

GCS Opens Branch At Glenn Dale

Through arrangements made by Greenbelt Consumer Services with Ben D. Conley, Southern States Cooperative farm supply dealer in the Glenn Dale area, a Neighborhood Co-op Food Store opened for business in Glenn Dale today to operate as a branch of GCS.

Under the arrangement approved by the GCS board of directors, the store will sell groceries, produce and meats at competitive prices, and will stock most of the favorite co-op items. Conley will receive a fixed percentage to cover rent, labor and all operating expenses. GCS receipts will be given, and patrons will be encouraged to join GCS and become eligible for GCS patronage returns.

Over forty Southern States members in the Glenn Dale area have already expressed an interest in becoming GCS members, according to Bassett Ferguson, assistant general manager. A store committee will be formed among interested residents to aid the growth of an informed cooperative group in the Bowie-Glenn Dale area. The decision to open the branch store was influenced by the fact that many residents of that area were already in the habit of shopping at the GCS supermarket.

Kids To Hunt, Show, Roll Eggs Next Monday

More than 300 eggs will be hidden in the woods at Braden Field for the Greenbelt Easter egg hunt next Monday, April 18. Under the sponsorship of the Greenbelt Recreation Department, the day's activities will be divided into two phases—9:30 to 12 for kindergarten age through third grade; and 1 to 3:30 for fourth graders through sixth grade.

In addition to the prizes for the largest number of eggs found, there will be one in each age group for the prettiest Easter basket, and for the winners of an egg rolling contest. Entrants in the latter were urged by Recreation Director Sam Fox to bring an egg with the contestant's name on it.

All children who wish to join the day's festivities may do so by being on hand at swimming pool at the start of the proceedings.

Children's Chorus To Sing On WGAY

The first broadcast of a chorus of about 60 voices of children from the 4th through the 6th grades of the Center school will be heard on Thursday, April 28 at 9:45 a.m. over Station WGAY, Silver Spring.

Although this is the first broadcast of its kind to be given by the school children, it is expected that similar broadcasts will be given each year.

A great deal of credit is to be given to Mrs. Gerrits, who teaches at the Center school, for her work in organizing the program and for her work with the children, together with Mrs. Grim, another teacher. Mrs. Grim will escort the children to the studio and Mrs. William Moore will accompany the children on the piano.

Kids To Put On Play

The Center School PTA will sponsor a performance of THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES at the Greenbelt Movie Theater on Thursday, April 28, at 2:30 p.m. The play will be given by the 4th, 5th and 6th year dramatic group, under the direction of Ellen Linton and Frieda Feig. Members of every class in the school will help to provide scenery, posters, tickets.

H. S. Quonsets Arrive; Single Shift Next Year

Four quonset huts, which will provide 10 additional class rooms for Greenbelt High School, have arrived in Greenbelt, and footings for their foundations were dug this week, according to Town Manager Charles T. McDonald.

Approximately 7,000 square feet of floor space will be provided by the huts, which will be combined in one building. Toilet facilities, water fountains, and dressing rooms for gym students, will be included.

New teachers will be hired, Mr. McDonald said, and all classes will be conducted in a single shift.

Incentive Bill Fails

So far as new construction in Prince George's County is concerned, the Maryland State Legislature failed to pass the so-called "incentive" fund urged by every educational organization in the county. Instead Governor Wm. Preston Lane's bill providing $20,000,000 state aid to the counties was passed. Under this bill, the state would give $20 to each county for each pupil in that county, provided the county paid $3 for each state dollar.

How Prince George's County will take advantage of this fund has not as yet been made public.

GCS Members Cash Few Refunds

Fewer Greenbelt consumers took out their dividends and patronage refunds in cash this year than ever before, according to a preliminary report made at the Greenbelt Consumers Services board meeting last Friday night.

Figures quoted by Henry Walter, reporting for the executive committee of the board, show that of a total $30,042.84 available from 1948 operations for distribution as dividends and patronage refunds, only $11,289.99 was requested in cash, a percentage of 37.6% which is the lowest on record. As of April 4, total cash on hand for GCS was $50,618.38.

Plan Member Survey

In addition to the announcement of a branch store opening at Glenn Dale, and arrangements for the Economic Action Conference in Washington last weekend, both of which are reported elsewhere in this issue, the board agenda included a discussion of a projected membership survey on marketing, and the condition of the North End food store.

The last town-wide survey of GCS members and non-members was made in the summer of 1947 with the assistance of a co-op work camp, several of whose members were employed by GCS during their study period here. General manager Sam Ashelman, back in harness after his leave of absence, recalled that the previous study resulted in the stocking of children's shoes in the valet shop, besides giving suggestions for the supermarket and for increased facilities in the service station. Bassett Ferguson, assistant general manager, added that "management tool" to help the co-the projected survey would be a operative keep track of local buying habits.

