Green noted that the bill had not come before him, but that he did not have a problem with allowing such a speed limit in certain specific areas. Hubbard opposed the bill, which passed the House but died in the Senate. "There isn't any need for it," he contended. Everyone is already doing it now," Pitkin could not recall what position she took on the bill.

State Motto—The motto on the state seal, which is in Italian, has been called sexist because it says, "Masculine Deeds, Feminine Words." Pitkin co-sponsored a bill to change the motto to "Strong Deeds, Gentle Words." Others were really pushing this bill, Pitkin stated, and she was not very much involved. "It was not a cosmic issue for me," she commented.

Although the motto was originally that of the Calvert family and has a lot of history to it, Green thought it would eventually be changed. The problem, he felt, was in how the motto was perceived. Hubbard advised that he never took a position on it.

Cigarette Sales—One part of the Governor's legislative program that did not pass, according to Pitkin, would have limited access by youngsters to vending machines and the purchase of smoking products. The bill would have provided strong penalties, Pitkin advised, whereas previously enacted law gave lip service to the issue but lacked strong enforcement provisions. She noted that before the bill was defeated, the tobacco industry had gotten amendments passed that would have affected the regulations now imposed by Takoma Park and Bowie.

Second Hand Smoking—Pitkin was unhappy that the "Clean Indoor Air Act" failed in committee. The Chair would not consider it she stated. There is a concern for industry losses because of lawsuits. The bill would have made schools and all public places smoke free. Pitkin is pleased that she was able to get it on the agenda for summer study by the Environmental Matters Committee. "I already have a number of people lined up to be heard," she stated.

Building Highways—Pitkin and Delegate Mary Conroy sponsored bills to block a number of highway projects, including the extension of Kenilworth Avenue, the Inter-County Connector, and the Eastern Bypass. The bills got out of the House but lost in the Senate, she reported. Pitkin will be serving on a U.S. 301 Highway Corridor Study Task Force.

Car Jacking—A bill passed that would make car jacking a specific crime and impose strong penalties.

Stalking Bill—Hubbard co-sponsored a bill that was enacted to make stalking, as distinguished from harassment, a specific crime. To the stalker, there has to be the intent to place the person stalked in reasonable fear of serious bodily injury or death.

Office for Children, Youth and Family—Hubbard was pleased with his role in the enactment of this bill to create a sub-cabinet level office to combine various service groups and coordinate information relating to foster care. The bill was initially gutted, but Hubbard believes that through his efforts he brought it back to life and got it passed in the manner the advocates really wanted.

Police Costs—A bill not enacted that Hubbard strongly supported would have imposed a fee of $10 on traffic violators and $50 on criminal violators to be paid to the enforcing police department to help defray its cost. "It would have brought $8 million back to the county," he noted. The Maryland Municipal League, Maryland Association of Counties and Police Officials supported the bill. Principal opposition came from the Chief Judge of the District Court, who was opposed to the court's being a collection agency, even though the court collects other fees, and a concern that it would encourage departments to write more tickets. Hubbard intends to bring the bill back next year.

Victim Rights—Pitkin co-sponsored a bill that passed that

Near Collision

To the Editor:

On the morning of Monday, August 16, at 8:15 a.m., I witnessed a near-collision of a circling helicopter and a light plane over the vicinity of Ridge Road and Westway. With the increase in city-protested helicopter overflights, together with frequent low flights through Greenbelt airspace by light planes from College Park airport and other nearby airports, it is inevitable that some of these near-collisions will become the actual collisions we have read about in other congested areas.

Noise pollution from the helicopters is bad enough; but it can be predicted that real tragedies will occur, because the situation can only get worse if citizens do not raise their voices and write to elected officials.

S. O. Kastner

permits a victim to make an impact statement at the time of court sentencing. The legislation also provides a means for funding the Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund. "There's no money in it," Pitkin noted. According to the new law, violators of criminal offenses would have to pay a fee into this fund. Pitkin notes that drunk drivers are also included.

Telecommunicating—"It's sad that this bill lost," Pitkin commented about legislation to create a telecommunication task force to encourage cable and telephone companies to implement new advances in the ability to interactively communicate on wire systems. The bill lost in committee. Virginia is more friendly to this concept, according to Pitkin. She felt it was important for Maryland to put its imprimatur on telecommunication.

