We Ask Candidates to Respond To 5 Questions on City Issues

The News Review has once again posed to city council candidates a series of questions that relate to issues we believe are of general interest to Greenbelt voters. In this issue, we list the questions we have asked. In the next five issues, we will publish, unedited, the answers received from the candidates. However, we will limit answers to 150 words or less. If an answer exceeds that number, we will cut it off at precisely that limit. Nor will we publish personal attacks against any other candidate.

This series of questions and answers is one of several ways in which this paper will provide voters with information about all six candidates. We are also publishing their biographies as provided. We will also cover and report on candidates night events sponsored by civic organizations.

Questions

1. What is your vision for Greenbelt in the coming years? What do you most want to accomplish as a city councilmember? (For the October 2 issue.)

2. What public safety issues do you see as needing attention by the city? As a city councilmember, how would you deal with these issues? (For October 9 issue.)

3. Although private contractors remove refuse and recyclable materials from most apartments, townhomes and condominiums, the city provides this service for a fee to most free-standing and GHI homes. The city also operates a drop-off recycling center at Buddy Attick Park. The city council has approved a number of changes to city service in order to save on expenses and avoid raising fees, including reducing refuse collection to once a week beginning in October. Are you satisfied with the way refuse and recyclables are now collected in Greenbelt? If not, what would you change? (For October 16 issue.)

4. Council has modified a few streets to accommodate bicycle lanes and to slow traffic by employing traffic calming devices, including speed bumps. Do you agree with the changes made? What other steps, if any, would you propose to protect pedestrians, bicyclists, and motorists? (For October 23 issue.)

5. Is further action needed to protect the woodlands of Parcels 1 and 2 now owned by the city? If so, what? (For October 31 issue.)

City's Founding Brought Hope to Many in Area

by Pat Unger

"FILENE BACKS COOPERATIVE AT GREENBELT." Reaching for my paper, as I set out for my job in Washington on the morning of September 2, 1937, I saw the headline set in bold type right in the center of page 1.

"All summer this particular page of the Washington Post had been devoted to Japanese attacks on China, the Spanish Civil War, the Scottsboro case, the Nazi jailing of Pastor Neimoller, the search for Amelia Earhart, Russian arrests and liquidations, and Hitler's latest mouthings ... Perhaps hope had once more found the front page."

These are the opening paragraphs of George A. Warner's "Greenbelt, the Cooperative Community," a history of the city's founding which was published in 1954. The hope he refers to must have been in the hearts of the pioneers as they moved into their brand new homes in the brand new planned community. The young families, after registration, interviews, and selection by special committee, continued to move into the project from October of 1937 until December 1938. The Warners chose the corner unit at 13-H Ridge Road and moved in on April 30, 1938.

Many members of those families and their descendants will gather for a Pioneer Family Reunion Luncheon at American Legion Post 136 on Saturday, October 18. Sponsored by the 60th Anniversary Committee, this is the only event of the weekend-long celebration which is by invitation only. Bob Sommers is the chairman who has coordinated all the invitations and arrangements. At present more than 250 people have made reservations and are looking forward to renewing their friendships of sixty years. Some have not seen each other since the reunion luncheon for the 50th Anniversary in 1987. Others see each other often as they still live in Greenbelt or near enough to attend Greenbelt High School (now Greenbelt Middle School) class reunions or Labor Day Festivals. Some grew up here, went all through school together, married, had children, and have watched their grandchildren play on all the same playgrounds and ballfields.

In the midst of the Great Depression, one mother wrote, "We are in the process of creating homes ... Only in our fondest and most youthful dreams have we imagined such a chance. What will we make of it?"

Her question will be answered by those who attend the Opening Ceremony on Friday, October 17 at 7 p.m. in the Community Center and the Gala Dinner Dance at Martin's Crosswinds on Sunday, October 19 from 2 to 7 p.m. Those events are designed to celebrate both Greenbelt's unique past and the modern suburb the city has become. Tickets for the dance are available from the Youth Center business office. Call 301-397-2200 for information.