North End Report

Board member Ben Rosenzweig reported on a visit he made to the North End store accompanied by George Davidsen, another board member. While the ground floor, where the store is located, was found to be in good shape, they found the storage level upstairs open to entry and evidences of pilferage, such as half-empty cartons and empty boxes, in various parts of the building. After discussion by the board, it was agreed that the

The Police Blotter

Week of April 7

A short circuit in an automobile belonging to John Motyka, 34-K Ridge, caused a fire that resulted in minor damage. The police responded to the alarm, but the fire was out when they arrived.

A window in the home of Mrs. Cedric Samuel, 4-Y Laurel Hill, was broken by a child. The parents of the youngster consented to make restitution for the damages.

The Athletic Club door was found open last week, and several small children were found playing there. The police were informed of the incident.

A town trash truck backed into a car belonging to Freeland Ramsdell, 18-M Ridge, and damaged the left rear fender. The police were notified.

The Police Department was called to dispose of a cat, a dead squirrel, to pick up a stray dog, and to caution the owners of a belligerent dog that annoyed passengers alighting from the Greenbelt bus.

There were two complaints about prowlers. In both instances the prowler was gone when the police arrived. However, the complainant of a few weeks past, in regard to a "peeping tom," informed the police that he knew the annoying party. This person, a teen age boy, admitted the misdemeanor and appropriate action was taken.

A complaint about a "drunken man in a truck" was received, but the inebriate could not be found when the police investigated.

There were two complaints about disorderly children and one complaint about "belligerent" children. The youngsters were playing ball in a court and would not leave when requested.

The Greenbelt Rescue Squad provided transportation to a hospital for a local resident where she later gave birth to a son. Congratulations!

Week of April 14

A fire in the wooded area behind the North End Food Store, and a fire in the closet of the home of Mrs. Ed Brown, 8-R Plateau, were extinguished last week by the Greenbelt Fire Department. A call to help put out a fire in an automobile parked on Hillside and Woodland Way was received, but when the fire truck arrived, the fire was out.

The Greenbelt Rescue Squad provided transportation to a hospital in Washington for the son of Mrs. Ben Posner, 5-A Crescent, who was injured in an accident near his home.

Police provided transportation for Center school children on two occasions this past week, when two youngsters became ill while attending classes.

There were six complaints this week about children playing ball. A window in the home of Mrs. Robert Davenport, 37-G Ridge, was broken by a ball. The child responsible agreed to pay for the damage.

The sheriff's office in Upper Marlboro requested an officer to serve a summons on a Greenbelt resident to appear in court in Rockville.

There was one complaint about children destroying hedges, and one about children digging holes.

A complaint about firearms being discharged was determined to be the backfire of an automobile after

Half PHA Rent Hike Ok'd For July 1; Graded Rent, Upped Utilities, Allowed

The Office of the Housing Expediter this week approved a rental increase for Greenbelt which averages almost exactly half of that requested by Public Housing Administration last August. Effective dates are June 15 for present tenants of war housing; July 1 for residents of original homes; and May 1 for newcomers.

Average increase asked by PHA for the war housing was 30.09%; granted was 15.02%. Asked for on the original project was an average increase of 16.4%; granted, 8.66%.

In addition to cutting the gross increase, the Expediter eliminated many features for which some tenants would pay more than their neighbors. For example, residents of the original homes will pay the same, according to house size and type, regardless of location. No premium is placed on having a garage attached to the house rather than another house, in either section of town.

Lease Violators Face Eviction By Court

PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack put teeth into his declared intention to enforce Greenbelt lease provisions forbidding the keeping of animals in the premises, by stating that violators would be brought to the Justice's Court in Hyattsville and their cases tried as eviction cases. The procedure would be similar to that employed if the tenant were being evicted for non-payment of rent, Mr. Cormack added.

Drastic Action

A PHA letter sent to all residents last week declared that tenants are disregarding the regulation prohibiting the keeping of "dogs, cats, rabbits, ducks, chickens or other pets" on the premises. The letter reminded tenants that in the past, the office had merely written to tenants when a violation came to its attention, requesting removal of the animal and the resident's certification of this in writing after its removal.

However, Mr. Cormack continued, this has not been sufficiently effective and more drastic action is necessary.

Time For Disposal

"I have tried to play the game fairly, giving reasons why this is necessary," Mr. Cormack concluded. He stated that following his letter, a reasonable time is being allowed for residents to dispose of their pets. If by early next week tenants persist in refusing to obey the terms of their lease, they are directly and substantially violating the lease and are subject to trial in court for eviction because of the violation. Loss of the case will result in eviction from Greenbelt.

"This is no arbitrary decision," Mr. Cormack concluded. "A great many people have called in to express their agreement with our action."

police investigated.

There were two complaints this week about disorderly boys in the drug store. After the second complaint, the boys were escorted to the police station where they were informed that a recurrence of this complaint would mean the swearing out of a warrant for their arrest.