Land Rights vs. Conservation—A bill Pitkin was glad to see defeated would have shelved a variety of environmental regulations until the Attorney General decided whether the law might result in a legal taking of land, and what cost implications might result. The Supreme Court has ruled that if an environmental law imposed by a state in effect takes the right to land, the owner must be compensated.

The bill, proposed by Senator Malkus, passed the Senate but was killed in the House Environmental Matters Committee. It was opposed by the Sierra Club and the National Wildlife Federation. "It would have put a dampening effect on environmental laws," Pitkin contended.

Plastic Recycling—Another bill supported by Pitkin that was not enacted would have increased the percent of recycled plastic in plastic containers. The beverage industry opposed it, she advised. "We've done it for newspapers," she stated. "I will continue to push for this. Eventually we'll get it passed."

GEAC, Plogman to Meet About Pedestrian Overpass

by S. R. Cherry

Greenbelt East Advisory Committee met at the Windsor Green Community Center on August 5 to discuss progress on several initiatives and issues supported by and of concern to the group.

The group discussed a letter from Prince Georges County school board member Suzanne M. Plogman (Dist. 2) regarding the planning of a meeting with GEAC officials to discuss construction of a pedestrian overpass at Greenbelt Road and Frankfort Drive. In the letter, Plogman reaffirmed her support for the GEAC-backed project. Sheldon Goldberg suggested that GEAC invite school board officials to the September 9 meeting to discuss clarification of possible land allocation and other logistical questions.

Councilmember Ed Putens noted his original shock about the extent of tree clearing on the site of Greenspring Phase II. However, Putens acknowledged that more green space has been left than originally planned.

In a recent letter to GEAC President Timothy Sechrist, City Manager Daniel G. Hobbs reassured homeowner association members that his staff has been monitoring development clearing to avoid possible encroachment into conservation areas. So far, Hobbs noted, developers have not exceeded the city's tree conservation ordinances. The project, once completed, will add 90 single family homes on the 24.6 acre lot on Hanover Parkway.

A tentative revision to plans for the Schrom Hills Lake development (sometimes called Greenbrook Lake) includes two acres of lake. The latest design for the project, according to an August 5 update, includes a large pond and a series of smaller ponds further upstream. City staff expected to brief the city council on the revisions on August 16.

City officials have already sent in a notice supporting builders' requests for additional parking and a gate house at English Country Manor. According to the GEAC, the homeowners group will write a letter of support for the variance. City officials have already given support and have asked GEAC to do the same.

As an aside to the scheduled agenda, Sheldon Goldberg reported that homeowners in the Windsor Green development have voiced concerns that city code enforcement officials have been "a little overzealous" in their enforcement efforts.

The next GEAC meeting will be at Greenbriar on September 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Dear Friends and Neighbors

Following much deliberate thought and discussion with my family, I have decided not to seek reelection to the Greenbelt City Council.

However, remembering the years I have listened to and worked with the best citizens in the world, will somehow ease the sadness of that decision.

You have allowed me to serve you for 22 years and for that I shall be forever grateful. I will always take pride in having been a part of the effort that makes Greenbelt great. New public facilities were constructed, new and innovative programs were established, and the city holds a respected reputation as being accessible and responsive to its citizens.

When my wife Micki and I came here 28 years ago with our two young daughters, we didn't realize that this would be a permanent stop. But the strong attractions of Greenbelt made staying here an easy decision. My children are grown now and making lives of their own. It was our good fortune to find this spot which was, and remains today, a wonderful place to live and raise a family.

I shall miss knocking on your doors and I shall miss greeting you at the voting polls but I shall look forward to seeing you in the Center, at the pool, or strolling around the lake.

History will probably judge us by asking who we were and did we pass this way. I sincerely hope that history judges me by remembering that I did pass this way and that I tried to make the city I love, a cut above the rest.

Music Groups Featured Over Festival Weekend

by Sandy Smith

Members of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, top groups from the metropolitan area, and talented local artists take the stage during the 39th Greenbelt Labor Day Festival. The Legendary Orioles, members of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, perform Saturday evening, September 4. They sing the harmonies of the Platters, Drifters, MoonGloves, Four Tops, Temptations and their own hit song, "Cryin' in the Chapel."

