HOSPITAL INAUGURATES NEW BILL PAYING POLICY

Greenbelt Hospital bills are payable weekly in advance, with a refund if the patient stays less than a week, under a new policy established by the Board of Trustees in a meeting Wednesday night, March 6.

This new policy is based on findings of a survey of hospital credit and business policies made by Wallace F. Mabee, and reported to the board by Town Manager Braden, together with his recommendation of the new ruling. One of the other findings of the survey was that charges of the Greenbelt Hospital are slightly lower than average.

In making the survey, Mr. Mabee used reports and information from eight hospitals in Washington, the United States Public Health Service, Group Hospitalization, Inc., the Prince Georges County Commissioners, and the County Department of Social Welfare. Figures from a study made of 30 Ohio hospitals ranging in size from one to 25 beds were used.

The board requested the town manager's office to make further study, on the basis of which to present to the trustees a monthly statement of the operations of the Greenbelt Hospital. The statement is to include the cost by month of running the Hospital, with each classification of expense figured on the basis of a patient day. This is to show how costs vary with the percentage of occupancy. From these statements the board hopes to be able to determine what a proper economic unit would be.

HOUSING GETS ATTENTION IN THE COUNTY

The Park and Planning Commission was under fire at the meeting of the Federation of Prince Georges County Citizens' Associations at Bladensburg, Thursday, March 7.

Guest speakers, introduced by Mr. Louis Granados of East Riverdale, Chairman of the Federation's Committee on Housing, included R. M. Watkins, President of the County Real Estate Board; J. Bond Smith, General Counsel for the Park and Planning Commission, and William Carson, President of the Board of County Commissioners.

Powers of the Park and Planning Commission are advisory only, according to Mr. Smith. The Commission is primarily concerned with zoning; that is, the planned development of Prince Georges County. This county and Montgomery County were described as the favored residential areas of "Greater Washington". He pointed out that a new zoning ordinance is in process of preparation.

Mr. Carson and Mr. Granados, as well as speakers from the audience, stated the view that the Park and Planning Commission was not fulfilling its function so long as structures of the "packing box" type continued to be built within the County. Action by the State Legislature at its next session was urged, to give the Commission the authority to back up its decisions.

Approval of the movement undertaken some time ago by the Park and Planning Commission at the instance of the Federation for a more orderly marking of the streets in the County was re-affirmed by the body and Mr. C. F. Luebner, President of the Edmonston Citizens' Association, was appointed to cooperate with the Commission.

A resolution in opposition to the Hatch Bill was also adopted by formal action of the Federation, to be forwarded to the Maryland congressional representatives.

Judge Alfred D. Bailey, past president for fifteen years of the Federation, was named as winner of the Evening Star Trophy awarded annually by the Federation to one of its members for outstanding service to the community.

Letters from Senators Tydings and Radcliffe, Representative Sasser and State Senator Marbury favoring establishment of a hospital in Prince Georges were read.

SCHOOL CHILDREN PRESENT PROFESSOR QUIZ IMITATION

Friday, March 8, the children of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the Elementary School presented a quiz program patterned after the radio program of Professor Quiz.

The questions were written and submitted by the children. Anne Childress was the Professor and Dorothy Wood was her assistant. The quiz was divided into two rounds—one for boys and one for girls. The finals left Betty Simcoe and Kaywin Knox competing for first place. Kaywin, nine years old and in the fourth grade, was the victor and his reward was two tickets to the Greenbelt Theater and perhaps more important than that, great esteem in the eyes of his classmates.

Cooperator staff members are reminded that there will be a meeting of the full staff tonight at 8 P.M. in the Cooperator office. Shifts in assignments, finances, editorial policy, and plans for the coming banquet will be discussed.

MORE BOOKS THAN CROOKS SHOWN IN MONTHLY REPORT

When the monthly reports of all the departments of the town were presented at the last meeting of the Town Council, it was discovered with pride that the fines collected at the library for the month of February exceeded the fines of the Department of Public Safety. "More crooks than books", remarked Lyman Woodman, from his seat in the audience. Overdue fines on books amounted to $21.

The total book circulation for the month of February was 2,595, and the total attendance at the library was 3,751. There are now 2,393 books in the library, four of which were added during the month of February. Frequent additions to the library are provided for in the town budget.

Patronage - Slip Credits Go To 425 Purchasers

A total of 425 patronage-slip bundles were submitted to the Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc.—representing $132,391 in 1939 purchases, as stated in last week's Cooperator—it was announced last Saturday.

A preliminary check on the amount of patronage return received by each member of the cooperative indicated that 243 received amounts up to $5.00 in credits towards shares, 175 were credited with amounts ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 and seven persons received $10.00 or more in credits.

The largest patronage return credit amounted to $13.53, representing purchases of $901.90.