Police were informed of a man sitting in a car at Southway and Edmonston Road who appeared to be ill. It was later determined that the man was intoxicated.

A complaint about children playing in the swimming pool and locker rooms was investigated but the children could not be found.

Walter Hogan, 15-A Laurel Hill, was taken to the Leland Memorial Hospital by the police, after he had struck himself on the head with an axe, accidentally.

A Greenbelt resident called the police to complain about a salesman who was "very annoying, by insisting on selling her a set of encyclopedia books." The police investigated the complaint.

Where there were formerly 20 categories in the original houses, and nine in the new, there are now only six in each.

Other features for which tenants will pay extra, in addition to size and unit type, are attics, end-of-row position, and duplex houses.

Graded Rents Retained

Retained in the changed schedule is the original provision for graded rents throughout the project. These were not completed in time for publication in this issue of the Cooperator, but will be published next week, along with the complete maximum rent schedule.

Also retained is the plan for transferring from one section to another.

One little-known aspect of the present situation, which will be continued under the revision, is the Lanham Act provision that, in the war housing units, only veterans can have rents adjusted downward. For example, a non-veteran in old Greenbelt may want to move to a war house after the increase. If he now pays as much rent for his old Greenbelt house as the maximum rent on the war house into which he will move, he will continue to pay that amount, even if under the graded rent system his salary would make him eligible for a lower rent.

Rental has been raised from $2 to $5 for closed, from $1 to $2 open garages.

No Increase On "Old" Apts.

No increase in rent is in store for residents of apartments and one-bedroom houses in old Greenbelt. One-room apartments, however, will pay an increased utility charge of 25c; two-room apartments, a utility decrease of 25c; and one-bedroom houses a utility increase of 75c.

This elimination of over 300 units is mainly responsible for the lower average increase in the old section. Highest maximum rent to be paid under the new schedule will be $83—$75 rent and heat, plus $8 for electricity and water. This represents an increase of $13.15, or roughly 19%. Present rent on this unit, 3 bedrooms with basement, is $65, utilities $4.85, totaling $69.85.

High School PTA To Hold Election

The annual election of officers for the High School PTA will be held Wednesday, April 20 in the high school auditorium at a regular monthly meeting.

The balance of the evening program will consist of curricula discussions in the "Know Your School" series, reports of recent county school legislation, and of temporary school housing now being constructed.

Before the meeting parents may visit with home room teachers. Following the meeting refreshments will be served during the social period.

A wire recorder purchased with PTA funds for music department use will be on display.

The Maximum Legal Rents now authorized are on the basis of comparable rents of privately-owned dwellings in this area as of the rent freeze date, January 1, 1941. They do not represent any adjustment because of increased operating expenses since that date and were not approved under the hardship provisions of the Rent Control Act.

Many tenants will not be required to pay the Maximum Legal Rent and a revised system of adjusting rents below the Maximum Legal Rents to avoid hardship, is being worked out and further announcement will be made at the earliest practicable date. The new plan will, in some cases, provide greater rent adjustments and, consequently, lower gross rents than the present schedule, particularly in the case of the larger families with the lowest incomes. Small families and families with higher incomes will receive less adjustment than under the present schedule.

The new Utility Charge Schedule has been based on check metering of the consumption of the utilities in various sizes of units during the past year and the schedule reflects, as far as possible, the differences in average consumption of these services in the dwellings of varying size. The new schedule represents a more equitable distribution of the costs of furnishing these services than the present schedule.

New minimum rents will be established in the dwellings in the Original Greenbelt Project which will be at levels slightly higher than the Maximum Legal Rents for dwellings of equivalent size in the War Project. Veteran tenants requiring and qualifying for rents lower than those available in the Original Project will be permitted to move to appropriate dwellings in the War Project and will be granted rents within their means down to a minimum rent of $20 per month in that project. Such tenants will be granted special consideration in the amount of rent to be paid until they can be offered a transfer to the War Project in order that no major hardship will be involved during this period.

Each tenant will receive from the Management Office on or before May 1 a personal letter advising him of the Maximum Legal Rent and Utility Charge of his dwelling and affording him the opportunity to apply for any rent adjustment for which he may be able to qualify.

Gun Club Second In Winter League

Greenbelt Gun Club's number one team finished the winter indoor gallery league program last Monday night with ten victories and only one lost match. The local shooters are thus second only to the Varsity team of Maryland University for all gallery rifle competition in this section of the east coast. The Varsity team, of which National Champion Arthur Cook is a member, won the Maryland Rifle League indoor championship—getting an award from the National Rifle Association for their efforts. The Greenbelters—in second place among 12 teams—won a nice set of League medals.

The outcome of the last match this past Monday was the deciding factor in determining second place among all 12 teams competing. It was an extremely close match; Greenbelt's score was 1404; the opposing team (National Capitol No. 1) also had 1404. The tie was broken in favor of Greenbelt by virtue of the fact that the latter had turned in better scores in the more difficult sanding position.