The next meeting of the 60th Anniversary Committee will be held on Wednesday, October 1 at 7 p.m. in the Senior Classroom of the Community Center. The contact is Emory Harman, chairman, at 301-474-5156.

NASA to Have Community Day

NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center is sponsoring a "Community Day" on Sunday, Sept. 28, at the Goddard Visitor Center. This event will provide the general public with a unique opportunity to participate in a sampling of Goddard's ongoing activities.

Some of the scheduled activities for this event include an address by a keynote speaker, guided walking/bus tours, "Living in Space" presentations, demonstrations by the Goddard amateur radio club, a model aircraft demonstration and a model rocket launch.

Admission and parking are free. Food and beverages will be available for purchase. The Visitor Center Gift Shop will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, call 301-286-8981.

Boxwood Civic Assn. Celebrates 30 Years

The Boxwood Civic Association will celebrate its 30th anniversary with a pizza party for Boxwood Village residents on Sunday, October 5, from 3:30 until dark at the tot lot on the corner of Ivy and Lastner Lane. There will be prizes for the kids, games on the field, and fun for all. Pizza and drinks will be sold at cost. Residents wishing to volunteer their help should call Jean Cook at 301-345-2597.

There's Still Time to Register For the City Council Election

Six candidates will be vying for five city council seats in the upcoming November 4 Greenbelt City Council election. Four incumbents — Mayor Pro tem Judith Davis and councilmembers Edward Putens, Rodney Roberts and Thomas X. White — are running for reelection. (Mayor Antoinette Bram chose to retire from council). Throwing their hats into the ring are challengers Konrad Herling and Alan Turnbull. The filing deadline for candidates was Monday, September 22 at 5 p.m.

Incumbents can be expected to concentrate their efforts on vying for the mayoral seat which traditionally goes to the top vote getter.

In order to vote on Tuesday, November 4, Greenbelters must be registered with Prince George's county in order to cast their ballots on election day. Anyone who is uncertain about his or her voting status may call the County Board of Supervisors of Elections at 301-952-3270. Although the county Board of Elections will handle all registrations, registration forms may be picked up during regular office hours at the city offices, 25 Crescent Road (Municipal Building), or at the Greenbelt Library on Crescent Road. Voters may also call the Board of Elections at 301-637-2814 to request a form by mail. All completed forms must be received by the Board of Elections in Upper Marlboro by 4 p.m. October 6.

Qualifications

In order to vote in Greenbelt, and to be registered with Prince George's County, one must be a citizen of the United States of America; at least 18 years of age as of November 4, 1997; domiciled within the corporate limits of the city of Greenbelt as of the date of registration; not convicted more than once of an infamous crime and not currently under a sentence imposed pursuant to a conviction of an infamous crime (direct questions to the election office, 301-952-3270); and not under guardianship for mental disability.

Election of Council

The five candidates each receiving at least 40 percent of the total number of votes cast and highest number of votes cast will be elected. If fewer than five candidates receive at least 40 percent of votes cast, a run off election will be held on Tuesday, November 11. Twice as many as there are positions to be filled will be submitted to the voters. In more than 20 years this has not been necessary.

Greenbelt does not have provisions for election of the mayor or mayor pro tem by the electorate. At the organizational meeting on the Monday following the election (Monday, November 10) the newly elected council will elect the mayor and mayor pro tem. Traditionally, the new council has elected the highest vote getter to be mayor and second highest vote getter to be mayor pro tem for the ensuing two-year term.

See the box below for the city registration figures.

Letters to the Editor

Lucky Children

I am overjoyed to see Mrs. Curl at Greenbelt Elementary.

Mrs. Curl was my second grade teacher at North End. Looking back, that year holds my fondest memories of all the years I went to school. Mrs. Curl always took the time to make each child feel special. She was always fair and made it a point to know each child on a personal level.