"Avenue Grand Band"

The Legendary Orioles will perform a floor show during the final set of the performance of Denny Martin's "The Avenue Grand Band." Denny Martin and the rest of the group, Chick Hall, Jr., Bill Lubsy, Jim LaComb, Mike Scheer, and Sam Paladino are veteran musicians who have played together for the past three years but have more than 20 years experience in other popular groups, such as the "Memories." Martin explains how the group first got together. Without rehearsals, they just met one afternoon at a club, played, and got an overwhelming response from the audience. They went on to play frequently at area clubs, and are featured entertainers each week at Mama Smilardo's in Chesapeake Beach. A review in the "Voice" called Mama's "Rock and Roll Heaven," and said, "you ain't got no rhythm if you don't sway to the saxophones of Denny Martin and the Avenue Grand Band."

The Avenue Grand Band is noted for its golden oldies playing music from the 50's thru the 70's, and specializing in the music of Motown. Their forte is rhythm and blue do-wap and 60's soul. Other places to catch these musicians from in and around Southern Maryland are the St. Michael's Yacht Club, the Hollywood Ballroom in Silver Spring, and Dancers in Chevy Chase. The group plays a cancer fund-raiser each February at the American Legion Post in Clinton, Maryland and has raised over $10,000 for that cause.

"One Thin Dime"

"One Thin Dime" kicks off the entertainment Friday evening. The group frequently headlines at Remington's, Tornado Alley, in Wheaton and Paragon, in College Park. Known for its "rockin' rhythm and blues" the group features talented musicians and vocalists from various communities in Maryland and close to home, in Greenbelt. Members of the group are Jimmy Trolinger, a third generation drummer, from Cheverly, Rob Dalrymple, Bob Felesky, Mary Shaver as vocalist, and Charlie Havelkost and Rick Colby from Greenbelt. Charlie also takes lead vocals. The group performs the songs of Bonnie Raitt, Janis Joplin, Eric Clapton, Stevie Ray Vaughn, and original songs composed by band members. They also do old R&B classics.

"Bustin' Loose"

Sunday evening, September 5, brings "Bustin' Loose," country with a kick to the Greenbelt stage. Defining their group as country with an edge, new tradition country, the group creates the sounds of Garth Brooks, the Kentucky Headhunters, and Joe Diffy, among others. Richard Kimball of Silver Spring, David Spencer from Greenbelt, Donnie Olverson, from York, Pennsylvania, Harry Woods, originally from Texas, and Wells Woodruff, of Virginia are the band members. The group has been playing together for two years in Southern Maryland and Northern Virginia. They play at the Lonesome Dove, Lone Star Cafe, Delaney's Irish Pub and other area clubs. They will be at the Prince Georges County Fair, Charles County Fair and were featured entertainers at the Montgomery County Fair last year. They produce a high-energy show intent on showing the audience a good time.

"Grandsons of the Pioneers"

Monday, September 6, after the parade, Festival goers will be entertained by the "Grandsons of the Pioneers" who have taken the roots of American music as the source for their unique style of rock and roll. The ingredients in the Grandsons' musical recipe include New Orleans rhythm and blues, western swing, rockabilly, Tex-Mex, mambo rhythms and two step beats. They stir it all up, then dish out servings of well-crafted original numbers and adaptation of songs that make for spicy shows and savory music.

As a quartet, the Grandsons bring with them an array of instruments to accommodate their musical taste. Guitarist Alan MacEwen is the lead vocalist and doubles on trumpet; bassist Rick Jordan also sings and plays saxophone; Jon Danforth plays drum and various percussion instruments. Chris Watling trades off between tenor and baritone saxes, and accordion. Often the Grandsons augment their quartet with Diana Keene on pedal steel guitar, or Carol Arthur on steel drums and organ.