The 1404 score was the best ever fired by the Greenbelt Gun Club. The top five local shooters in this match were Dick Gates, Don Kern, Ruth Morgan, Harry Bates, and Freeman Morgan.

Tuesday Tangles Total 2

Two automobile accidents kept the Police Department busy last Tuesday evening. The first occurred on Hillside and Woodland Way, and involved cars belonging to Leroy F. Root, 2-M Eastway, and Julius Barbera, 22-G Hillside. Mr. Root stopped at the side of the road to discharge a passenger, and Mr. Barbera's car collided with Mr. Root's car. Damage to Mr. Root's car amounted to $60 and the amount of damage to Mr. Barbera's car was estimated at $200.

The second accident occurred two hours later on Edmonston Road near the entrance to the high school. A Yellow Cab, driven by Hamp Bare, 15-Q Laurel Hill, collided with a car driven by Charles William Ross, of Catonsville, Md. Mr. Ross was driving north into Greenbelt when his car ran onto the shoulder of the road. This caused the car to swing into the center of the road where the cab, headed south, struck Mr. Ross's car, according to the Police Dept. Damage to the cab was estimated at $400, and damage to Mr. Ross's car was estimated to be $250. Riding as a passenger in the cab was Walter Hogan, 15-A Laurel Hill, who figured previously in a complaint when he was taken to a hospital after an accident with an axe. Wreckers were called to tow both cars away.

There were no personal injuries sustained in either accident, nor were any charges made against the drivers by the Police Department.

To The Editor

(Letters to the editor must be limited to 150 words, unless the writer brings his letter to the Cooperator office in person. All letters must be signed and include the writer's address and telephone number before they can be accepted for publication. A pseudonym may be listed for the printed letter.)

LOUIE! DROP THA GUN

The last few issues of the Cooperator are filled with trivial and unimportant articles. Your idea of a "Police Blotter" is an excellent one but its good purpose is lost when you describe how a policeman was called to disperse some boys from the Center; a complaint in regard to a group of boys pitching pennies at the Center; or how a policeman was called because some boys were making a little noise in the theatre.

You have in your hands a great tool; a newspaper which everyone in Greenbelt reads. In the past you have used it for constructive purposes. Now you have reduced it to a purveyor of gossip. It will not be long before people will have no respect for your articles and the Cooperator's influence will be confined to the garbage can.

But there is no need for this to ever happen. Greenbelt is not a dead town, filled with a bunch of old maids and gossips; but it is a young and progressive community filled with youths who are establishing organizations, clubs and groups which will soon become the backbone of this town.

The most outstanding example of this is the Greenbelt Volunteer Rescue Squad, Inc.

This group was started by a group of veteran's in 1946. On November of that year they purchased a 1936 Buick ambulance from Brentwood Rescue Squad.

They have come a long way since then. This small group has been enriched by many others, especially boys from 16-20. They now have a squad quarters building in No. 2 court Gardenway Rd., first aid supplies, telephone, a little furniture, a small bank account, and a lot of spunk and ambition.

Last year Greenbelt's Rescue Squad went on a call once every four or five days taking Greenbelt's sick and injured to hospitals in Riverdale, Washington, Baltimore and Virginia.

But yet some people have said (and they are still saying it) that Greenbelt doesn't need a Rescue Squad. These "Old Foggies" claim that we are wasting the people's money (for we were founded and operate on donations) by maintaining a Rescue Squad. However we feel that Greenbelt needs an ambulance service which we shall continue to provide and improve.

The Rescue Squad is not the only organization which has suffered obscurity in your newspaper. The people of Greenbelt would appreciate informative articles on these interesting and vital groups.

Yours truly,
Milton Laikin.

Teen-age Dance Class Holds Graduation Party

The Arthur Murray teen-age dance class came to a close last Monday night with a bang-up party at the Drop-Inn. Ann Dwiggins, mistress of ceremonies, opened the evening's activities with a welcome to the class members and their guests and started the party off with a multiplication dance. Mid-way in the evening Miss Bradshaw and Mr. Sweet, the Arthur Murray instructors for the Greenbelt class, acted as judges for the fox-trot and jitterbug contests. Bill Colliver and Patsy Arrington were first choice for the fox-trot, while Gene Kellaher and Kitty Hunter took top honors for the jitterbugging. Each was presented with a box of chocolates for their accomplishments.

Winners Announced

Highlight of the evening was the announcement of the two Arthur Murray winners. Joanne Taylor and Donald Hahn were the instructors' selections for this award and each received a record and pin from the Arthur Murray studios. Following this, the tables were turned and the instructors were given a gift—an honorary membership certificate in the Drop-Inn.