I can only hope that the children at Greenbelt Elementary know how lucky they are to have Mrs. Curl for their principal.

Susan Keifline-Thompson

Thanks

As sponsor of the 'Button Making' booth at the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival, the Greenbelt Baha'i Community wishes to thank our patrons and inform them that all proceeds from the booth have been forwarded to the endowment for the Baha'i Chair for World Peace located in the University of Maryland's Center for International Development and Conflict Management.

Thanks

Congratulations to our Labor Day Parade entrants - 2nd place in floats is pretty good for our first try. We had the Eleanor Roosevelt High School Woodwinds Quintet on a truck donated by Behnke's Nurseries, representatives of the world champion double dutch jump rope team, juggler David Schuman, a Human Clock, a Middle-Aged Father Time, and the Expectant Mother of the New Year's Baby. Special thanks to Joe McNeal and Ken Voigt for their help too.

The parade was just a small sample of the variety of entertainment you'll see on New Year's Eve from 7 p.m. - 1 a.m. 1998, with the Grand Procession from 6-7 p.m. Thanks to our business and community sponsors - Greenbelt Co-op, Generous Joe's and the Greenbelt Volksmarchers. The list of sponsors is growing; we'll still be able to provide a quality New Year's Eve at a family price.

Correction

The name of Joseph Lau was inadvertently omitted from the article about Kathy Curl, Greenbelt Elementary School's new principal. Joseph, a third grader, was among those who represented Greenbelt Elementary at the Greenbelt schools' cluster meeting at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. He played the violin. The News Review regrets the omission.

Recycling Help Offered Citizens

This letter is for those Greenbelters who are serviced by the city for their collection of trash and recyclables. The city will switch to once-a-week trash collection starting October 6. For those residents who think they will not be able to cope with once-per-week service and are considering signing up for the $112 additional fee for a second weekly pickup, the Recycling Advisory Committee offers the following assistance.

First, we have made a video showing the various ways in which trash volumes can be reduced by recycling, or eliminated altogether through source reduction. This video will be shown several times on the city's B-10 cable TV channel. In addition, the video can be borrowed from the City's Recycling Coordinator, Jennifer Foley (301-474-8308), so you can view it at your own convenience.

Second, members of the committee will gladly come to your home to assist you in developing ways to reduce your trash volume. The committee decided to do this after learning that other communities have been very successful in resolving problems by

Thanks for Response To Flyers

The Greenbelt City Council, the Community Relations Advisory Board, and the Greenbelt News Review are to be commended for their strong coordinated response to the distribution of racially divisive flyers in the city. Diversity is a vital part of the richness of our community, and we must unite to speak out against any forms of intolerance.

As Martin Luther King, Jr. so eloquently stated, "All people are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." We must all share the responsibility of confronting injustice to any of us.

going to each "problem" home and speaking with and educating the resident. To get this help, just call Foley. Also, we want to point out that you are not limited to one trash can! In conclusion, we wish you a successful switch to once-a-week trash collection. Try it — you'll like it!

OFFICIAL NOTICE

REGULAR ELECTION -
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1997

The final day to register in order to vote in the Greenbelt City Council election will be Monday, October 6, 1997.

Residents must be registered with Prince George's County in order to vote. Voter registration forms may be obtained by calling 301-627-2814, or you may pick up a form at the Greenbelt Municipal Building or the Greenbelt Library.

These forms must be received by the County Board of Supervisors of Elections, 14701 Oden Bowie Drive, in Upper Marlboro by 4:00 p.m. on October 6th. The city is not involved with this procedure, and the registering voter is responsible for mailing or delivering the form to Upper Marlboro. If you do not know whether or not you are registered, you may call the County Board of Elections at 301-952-3270.

Lutherans Celebrate "Bless the Years"

The Reverend Stephen H. Mentz, pastor of Holy Cross Lutheran Church has announced the congregation's intention to observe a Bless the Years Sunday, September 28. All "seniors," 65 plus, are invited to this special celebration at the 8:30 and 11:15 a.m. services. Previous pastor, Ed Birner, will give the sermon, and other participants in the service will have reached 65 years of age.