The group's debut CD, "Howdy

Juried Art Exhibit For Senior Citizens

From August 26 through September 30, the University of Maryland University College Arts Program presents the first annual "Senior Citizens Juried Art Exhibition." An opening reception will be held at the Maryland Community Gallery in the University College Center of Adult Education, located at University Boulevard and Adelphi Road, College Park on Saturday, August 28, from 2:30 to 4 p.m. Reservations for the reception can be made by calling (301) 985-7154 by August 24. Open to all senior citizens residing in Prince Georges County, the exhibition presents works in photography, painting, printmaking, and other media. Selection of award winners is based on creativity, originality, and overall artistic excellence. The exhibit is judged by Jeneanne Hunter, Gallery Director of Harmony Hall Regional Center, Fort Washington, Maryland. The Center is a facility of the Maryland-National Capital Park & Planing Commission and is open daily 8 a.m.-8 p.m. All residents of Prince Georges County 60 years of age and older may enter works done in the last three years. Call 301-985-7154 for more information.

from the Grandsons of the Pioneers." was hailed by the Washington Post as "so free-spirited and so subversively anti-sophisticate that it's practically new territory." The Grandsons have just completed their second album, "It's Hip to Flip with Grandsons of the Pioneers," slated for an August release. The Grandsons are based in Washington, D.C. but their territory includes everything between Pennsylvania and Texas, with favorite stops in New Orleans and Austin. Grandsons of the Pioneer's past performances include two sold-out shows at the Barns of Wolf Trap, appearances at Austin's South by Southwest Music Festival, the New Orleans Interfest, and the Mobil Corporation's Concert on the Canal in Washington, D.C.

Also performing during the Festival are the Alte Kameraden, German brass band, Greenbelter Rick Ransom on electric keyboard, the folk duo of Iris Hirsch and Diane Perry, known as Partners in Song and the hard rock group, Seraph. On the stage there will also be magic and clowns, juggling, barbershop quartet, country line dancing, and karate. A full schedule of the entertainment will appear in the next week's News Review.

Festival Notes

by Sandy Smith

Booth Meeting

There will be a meeting for all carnival booth representatives at 6:30 p.m. August 26 at the Greenbelt Police Station. Everyone who has a booth is welcome, but representatives from new booths are especially encouraged to attend. They will receive the latest information on booth requirements and suggestions for a successful booth during the Festival.

Contributions

August 20 is the deadline for contributions to the Labor Day Festival. This year, as in the past, the Festival relies on Greenbelt businesses to contribute to support the array of entertainment on the stage, the entries in the parade, and the many expenses necessary to put on a volunteer four-day community festival. If your business or association has not been contacted by the Festival or you need more information on how a contribution can be made, contact Festival President Bobbi McCarthy, 474-5888.

Festival Schedule

The August 26 issue of the News Review will carry a full schedule of all of the entertainment, special events, exhibits, sports, competitions, and happenings of the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival. The schedule is printed ONLY in that issue. Please save your copy.

Art Show

This week's News Review carries the registration form to submit entries to the Labor Day Festival Art Show. Prizes are given in many categories as well as for two special awards, the long-standing Cipriano Award, which is given to the work best depicting the theme of Americans at work, and the newly-established Environmental Art Award to honor the work best portraying appreciation for the environment. The environment award was initiated last year by the Greenbelt Greens and the Committee to Save the Green Belt.

The Art Show is organized by the Greenbelt Visual Arts Coalition, a group of artists, arts educators and supporters of the arts who are working with the city to create a home for the visual arts in the new Community Center. Information about the arts studios and classrooms planned for the center will be available at the show. Also at the art show, and later in the community information exhibits, will be a scale model, designed by Greenbelt architect K'n McCarl of a new proscenium theater proposed for the Community Center. The scale model illustrates not only how the theater's incorporated into the Community Center, but also how the theater relates to the entire surrounding buildings and open space. The preliminary design of the theater was developed by McCarl in close collaboration with the Theater Development Committee of the Greenbelt Arts Center.

Photo Exhibit

Along with the art show, the Photo Exhibition and Competition entries will be on display in the Youth Center during the Labor Day Festival. There is no advance registration for the photo show, but entries must be framed, wire attached and ready for hanging. Up to two entries per person are accepted the first night of the Festival, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Youth Center. Recognizing all of the interesting faces around Greenbelt (and the world) to capture on film, the competition initiates a new category this year of "People," in addition to the traditional categories of nature/landscape, abstract, general color, and black and white. A Young Photographers Award is given to the photographer under 16 years of age, but children and teens can enter all other categories as well.

Talent Show

Wanted talented performers of all ages. Call Tom Renahan, 345-5352.

The Lion's Roar

by David A. Ward

With the annual Labor Day Parade and Festival fast approaching the Greenbelt Lions Club is finalizing its preparations for participating in this community activity.