The party was planned by a group of teen-age class members assisted by Eileen Labukas, director of the Youth Center, and Mrs. Ruth Dwiggins. Pictures of the affair were taken by Joel Brickman representing the Drop-Inn photography class.

Refreshments were donated and served by a group of parents.

Supervisor Visits Kindergartens Here

The Center and North End schools were visited last Tuesday by the assistant elementary supervisor of the Maryland State Department of Education, and teachers from the Campus School of Towson Teachers College of Towson. This group was interested in visiting kindergarten and nursery schools in the area to see what sort of equipment is available and in use.

Holly Watts Ill

Greenbelters have been missing Mr. Holly Watts—"The Colonel"—from the Town public works department. Mr. Watts has been seriously ill in Emergency Hospital for over two weeks. Assistant Public Works Foreman Watts has been with the town since the beginning of the project, according to Town Manager Charles T. McDonald.

CARE Reduces Package Prices

CARE, the Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, has reduced prices of two of its relief packages. The standard blanket package has been reduced from $10. to $7.75, and the lard package from $5.50 to $4.75. The reduced prices, which resulted from decreased costs to CARE, were announced by Murray Lincoln, president of CARE.

Seven and a half million relief packages have been sent through CARE to help feed the hungry in Europe and the Orient. Over three million of these have been CARE's $10. food package. Through CARE, selected foods are purchased, packed, shipped and delivered abroad for less than the usual retail price of the food. Falling wholesale prices and assistance from the Economic Recovery Administration have made possible recent additions to the food package since CARE is a non-profit cooperative, and any savings are used to provide additional benefits abroad.

Formerly CARE accepted only full payment for packages for designated recipients. Now it is possible to send any amount to CARE without designating a recipient, and CARE will accumulate the gifts and send packages to needy persons abroad.

The Washington office of CARE is in the Dupont Circle Building. Their telephone is COLUMBIA 9320, and they will welcome inquiries.

WCFM Asks Help To Assure Success

Although radio station WCFM, owned by Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., and 8 other Washington area cooperatives, is just 5 months old, it has made itself known to thousands of listeners because of its fine programs—good music, informed commentators, significant drama, thought-provoking forums, a large percentage of "live" programs originating from the studio. But Washington's cooperative FM radio station still needs to build up the advertising revenue necessary to keep a radio station on the air. The problem is one faced by all new independent radio stations. A little help from the 25,000 coop members who are part owners of WCFM will go a long way toward solving it.

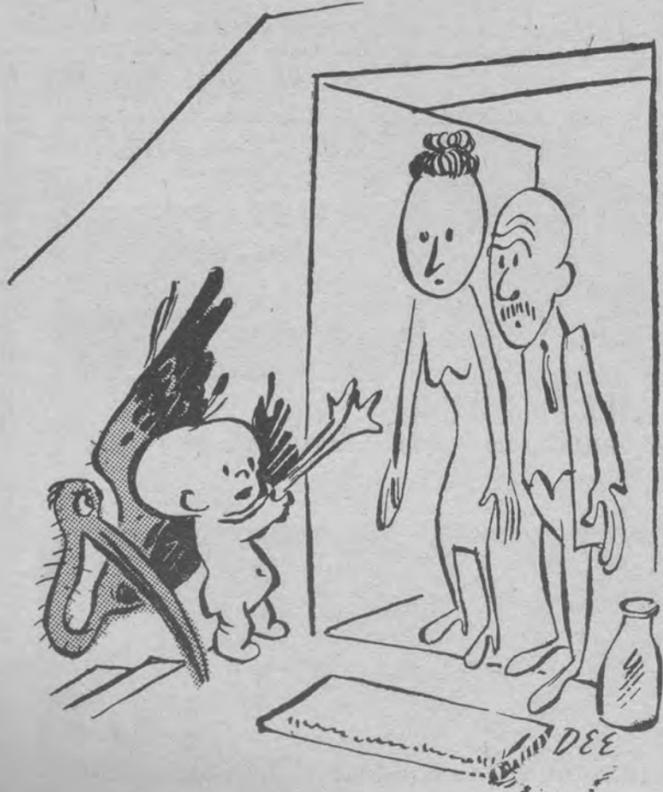

Anyone interested in helping WCFM can give the station's advertising budget a substantial boost by (1) patronizing WCFM's advertisers, (2) mentioning WCFM when making the purchases, and (3) filling out the pledge form below and mailing it to WCFM.

I will be glad to give prior consideration to WCFM advertisers when I am in the market for the goods or services they advertise.

Spring Dance Will Benefit Drop-Inn

A spring dance is being sponsored by the advisory board of the Drop-Inn, with the cooperation of the Parents Guild and the Recreation Department. Proceeds of the dance will go toward purchasing booths for the Drop-Inn. The dance, to which the public is invited, will be held in the Center school auditorium, Saturday, April 23, from 8 to 12 p.m. Music will be provided by Howard Williams and his seven-piece orchestra, with a vocalist. This popular orchestra plays daily over WINX.