"More than 800 Lutheran congregations across the nation have participated in the new program," the minister explained. "Developed by the Association of Lutheran Older Adults, the program helps members of our congregations to recognize each year added to our lives as a gift from God. Affirming the worth of older adults, stressing the importance of intergenerational conversation and collaboration, and seeking to find ways to challenge and engage seniors for service to God, to neighbors and to community, ALOA has chosen as its byword, 'Celebrate and Serve!'"

"The Holy Cross congregation intends to observe such an event calling upon some of its more seasoned members to participate in both the planning of this event and serving the congregation during the special services on that day. As much as possible we will want to be involving older members in the event itself. And, we are hoping that we can instill more reverence for the gift of added years in the life of our congregation and its members; helping them in the understanding of and sensitivity to the needs of older people in their neighborhoods and in their community as well."

Hospital to Sponsor Talk on Aging Backs

Dr. Marianne Sturr in Takoma Park will discuss prevention, diagnosis and treatment of the aging back. Washington Adventist Hospital is sponsoring this free program on Monday, October 6, at 7:15 p.m. Call 301-681-6800 to preregister.

Explorations Unlimited Presents Poetry

On Friday, October 3, Explorations Unlimited presents an updated look at Robert Louis Stevenson's, "A Child's Garden of Verses." The presenter will be Greenbelter Dorrie Bates.

While looking at children's poetry and the world of childhood, participants will visit some old favorites and also meet their modern equivalent through the works of poets like Shel Silverstein, Lucille Clifton and Nikki Giovanni. Discussion topics will include how childhood (and parenting/grandparenting) has changed in the last decade.

Explorations Unlimited is a speaker series held every Friday from 1-3 p.m., at the Community Center. This presentation will be held in the senior classroom. Everyone is welcome to attend and questions are always encouraged. Please call 301-397-2208 for more information.

POLICE BLOTTER

Based on Information Released by the Greenbelt Police Department

Two assaults occurred on September 12 on Springhill Lane. A youth was assaulted while waiting for the school bus in the morning and investigation is underway to identify the suspects involved. Late in the evening, a youth leaving the variety store on Springhill Lane was accosted by six youths who beat the victim with their fists after he refused to respond to their questions. The victim fled and was taken to the hospital by his father where he was treated for a laceration to his lip. Investigation is under way to identify the suspects.

A woman walking near the intersection of Springhill Drive and Edmonston Road around 8:15 p.m. on Sept. 17 was approached by a man who pushed a handgun into her side. The suspect asked where the victim's cousin was and when she responded that she did not know, the suspect threatened the victim and her family if he discovered that the victim was lying. The suspect, described as a black male in his twenties, 5'7" heavy build, wearing a white t-shirt, blue jeans and sneakers, with his hair in a "cornrow" style, released the victim and fled on foot toward Edmonston Road.

A resident was the victim of an armed robbery on September 17 in the 9000 block of Breezewood Terrace. The victim was approached by a man as she walked to her building coming from the playground area. He brandished a knife and asked the victim for her money. The victim handed over her money and then fled into her apartment. The suspect fled on foot. He is described as a black male, 18 to 23 years of age, 6', thin build, wearing all black including a black skull cap and black parachute pants.

Two Greenbelt youths, stopped by an officer in the 6100 block of Springhill Dr. on September 13, were questioned when one of them matched the description of a youth who ran from an officer earlier that evening. When the youths were asked if they had any contraband, one removed a small semi-automatic pistol from his pocket and the second was found in possession of tobacco. Both suspects were arrested and the youth carrying a handgun without a license was charged as an adult. Both were released to family members pending trial.

While on bike patrol in the 9300 block of Edmonston Rd., an officer arrested at the playground four Greenbelt youths, 13 to 17 years old, who smelled of marijuana. Also, 19.9 grams of marijuana was located in the area of the youths. An unidentified youth ran from the scene and eluded the police. The youths (all from Greenbelt) were arrested and released to their families pending action by the Juvenile Justice System.