No bundles were accepted after the deadline, 8:00 P.M., February 24. It was stated that at least five individuals asked permission to submit bundles after that time while others, upon discovering their lateness, did not bring in their patronage slips.

It was pointed out by one of the directors, that although the board was requested to do so, it had no authority to make any exceptions because the deadline was set by a vote of the membership at its annual meeting on February 7.

One of the directors stated the cooperative was pleased to announce that several patrons have already completed payments on shares for which they had received credits.

P.-T.A. will discuss movies for children March 18.

GREENBELT REPS TRIUMPH IN FURIOUS A.A.U. TILT

McDonald Star of Close Battle

Staging a story book finish, the "Reps", sponsored by the Greenbelt Athletic Club, defeated the fast Treasury outfit last Friday night, March 8, 1940 in the Heurich Gymnasium in Washington, D. C., by the close score of 33 to 32. The "Reps", a last minute entry in the A.A.U. and Washington Post Basketball Tournament, came from behind on several occasions to pull the game out of the fire. The incomparable Mickey McDonald really went to town and scored 19 points. At one stage of the game activities were halted while Mickey borrowed a pair of shoes to replace the ones he burned out. (Yes, Sir, Mickey was really hot).

The Reps were trailing with two minutes to go 32 to 30, when Abrahams picked up a loose ball and sent it through the hoop to tie the score. The next sixty seconds seemed eternal as both teams tried desperately to break the dead lock. At this point of the game, Coach Resnick pulled the quickest resignation on record. The referee called a foul against Greenbelt, and "Butch" objected loudly. The referee halted the game and asked if "Butch" was connected with the team. Quick as a flash "Butch" stated he was just a spectator. Had "Butch" been less quick on the draw, the referee would have awarded a technical foul that might have cost the Reps the game. Treasury failed to sink the free try, and the Reps pounced on the ball, and moved it down the floor. In trying to work the ball under the basket, Barker was fouled. In a hush that you could hear a pin drop, Barker took a deep breath, stepped up to the line, and coolly dropped the ball through the net for what proved to be the winning margin. Truly a Frank Meriwell finish to a well played game.

Marack of the Reps was really disappointed. It was his birthday, and he tried desperately to break into the scoring column, but to no avail. Nevertheless, the boys serenaded him afterwards with "Happy Birthday, Bob".

Olson was the money man for Treasury, keeping his team in the running by scoring 13 points with six boals and a foul shot. Treasury led at half time by a supposedly comfortable margin of 21 to 17.

Les Saunders, from "B" Block, was a one man rooting section, encouraging and advising the boys. We hope "Les" brings along some of his side kicks tonight, when the Reps play F.B.I. in the Heurich Gym at 9:30 P.M. in the second round of the Tournament. It seems that with the fans behind them, our boys really play like champs. Will see you tonight? J. A.

McCarl and Lastner Attend Dental Meeting

Greenbelt is being represented at the Dental Centenary Celebration at Baltimore by Dr. and Mrs. James W. McCarl, both serving on committees, and by Francis J. Lastner, representing the Lockwood Dental Supplies Company of Washington.

During March 18, 19, and 20 several thousand dentists and laymen from all over the country will hear scientific essays, see motion pictures, and view exhibits, all centering about the evolution and present practice of American dentistry.

Baltimore was chosen for the convention because this year marks the 100th anniversary of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, which has played a conspicuous part in the history of dentistry in this country.

Telephone Company and Students Present Program

On Tuesday, March 19, 1940, the students of Greenbelt High School are presenting a three-act play, "From Then 'til Now", at 7:30 P.M. at the Greenbelt Elementary School Auditorium.

The cast is directed by Sidney Henes of the school faculty and the entire evening of entertainment is being presented by the school, with the cooperation of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. of Baltimore City.

Following the play, sound movies will be shown and guests will be treated to a long distance demonstration with the entire audience listening in, similar to that shown at the World's Fair.

WITH THE PLAYERS

The Greenbelt Players hold a program meeting on Tuesday, March 19 at eightish P.M. in school room 222. The evening's feature will be a reading by Dorothy East of Starke Young's spring play, "The Twilight Faint." If the "Bury The Dead" cast procures its costumes and scenery during the next three weeks, it is probable that a few shots will be taken of their rehearsals for release in the April Greenbelt news reel.

It is reported that Director Schein is having a bit of difficulty arranging rehearsal points—what with no theatre to work in now. There has been concentration on the male parts of the story in the meantime in house-to-house readings, and the actors are much enthused over the script material.

WASHINGTON CALENDAR:

The East Washington Troupers are presenting their WJSV tournament play, "Five-Nine-One" at 4:00 P.M. this Saturday.