The Advisory Board emphasized that teen-agers as well as adults are welcome at the dance and hope that parents and teen-agers and their friends in the community can all have a good time together. General chairman for the dance is Mrs. O. M. Slye; orchestra, Hugh Hawkins; tickets, Irvin Dietzel and John Teel; decorations, Mrs. Freeland Ramsdell; cloakroom, James Wolfe.

unique in that it is one of the few youth centers of the many started which has remained in continuous operation through volunteer help. Many very fine youth centers with excellent equipment have been closed because of lack of interest on the part of young people and their parents. The enthusiasm of teenagers in Greenbelt for their Drop-Inn is a challenge to the adults of the community.

Girl Scouts Have A Busy Week

On Sunday, April 3, eleven girls from Scout Troop No. 15 with Mrs. James Kennedy and Mrs. Edgar Weber visited International Student House for tea. The boys and girls living in International Student House are students from all over the world who are studying in Washington. The Scouts met and talked to students from ten different countries including Africa and Czechoslovakia.

This weekend eleven scouts of Troop No. 85 with their leaders, Mrs. Ellen Linson, Mrs. James Foor, Mrs. John Elder and Mrs. Kennedy, went on an overnight hike to Rockwood Manor, an estate near Glen Echo given to the National Scout Organization by an old gentleman who was greatly interested in scouting. The girls slept in tent units on the beautiful estate grounds. The weekend's program included an impressive camp fire ceremony led by Margo Kennedy.

On Wednesday, March 30, the Brownies of Troop No. 35 attended a performance of the Shrine Circus with their leaders, Mrs. Seymour Levine and Mrs. John Maffay, assisted by Mrs. George Edmonds, Mrs. Gloyd Moore and Mrs. Francis Fell. It was reported that everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

There was a big crowd at the market this morning. On top of that, two of the regular checking girls were at home, ill.

When the manager saw how many people were standing in line waiting, he asked the girls who were packing groceries to take over as cashiers at the two vacant counters. That way, a lot more people were taken care of, sooner.

It reminded me of something Cy Stubbs (one of the local telephone men) was saying the other day about the importance of sharing our telephone party lines.

He said that in spite of all the headway being made on the job of expanding the local telephone system, a lot of folks are still waiting for telephones. And party lines mean more service for more people, sooner. The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City.

Our Neighbors

By Rae Algaze, Greenbelt 7502

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwimer, 45-S Ridge, announce the birth of their daughter, Reba Erica, born April 8, at Leland Memorial Hospital. The infant, who weighed 7 lbs., 10 oz., has two sisters, Carol 7, and Susan, 3.

The following Greenbelters had tonsilectomies performed at Prince Georges Hospital recently: Mrs. Audrey Kessener, 2-G Westway, and her son Richard, Mary Miller, 28-D Crescent, Phyllis and Janice Meade, 14-A Hillside.

Paul Herman, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Herman, 1-E Southway, was rushed to Leland Memorial Hospital last Friday for an emergency operation on his appendix. Young Paul is now resting well and making a speedy recovery.

A fall from a sliding board in their home resulted in a broken left arm for Johnny Bridge, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Bridge, 17-D Ridge, last Friday. Johnny's arm is temporarily in a cast but it does not hinder him from playing as usual.

Mr. Slauch and Mrs. Ourand were hostesses at a surprise stork shower held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Kasko, 9-A Ridge in honor of Mrs. Rae Berkofsky on April 5. The fifteen neighbors of her court presented Mrs. Berkofsky with a teeter babe and a white woolen crib blanket, as well as other individual gifts.

A stork shower in honor of Mrs. Theima Newton was given by Mrs. Louise Welsh, 1-B Woodland Way on March 28. The neighbors of this court presented Mrs. Newton with many lovely gifts.

Teddy Kaufman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaufman, 48-D Ridge celebrated his twelfth birthday on March 27 with a party attended by fifteen youngsters. There was a great deal of merrymaking with gay hats and whistles which calmed down when pictures were taken of the children with a flash bulb camera that Teddy received as a gift from his parents.

Larry Slight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Slight, 2-A Laurel Hill, celebrated his fourth birthday on April 3, with a party for sixteen youngsters. A picture of the whole group was taken as a remembrance of this day.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles A. Bonnar, 35-G Ridge, had their son and daughter home recently for their spring vacations. John is attending the Rectory School at Pomfret, Conn., and Jean is at the Southern Seminary, in Buena Vista, Va.