As in past years, the Club will sponsor the Bike and Trike Decorating Contest. All children ages 2-12 years are encouraged to participate with a prize going to each entrant. Registration of the bikes and trikes will take place at the Mother and Child statue in Roosevelt Center on Labor Day at 9 a.m. Participants in this unit of the parade will enter the parade at the Mobil Station under the supervision of the Roaring Lions.

The Lions Mobile Health Unit (Eyemobile) will be featured in this year's parade. This van is specially built to offer the public free sight, hearing, and glaucoma screening tests.

After the Eyemobile has completed the parade route it will be parked next to the municipal building and will be opened from noon till 4 p.m. The community is invited to have free sight and hearing screenings done or just come over and see the van. The eyemobile is a very real demonstration of the way donations to the Lions Club are invested.

An information booth will be provided on Saturday, September 4 from noon to 4 p.m. to allow people to speak directly to Lions about Lionism. At the Greenbelt library a display will be set up to provide information on Lionism. This display will be in place for the month of September.

Persons who have eyeglasses which they no longer use and would like to donate them for someone else's use, may do so by turning them in at the Eyemobile on Labor Day or the Information Booth on Saturday. Also the Lions are collecting used postage stamps to distribute to various veterans hospitals for patient's use. Stamp collecting has been found to be a very therapeutic rehabilitation program. The community is encouraged to turn in used stamps at the Information Booth on Saturday of the Eyemobile on Labor Day.

A first for this year's parade will be the "Lion." This very tame Lion will be seen around town after the parade and Festival to promote the Lions Club Drug Awareness Program which the Greenbelt Lions Club is instituting.

Also, King Lion Barbara Jacobs will ride in the parade in an open air safari wagon (actually a convertible car) and will be extending her best wishes to all present.

For those in the community who would enjoy actively participating in Lions work or who might have need for assistance, call Lion Nancy Ward at 441-9082.

Our Neighbors

by Linda Savaryn, 474-5285

Congratulations to Nick and Vita Pergola who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on August 7. The Pergolas wish to thank all who helped make it memorable: Father Thomas Crowley who performed the ceremony at St. Hughes; those who sent greeting cards; and the Golden Age Club which presented them with a cake at their meeting.

Greenbelt Swim Team Wins Division "C" Championship

by Amanda Baldauf and Christine Maher

On the morning of July 31, the Greenbelt Barracudas left the comforts of the Greenbelt Aquatics and Fitness Center to compete for the title of Division Champions at the Temple Hills Swim Club. Later that afternoon, they returned home Division C Champions and had a rather large trophy to prove it. Our score was 268½ and our closest competitor had a mere 230½. This is the second year in a row that Greenbelt has been the Division Champs. With our great success, we're sure to move up to Division B next season.

Swimmers who won all of their events at Divisionals were: Jenny Drake, Aruna Inversin and Kate Hilton. High point contributors to Greenbelt's score were: Katrina Schwartz—17 points; Ben Kepler—16 points; Amanda Baldauf—15 points; Johanna Baker and Christine Maher, both with 14 points; Conor O'Reilly—12 points; and Jeanne Kepler with 11 points. Great job!!!

Greenbelt swimmer Aruna Inversin broke the 15-18 boys breaststroke record. And again, the girls graduated free-style relay of Kate Hilton, Christine Maher, Amanda Baldauf, and Jenny Drake broke Greenbelt's team record and also set the Temple Hills pool record, which had stood since 1981!

Many Greenbelt swimmers have qualified to swim in the Prince-Mont Swim League All Star Meet at Cheverly on August 7. These swimmers from our team are: Johanna Baker, Amanda Baldauf, Jenny Drake, Tim Farris, Brendan Gardes, Holly Hilton, Kate Hilton, Lynn Hull, Aruna Inversin, Keri Kaplan, Ben Kepler, Jeanne Kepler, William Lloyd, Christine Maher, Conor O'Reilly, Katrina Schwartz, Michelle Stickels, and Reed Wirick. Best wishes to all of these swimmers!

Police Blotter

Based on Information Released by the Greenbelt Police Department

As a man was sleeping in his home in the 10 block of Lakeside Drive on August 12, he was awakened by the sound of breaking glass, heard someone try to get into the basement of the house, and then, getting up to investigate, saw an adult male walking away from the house. A brick had been thrown through a glass panel of the basement door, but nothing had been stolen.