At the National Theatre, Paul Muni clumps about the stage in "Key Largo", through March 16. Also at the National, for the entertainment of the youngsters comes "Under the Lilacs, or A Boy and His Dog", presented by the Children's Theatre of New York. (10:30 A.M.—tickets at 1734 F Street)

This week's Foreign Language Cinema picture at Pierce Hall, 15th & Harvard Streets, is the Mexican story, "Hombres De Mar", this Saturday. (8:00 P.M.—40 cents)

Laise Rainer may be seen at the Belasco in "Saint Joan", with the Washington Civic Theatre through the 16th of March. (8:40 P.M.)

MRS. GREENBELT

Good Evening, Mrs. Greenbelt

Well, here we are again, with a short issue. It ought to make things easier, not having to put so much on the page, but on the contrary, it makes it harder. It's kind of tough to have everything all lined up and then have to scrap the whole bunch, or in this case, save it up for next week. Oh, well, it'll be nice having it all done next week, if I live that long! I'm that tired. And a full week ahead.

Wish Mr. Roosevelt would fix up some plan for putting an extra day in the week. Maybe I'd get time to do some of the things I've been saving up for such an occasion. Guess it's just as well, though, that he doesn't. I'd probably fill it up, too, and then I would play out in a hurry!

— Peggie Arness

March 18 the Parent Teachers Association is planning a program about the subject of movies for children. Robert Buchele, manager of the Greenbelt Theater, will speak on booking children's pictures. Lois Fulmer will present the parents' points of view. A committee representing the Elementary School is to discuss the educational value of films for children, and a general discussion is planned centering about the improvement of the children's conduct during the Saturday matinee.

At the last meeting of the Greenbelt Women's Club, held at the home of Mrs. Roy S. Braden, Mrs. L. J. Benefiel presented a Pioneer medal to the President, Mary Lloyd Willis. She was given the medal, awarded under the auspices of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs, for her outstanding leadership in club work in this county and in the District of Columbia. Mrs. Willis helped to organize the Riverdale Mother's Club and is a member of the Society of Natives, Footlights, a dramatic club, the Housekeepers' Alliance, and the Political Study Club. In 1937 she became a Grey Lady and has visited the wards of Walter Reed Hospital every week since.

Better Buyers Briefs

Mrs. Mary Fitzmaurice has temporarily taken over the leadership of the group headed by Mrs. Peggy Loftus. The group met with Mrs. Peggie Bargas, 6-D Ridge Road, on March 7. After discussion of different condiments, with examination of samples and illustrations showing the growing plants, several types of consumer publications were passed around for examination.

There will be no meeting, as scheduled, on March 21. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Bordenet, 1-D Gardenway, on April 4.

On March 6, Mrs. Doris Seybold was hostess to the Nifty Shoppers Club in her home, 40-B Crescent Road. The club welcomed one new member.

Mrs. Helen Heine gave a discussion on canned peaches, after which the club tested three brands of peaches for taste.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Aggie Warner, 17-D Ridge Road, on March 20.

Mrs. Robert Stein was hostess to the group headed by Mrs. Carl Jernberg, on March 5. The use of tin cans as compared with glass jars in home canning was discussed, with the concensus of opinion in favor of glass.

State Nutritionist Speaks To Mothers' Club

Mrs. Catherine Leamy, state nutritionist, was guest speaker March 6 at the meeting of the Pre-School Mothers' Club in the social room of the Elementary School. Her topic was "Cooking for Young Children." Mrs. Leamy gave a graphic and most interesting talk using color charts to illustrate the vitamin, vegetable, fruit, and meat needs of young children.

She emphasized the importance of never giving fried foods, even when fried in butter. Responding to informal questioning from the mothers present, she urged that children be allowed to keep the taste for natural foods by training the child to use a minimum of sugar, and as little salt as possible. She suggested that foods be served more often undisguised, rather than being smothered in cream sauce. Mrs. Leamy said that the only vegetables never to be given are radishes, cucumbers, and green peppers. The importance of serving food as attractively as possible was emphasized.

Mrs. William L. Moore, president of the Club, presided. St. Patrick's Day decorations made a festive table at which Mrs. Webster W. McAchren and Mrs. John M. Norvell served as hostesses with ice cream and mints for refreshments.

Don't forget the Hospital Auxiliary dance, April 6.

Tea Standards Announced By Secretary of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture today announced establishment of tea standards for the year beginning May 1, 1940. Secretary Henry A. Wallace, under the terms of the Federal Tea Act, which is administered by the Food and Drug Administration, approved selection of standard teas of the following ten types:

- (1) Formosa Oolong
- (2) Formosa Black
- (3) Congou
- (4) Java (to be used for all fully fermented teas excepting China, Japan, and Formosa)
- (5) Japan Black
- (6) Japan Dust
- (7) Japan Green
- (8) Gunpowder (to be used for all China green teas)
- (9) Scented Canton (to be used for all scented teas)
- (10) Canton Oolong

These standard teas were submitted to Secretary Wallace by the Board of Tea Experts, which consists of 7 members appointed by the Secretary, as expert in teas. These standard samples were selected at the meeting of the Board, held the week of February 5. They represent types suitable for comparison with all the various kinds imported. With these standard samples of tea, all teas entering the United States are compared by the Government Tea Examiners for purity, quality, and fitness for consumption under the Federal Tea Act of May 2, 1897, as amended.