Mrs. Carl Day, 6-T Ridge, recently returned after a seven-week stay in New Orleans, La., where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Soignier. Mrs. Day was there at the time of the colorful Mardi Gras festival, in which all the people of the city participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Day, 6-T Ridge had as their house guest, Mrs. W. G. Sheffer of Lost Gatos, Calif., who flew here to attend the convention of the Womans Equal Rights League in Washington, D. C. During her stay, Mrs. Sheffer was elected godmother of her host's son, William Kenneth, who was baptised at St. John's Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, 13-F Hillside entertained as their house guest her niece, Miss Virginia Greenwald of Glen Ellyn, Ill. Miss Greenwald flew back after visiting with her cousins Sandy and Gary one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fink, 2-B Hillside had as their guest last weekend Miss Grace Kuhls of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Fonda, 9-C Research Road are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Howard Simpson, of Chicago, Ill. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brunjes, 59-F Ridge have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seidel and Mr. Eugene Klonder, of Chicago, Ill. The latter is a former resident of Greenbelt.

The next regular business and social meeting of the Truman Riddle

Navy Wives Club will be held on Tuesday, April 19 at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Donald Noble, 14-V Laurel Hill.

Mrs. Lyman Woodman of 20-G Hillside Road who has been at the George Washington Hospital since last Friday, is expected home this weekend.

Managers Thank Us For Town Clean-up

PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack issued a statement on Tuesday thanking all residents who cooperated in the local "clean up" campaign sponsored by Town and PHA officials here recently. "We hauled away large quantities of trash," said Mr. Cormack, "and the results are quite evident."

Town Manager Charles T. McDonald also stated to the "Cooperator" that he felt that Greenbelters should be thanked for their cooperation in the campaign.

League Delegates Hold Co-op Conference

Over 300 representatives of farm, labor and cooperatives attended the Economics Action Conference called by The Cooperative League of the USA at the Washington Hotel, April 10-13. Purpose of the conference was to seek "common ground" for an economics program to meet the problems facing America today.

Message From Truman

The opening session of the conference was a dinner meeting, Sunday, April 10, at the Hall of Nations, Washington Hotel, at which Senators Joseph C. O'Mahoney and George D. Aiken and Congressman Wright Patman spoke. President Truman sent a special message to the meeting. The speakers pointed out the problem of monopoly and economic concentration threatening America and proposed methods of meeting that problem. Between fifteen and twenty congressman and senators, the Minister of Finland, representatives of many legations, and officials from U. S. government bureaus attended the dinner. Among the "grass roots" representatives from cooperative, farm and labor groups throughout the country were 20 staff and board members from Greenbelt Consumer Services.

Murray D. Lincoln, president of The Cooperative League, who presided at the dinner, paid special tribute to John Carson, Washington representative of the League, whose appointment as Federal Trade Commissioner was announced Friday.

Five Bottlenecks Listed

The major part of the conference was devoted to five specific bottlenecks in the economy where "monopoly by agreement" has hampered productivity or squeezed the pocketbooks of farm and labor people. These fields were: [1] power; [2] steel; [3] oil; [4] fertilizer; and [5] credit and monetary controls.

Greenbelters attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ashelman. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rosenzweig, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dupree, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Bassett Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerrin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Linson, Ed Burgoon, Tony Madden, Donald Grimm, and Dan Livingston.

On Monday noon the delegates heard Senator Hubert Humphrey and the Rt. Rev. Monsignor M. M. Coady at a special luncheon at the National Press Club. Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan and Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin highlighted the sessions on Tuesday. Outstanding leaders from farm, labor and cooperative groups and government experts brought specific proposals before the conference. The concluding session on Friday brought together the findings of the session.

Sample increases in other old Greenbelt units include:

Two bedrooms, type No. 13, flat roof, end house: present rent, $55, plus $4.85 utilities, total $59.85; new rent, $60, plus utilities, $6, total $66; increase, $6.15, or 10%.

Two-and-a-half bedrooms, type No. 16, flat roof, middle house: present rent, $60, utilities $4.85, total $64.85; new rent, $64, utilities $7, total $71; increase, $6.15, or 9.5%.

Three bedrooms, type No. 21, attic, middle house: present rent, $63, utilities, $4.85, total $67.85; new rent, $70, utilities $8, total $78; increase, $10.15, or 15%.

War Housing

In the war homes, present maximums are divided into only three amounts: $37.85 for one-bedroom units; $40.35 for two; and $42.85 for three-bedroom units. (All figures include heat and all utilities.) Under the revised schedule, middle units with one bedroom will pay $34 rent, $5 utilities, totaling $39, an increase of $1.15, or 3%. The same units when on the end of a row will increase to $36 plus $5, or $41, an increase of $3.15, or 8%.

Two bedroom units in the war houses, now $40.35, will increase to $39 rent, $6 utilities, totaling $45, for the unit in the middle of a row, and not in a choice or medium location. (Attics are not considered in computing rents in this section of town.) For this unit, the increase amounts to $4.65, or 11%. One dollar is added for medium location (42 Court Ridge through 48 Court Ridge); two dollars for choice location (12 Court Ridge through 38 Court Ridge, Southway, Gardenway); two dollars for end-of-the-row. Thus the two-bedroom, end-of-the-row, choice location, will pay $43 plus $6 utilities, totaling $49—an increase over present rents of $8.65, or 21%.