A burglary was reported on September 18 in the 100 block of Westway. It is unknown how entry was gained. A cellular telephone was taken. Suspects entered the Nail Art Inc. at Beltway Plaza by unknown means on September 14 and took an air brush compressor, spray guns and several valves.

Officers responded to a call September 14 from a residence in the 6000 block of Springhill Dr. for a report of a suspect who, after an argument with the victim, kicked the door of the victim's apartment open and threw a glass figurine striking the victim in the head. The suspect, a resident of Springhill Dr. was arrested, charged with burglary and held on $5,000 bond pending trial.

A vandalism was reported in the 100 block of Centerway. Although nothing was taken, a suspect cracked the window of the store.

Other Incidents

A Greenbelt youth has been charged in numerous acts of vandalism which have occurred at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. The suspect began painting the word "EPIC" on doors, seats and walls. The suspect has been charged with malicious destruction and released to the custody of school administrators pending action by the Juvenile Justice System. A nonresident male was arrested on Kenilworth Ave. for driving while intoxicated and possession of suspected cocaine. He was held on $2,500 bond pending trial.

Officers responded to a residence in the 7400 block of Morrison Dr. for a report of a domestic assault. Both parties involved, had assaulted one another. They were arrested and charged with assault and are on release pending trial.

A group of youths loitering in front of the shopping center on Springhill Lane on September 12 were asked by a bicycle patrol officer to move on. All complied except one Greenbelt youth who became loud and used profanity and racial slurs. The youth once again refused the officer's request to move on. He was arrested, charged with disorderly conduct and released to a family member pending action by the Juvenile Justice System.

A nonresident woman has been arrested and charged with theft and forgery for the September 10 theft of a wallet. Two Baltimore residents, who dined at Jaspers Restaurant and then tried to pay with a stolen credit card, were arrested and charged. Investigation revealed that the suspects were in possession of a handgun and stolen property. An unattended purse was reported stolen at the Holiday Inn on September 14. A boy's 20" Pacific Hammer bicycle was reported stolen from a hallway in the 7900 block of Mandan Rd. The bicycle was unsecured and unattended.

ATTENTION PROSPECTIVE HOMEBUYERS

Greenbelt Homes, Inc. (GHI), one of the largest and most established housing cooperatives in the country, is offering brief and informative presentations designed to introduce GHI to you. The presentation will explain what a cooperative is, how GHI operates, what services are provided to GHI members under the monthly charges, and the financing sources which are available. This information will be useful to you whether or not you purchase a GHI home. This is an ideal opportunity for persons who are considering home ownership to learn about GHI and to ask questions in a relaxed atmosphere. Let us introduce you to the cooperative lifestyle BEFORE you look for a home. The next presentations will be held on:

Monday, October 6, 1997 7:30 pm
Saturday, October 25, 1997 11:00 am

Please call Receptionist at 301-474-4161 for reservations and information. The sessions are free, and there is no obligation.

Azalea Auction Sale

Fall is the best time to plant azaleas. Gardeners can choose azaleas and companion plants offered by the Brookside Chapter of the Azalea Society of America during their annual auction, held on September 27, noon to 4 p.m. at the U.S. National Arboretum. Society members will answer questions at the Administration Building Auditorium. The arboretum is located in Northeast Washington, DC, with entrances on New York Avenue, NE or R Street, NE, off Bladensburg Road. For further information call 202-245-2726.

Symphony Presents Concert at ERHS

The University of Maryland Symphony Orchestra, conducted by William Hudson, will perform in concert on Monday, September 29 at 8 p.m., at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. The program includes Glinka's Russian and Ludmilla Overture, the Prelude to the Afternoon of A Faun by Debussy, and Concerto For Two Trumpets by Vivaldi, featuring Amy Johnson and Heidi Schiller on trumpet, as well as Symphony No. 9 by Dvorak. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend. For additional information, please call 301-405-1150.