These standard samples, put up in half-pound tins will be available for distribution within a few weeks. They are used by tea examiners of the Food and Drug Administration, and are furnished at cost by the Department of Agriculture to importers of tea and shippers of tea to this country, so that these firms may be in a position to determine for themselves that the product shipped or received does not fall below the standards set under the Tea Act. They are distributed by the Supervising Tea Examiner of the Food and Drug Administration, at New York.

Grizzlies Lose Season's Finale

On the night of Friday, March 8, the Greenbelt Grizzlies played their final game of the season, and were defeated by the Hyattsville Hyenas by a score of 34 - 20.

There was a large crowd that turned out on that "All Greenbelt" night and saw the Grizzlies take their fourth beating from this strong team. It was Hyattsville's game all the way, and the high hysterical enthusiasm offered by the Greenbelt rooters was to no avail, though the sight of so many high school students yelling at the top of their lungs was impressive, to say the least.

Jim Wilson, who played on the Greenbelt team last year, and who is playing with the Hyenas this year, was high point man of the evening with 14 points.

Four of the Grizzlies, Roy Bell, Julius Andrus, Bill Alexander and Albert Carson were playing their last game of basketball for the "little old school in the pines", as they will graduate in June. Egli paced the home team scoring with 11 points. F. L.

HIGH GIRLS DEFEAT LAUREL

For the second time this year the Greenbelt High School Girls defeated the Laurel High School girls in basketball. The final score was 20-14. True to tradition our Greenbelt Girls came from behind in the second half to score a single point in the second half. Mildred Zoellner, captain, Doris Asher and Nan Stevens played a great defensive game for their team. Freshman Marion Benson played an outstanding floor game for the forwards. Marjorie Welsh was high scorer with 8 points; while Helen Zoellner was close behind with 7 points.

Greenbelt Triple-Header Last Saturday

Saturday, March 9th, 1940, at the Greenbelt Gym, the Reps dropped a close one to the fast Q. and S. Laundry Basketeers, who enlisted the aid of several University of Maryland Stars. This was one of the cleanest played games staged at the Gym this season. The final score, 42-40, indicates how evenly matched these teams were. Trailing for three quarters, the Reps tried unsuccessfully to duplicate their feat of the previous evening and pull the game from the fire in the closing moments. The strenuous game of the previous evening had its effect on the Reps, for at times they appeared listless and tired. Bruce and McCaw of the winners sank 12 points and 11 points respectively and proved a thorn in the side of the Reps.

McDonald of the Reps went on another rampage and was high scorer of the evening with 18 points. Cain and Giersch followed Mickey with 6 points each. The whistle found Greenbelt peppering away at the basket in a desperate effort to tie the score. J. A.

In a preliminary game Saturday, March 9th, 1940, at the Greenbelt School Gym, the North East Blackhaws defeated the Greenbelt 90-Lb. Boys' Team by the score of 13-6. The smooth passing and fine combination play of the Blackhaws proved too much of a handicap for the Greenbelt Boys. Maxwell, of the winners, was high scorer for his team and the game.

In a game lacking thrills and excitement, the Berwyn Boys' Club defeated the Greenbelt 145-Lb. Team to the tune of 27 to 16. Wilson of the winners was high scorer with 12 points. This boy is a natural basketball player and within the next few years should create quite a name for himself in college circles.

BASKETBALL PLAY-OFF

The Basketball Championship play-off will be played Friday night, March 15th, at 9:45, when B and D Blocks take the floor, in what promises to be the best game of the season. These teams are very evenly matched and plenty of action is assured. Admission Free.

The DEJ Block Team had a triumphant night last Thursday in Women's basketball. The first game played was between AB Block and DEJ. DEJ win 12-8. The winners of the first game, DEJ Block, then challenged the C Block team. Here again they were triumphant, winning 18 to 7.

School Basketball League

The elementary school basketball continued after a three week lay-off due to banquets, which made the use of the gymnasium impossible.

In the first game Donald Wolfe's team defeated Douglas Warner's team by the score of 15-8. In this game Lewis Hedges and Teddy Fox were outstanding for the winning team and for the losing team Tommy Caton and Marshall Fywell were best.

In the second game of the afternoon Donald Freeman's team defeated Donald Fitzhugh's team by the score of 12-2. In this game Carl Pierson, and Gene Henderson were outstanding for the winners. Donald Fitzhugh was the only one able to score a basket for his own team.