Another breaking and entering of a residence was reported on August 12 in the 30 block of Lakeside Drive. Again entry was attempted, but not gained, by breaking a window out of a back door.

A third breaking and entering of a residence was reported on August 12 in 6 Court, Crescent Road. Camera equipment and stereo equipment were stolen.

A 19-year-old nonresident man was arrested and charged with assault and battery on August 11 around 1:45 a.m. after he had sprayed a mace-like chemical in the face of an El Torito's employee (7600 block of Greenbelt Road) following a verbal altercation. The man appeared before a District Court Commissioner and was held on $500 bond pending trial.

While patrolling the area of Greenbelt Road and Kenilworth Avenue on August 11 around 12:15 a.m., an officer stopped a vehicle for a traffic violation and when he approached it smelled marijuana. The driver of the vehicle, a 19-year-old non-resident man, possessed marijuana and was arrested and charged. He appeared before a District Court Commissioner and held on $500 bond pending trial.

Responding to a report of a tampering in progress in the 100 block of Westway around 1:30 a.m. on August 9, officers stopped two vehicles observed leaving the scene in the area of Greenbelt Road and Kenilworth Avenue. They found that both vehicles had been reported stolen, one from the 100 block of Westway. As a result, four non-resident youths, aged 15 and 16, were arrested and charged with theft. All were released to their parents pending trial.

Vandalisms to, thefts from, and attempted thefts of autos were reported in the following areas: the 6100 block of Breeze-wood Drive, the 9100 block of Edmonston Road, the 7500 block of Greenbelt Road, the 7400 block of Morrison Drive, 12 Court Ridge Road, the 6000 block of Springhill Drive, and the 100 block of Westway.

Help Reduce Crime

The Greenbelt Police Department is working hard to reduce crime in the city and wants Greenbelters to help. To ensure that residents do not invite burglary or thefts, the department advises residents to follow these prevention tips:

- Always lock doors and windows.
- Be sure that doors with glass have adequate locks.
- Keep the exterior of your home well lit at night.
- Use timers to turn lights and a radio on and off when you are away for extended periods of time.
- Be a good neighbor—watch your neighbor's home while they're away.
- Report all crimes, suspicious persons, or activity to the police.

The Department of Parks and Recreation is committed to accommodating individuals with disabilities into their programs. Please contact the facility manager if any special assistance is needed to participate, or for further questions.

JOE'S TIPS OF THE WEEK

Hello again !!!

One of the most asked questions with regard to one's automobile is "why do my brakes squeak?" This question does not surprise us here at the repair facility because brake systems are among the top 5% of replacement type repairs. Sometimes brakes will squeak when they are applied, sometimes when you are just driving around. Some noises emitting from brake assemblies are considered to be normal, others are not. I would consider light squeaks that occur for a second or two when the brakes are applied to be OK, but a constant squeak or squeal as you are moving that seems to go away when the brakes are applied could be telling you something.

Most of our brake systems are equipped with semi-metallic brake pads. Built onto these pads is a small clip that is situated about one fourth inch from the end of the brake pad material.
 When the brake pad wears down, the metal clip comes in contact with the brake rotor and causes a squealing noise. This noise alerts the driver that the brake pads have reached the beginning point of needing replacement. The confusing thing about this squealing is, when you apply the brakes the noise will go away.
 This is normal, but don't let it fool you.

Unfortunately, most drivers think nothing is happening — it's just a noise. After a period of time the real problems begin. No more brake pad is left, a metal to metal condition develops, and major brake components have to be serviced. The sad thing is this type of major repair could have been prevented if, at the first sign of the problem, the wheels had been removed and a 4 wheel brake inspection performed.

An ounce of prevention could have been ten pounds of cure in this case.

Attention GHI Members

Maintenance Emergency

After Hours Phone Service

On September 1st, the GHI Maintenance Department will have a new after-hours emergency answering service. Members will be able to speak to an actual operator. Staff requests that members designate if their call is an emergency or a regular work order. The operator will contact the maintenance personnel. We hope this will improve communication between the members and maintenance. The number for this after hours maintenance emergency service is still 474-6011.