Patuxent Refuge Has Sunday Open House

The Patuxent Research Refuge will hold a free open house in celebration of National Hunting and Fishing Day on Sunday, September 28, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the north tract. Learn about fish, wildlife and their habitats. Activities will be available for the entire family including fly-tying and casting, retriever demonstrations, scavenger hunt and children's activities. Come enjoy a day of outdoor experiences! The north tract is located off Route 198 between Laurel and Fort Meade. Call 410-674-3304 for information.

Herbs to Dye For

Visitors can watch colors appear like magic from familiar and not-so-familiar plants. Docents will answer questions and show some of nature's amazing color palette at the Dye

Discovery Station in the National Herb Garden at the U.S. National Arboretum on September 27 and 28 from noon to 2 p.m.

For information call 202-245-2726.

Refuge Celebrates Wildlife Week

The Patuxent Research Refuge will kick off the annual celebration of National Wildlife Refuge Week on Saturday, October 4, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the National Wildlife Visitor Center, south of Laurel.

The day will be filled with a variety of events and activities demonstrating the work of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in protecting and enhancing the Nation's wildlife. There will be live animals, wildlife management walks, puppet shows and other children's activities. Visitors can explore the autumn landscape on a network of trails and newly-constructed wetland walkways; as well as by way of electric tram tours through the forests and meadows where deer and other wildlife are frequently seen. All activities are free of charge except for a modest fee for tram tours.

The Visitor Center is located off Powder Mill Road, between the Baltimore/Washington Parkway and Route 197. Call 301-497-5760 for more information.

Greenbelt Arts Foundation Scores High at Festival

The Greenbelt Foundation for the Arts, Inc., made its fund-raising debut at the Labor Day Festival.

In a booth topped by a replica of the Greenbelt Theater's original upper marquee and with a giant red picture frame outlining the front, 17 volunteers sold art works, raffle tickets and caricatures. The booth won second prize at the Festival.

George Kochell spent over 30 hours sketching the personalities of children, adults (some well known in town) and even animals. One standard poodle sat on his mistress's lap for ten minutes in the hot afternoon sun. All watching agreed Kochell captured the dog's friendly personality.

Kochell teaches drawing at Montpelier Arts Center and will teach caricature and cartooning here as part of the new arts programming at the Community Center.

Lots of Art

City residents donated over 30 pieces of art; many were sold and a Haitian wood carving standing almost four feet tall, was won by In You Soon of Plateau Place. She generously gave a donation to the Foundation to express her joy at winning. The 25-year-old carving was donated by Molly Reuben, the widow of artist Isadore Reuben.

Dance Plans

Leftover art will be sold at future fundraisers. The next major event is the Sweethearts for the Arts Ball to be held at the Community Center in February 1998.

Founding Members

People who took membership forms at the Festival are encouraged to mail in the application before September 30, in order to be founding members. Forms are available by calling 301-474-9446 or 301-441-8249 and leaving name and phone numbers.

The Foundation's mission is to provide opportunities for Greenbelters of all ages to explore and nurture their creativity. It will be a funding source for instructional and expressive programs in drama, visual arts, dance, music and literature. Special consideration will be given to grant proposals for projects and programs designed for children.

The group is in the process of obtaining its tax-exempt status and already has money in its Founder's Fund in memory of the late artist and teacher Dial Silvers.

More information can be obtained by calling the phone numbers listed or by speaking to any of the following members of the Board of Directors: Charles Braun, Konrad Herling, Andy Nitz, Eileen Peterson, Rodney Roberts (who designed and built most of the booth) and Valerie Siegal.

The Greenbelt Foundation for the Arts, Inc., booth is a replica of the old Greenbelt Theatre's marquee atop a giant red picture frame. Valerie Siegal is in the booth on the far left. Art for sale and auction hangs on the back wall. Carol and John Mealey chat in front of the booth.