The three-bedroom, middle-of-the-row, least desirably located unit in the war housing will have a rent of $43 plus $7 utilities, totaling $50, instead of the $42.85 now paid. This represents an increase of $7.15, or 16½%. Increases for location and end-of-row are the same as for two-bedroom units, so that the three-bedroom, end-of-row, choice located unit will have a rent of $47 plus $7 utilities, or $54—an increase of $11.15, or 26%.

Co-Op Signs Lease On Baltimore Warehouse

The long-projected Potomac area cooperative warehouse has finally become a reality with the signing of a lease effective April 1 by Eastern Cooperatives, Inc., for a Baltimore warehouse to be the distribution point for cooperatives in Washington, Maryland, Virginia, and eastern Ohio. Some goods may also move from Baltimore into the Philadelphia area.

Savings to Greenbelt Consumer Services on merchandise formerly bought from the New York wholesale, and now to be carried in Baltimore, should run as high as 4%. This will permit passing on to consumers savings on a number of Co-op brand products.

Separate Stocks Unnecessary

Warehouse stocks in Baltimore in certain instances will make it unnecessary for GCS to maintain separate stocks, helping to reduce inventories on these items. The Baltimore warehouse will carry a limited list of about 600 fast-moving items. Other items will continue to be purchased from ECI in New York, from local wholesalers, and direct from the manufacturers as at present.

Merchandise is already flowing into the new warehouse and it is planned to start filling orders from Baltimore within another week. T. G. Gastner, veteran grocery merchandise specialist with ECI in New York, is now in Baltimore for an indefinite period to organize the new operation. He has promised to hold an open house to give co-operators in the area an opportunity to see the new warehouse as soon as it is completely stocked.

Advantages

Advantages of the Baltimore warehouse to cooperators in this area will be several:

1. Over 60% of groceries shipped in to this area may be received by See WAREHOUSE, Page 6

PHA Explains Zoning 'By - Pass'

PHA gave an official explanation for its withdrawal of the Hale Walker development plan for Greenbelt from the proposed zoning plan for Prince Georges County, now being considered by the county commissioners.

Owner Would Decide

According to James MacDonald, PHA representative, PHA has withdrawn the Hale Walker plan in favor of a wider plan by which Greenbelt is to be zoned as a "planned community area." The Hale Walker plan clearly defined areas within Greenbelt for various purposes, making mandatory the use of this land for the defined purposes without regard to what disposal would be made of the town. The alternative proposal would set Greenbelt aside as a planned community, but would permit future development of the town according to a more flexible plan, to be decided by its owner.

The explanation was presented at a meeting in the Maryland Park and Planning Commission office, last Thursday afternoon. Present were Greenbelt Town Manager Chas. T. MacDonald, Town Councilman David Granahan, Fred Tuemmler of the Park Commission, and PHA representatives R. J. Wadsworth, James MacDonald and John Lynch.

"No Abuses"

Mr. McDonald commented that he felt that the new PHA plan was "economically sounder."

Cancer Drive Opens

Mrs. Willard Ehrhardt, local chairman for the Cancer Drive, announces that the drive is well under way. Pledge cards have been distributed to members of the Woman's Club and other interested persons who will contact residents for contributions.

The quota for Maryland is $230,000, and for Prince George's county $2,500. These funds help carry on a program of education, service and research.

Free Aid Centers

The Maryland Division of the American Cancer Society announces that there are free cancer detection centers available to well people desiring physical examinations, at Johns Hopkins Hospital and at the University of Maryland Hospital. Appointments for examinations may be made by writing to the American Cancer Society at 306 N. Charles Street, Baltimore 1, Maryland or calling them at Lexington 4002.

Films and speakers on cancer and its cure are available to any organization through the Maryland division of the American Cancer Society. Organizations are urged to plan on including such material in one of their programs.

Cormack Orders Check On Local Well Hazard

PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack stated on Tuesday that PHA crews were making a check to determine whether there were within Greenbelt any uncapped well pipes, similar to that which precipitated the recent tragedy in San Marino, California. Mr. Cormack said that while he did not know of any, he felt that a check of the areas around old farmhouses might be a good idea.

He commented that when the defense homes had been converted from coal to an oil heating system, he had manhole covers on the coal bins welded down to make them harmless to children.

EAC Delegates Inspect Greenbelt Stores

Forty delegates from cooperatives in Wisconsin and Minnesota, who were in Washington attending the Economic Action Conference called by the Cooperative League of the USA, visited Greenbelt on Saturday, April 9, to inspect the cooperatives here.

After touring the center, the group gathered in the theatre, where they bombarded Sam Ashelman, general manager of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., with questions.

Delegates from other parts of the country attending the conference have been Greenbelt visitors during the week.
