

Protests Legalizing Slot Machines In County

At the Council meeting last Monday night Rev. Eric T. Braund, pastor of the community Church, voiced opposition to legalizing slot machines in Prince Georges County. He called attention to the county-wide referendum to be held on June 2 to decide the question. The bill legalizing slot machines that pay off in cash or prizes has been passed by the Maryland State legislature and signed by the Governor, but must still be approved by the people before adoption.

The council members agreed with Rev. Braund that slot machines are undesirable for Greenbelt. Mayor Thomas J. Canning said that if the County should decide that slot machines are legal, Greenbelt could then consider banning their use in the town itself.

Polls will be open in Greenbelt from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on June 2 for voters to express themselves on this question. Only people that have been Maryland voters for two years can vote in this referendum.

Band Wins Prize In A.A.A. Parade

The Greenbelt Community Band captured third prize in the non-school (Class III) group at the thirteenth annual school safety patrol parade on Saturday, May 14, at Washington.

This was the largest parade of its kind ever held. Patrol units and bands came from as far West as Kansas, Georgia, Michigan, Ohio, Rhode Island, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia were also represented, in addition to the local units.

This is the first year prizes were awarded to the non-school group. The first prize was won by a college group from Roanoke, Virginia and second prize by the Police Boys band of Washington, D. C.

PTA Will Show Film; Trio To Entertain

The final meeting of the Center school PTA will be held in the social room of the school on Tuesday evening, May 24, at 8:15 p.m. Three selections will be played by a string trio at the start of the meeting. Ann Braund, cello, Ben Posner, violin, and Marion Moore at the piano will play "Song Without Words," Tchaikowsky; "Two Guitars," a Gypsy folk song, and "Londonderry Air."

A film strip, "Education for All America's Children" will be shown with commentary by Charles Mandell.

Chorus To Present 'The Bohemian Girl'

The Greenbelt Community Chorus will give a choral presentation of the opera "The Bohemian Girl" in the Center school auditorium, on Monday, May 23, at 8:30 p.m. Dr. Harlan Randall, who heads the music department at the University of Maryland, will direct. Tickets are available from any member of the chorus and at the door.

Soloists are Fay Friedman, Arline; John Way, Thaddeus (a Polish exile); Harry Biehl, Count Arnheim; Mrs. J. A. Chaney, Queen of the Gypsies; Fred Pfeiffer, Devilshoof (Chief of the Gypsies). Narrator will be Rev. Eric T. Braund. Accompanist for the entire presentation will be the pianist, Thelma Petersen Finlay.

The performance will mark the end of two successful years and will be the fourth concert. The Chorus, composed of residents of Greenbelt and surrounding area, has been continuously under the direction of Dr. Randall with Mrs. Finlay as pianist. Members pay a weekly fee which covers current expenses, and the money realized from the concerts has been used for the purchase of new music for succeeding concerts. The Chorus has also sung at community affairs and will again participate in Memorial Day services in Greenbelt.

Rent Protest Committee Will Cover Town

A flying squadron will go through Greenbelt this week to collect funds for further action by the Greenbelt Rent Protest Committee against the new rent schedules. For new residents, and transfers within the town, the raised rents are already in effect. June 15 and July 1 are the effective dates, respectively, for tenants of war housing and original housing.

Distribute Questionnaires
The collection committee members, organized under Henry C. Pearlman in the "block" system, in addition to asking for funds will distribute questionnaires to the residents be mailed back to the committee with information that might be used in seeking a decrease in rents.

Mayor Thomas J. Canning, chairman of the Protest Committee, told the Cooperator Tuesday that the committee's petition for a reconsideration of the Housing Expediter's decision in favoring the increase, had been acknowledged, but no action taken.

New Officers Elected By Women Voters

The Prince George's County League of Women Voters went on record as in favor of the issuance of bonds to expand the Prince Georges General Hospital with state aid, and against the proposal to legalize slot machines which they felt was not a sound method of financial revenue for the county.

This action was taken at their annual meeting last Saturday at the University of Maryland at which they elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Irma Bogdanoff was reelected president; Mrs. Eric Durand, first vice president; Mrs. Lyman Woodman of Greenbelt, second vice president in charge of public relations; Mrs. William Wood, secretary; Mrs. D. R. Partello, treasurer; and the Mesdames S. R. Epstein, Brandon and Crichton, directors.

Council Discusses Monthly Reports; Question Cooperator Police News

Monthly reports from all the town departments were discussed and accepted at the Town Council meeting last Monday night. In addition two ordinances were passed, one regulating the use of bicycles, and one appropriating money for the purchase of town equipment.

One Registration
An ordinance amending the method of bicycle registration was given final reading at this meeting and passed. Previously bicycles were required to be inspected and licensed annually for a fee of 15c. Under the new law passed Monday night, bicycles will need to be registered only once and a fee of 25c be paid. In the case of transfer or sale of the bicycle the new owner would have to re-register the bicycle with the police department.

The council appropriated $200 from the surplus account for the purchase of fans and ventilators for the office, and $500 from the same fund for the purchase of bulbs and globes for the street lights. Because of the immediate need for these funds the council suspended the rules requiring two readings of an ordinance and passed it Monday night. Mr. McDonald stated in this connection that the town desires to start washing and cleaning the glass globes of the street lights, and since many of the present globes are defective it is necessary to have new ones on hand before starting. Mr. McDonald said that the town is now servicing the sidewalk lights which were formerly taken care of by the Federal Government.

More Ball Fields
In discussing the recreation department report the council asked the town manager to request permission from PHA to develop additional ball fields within Greenbelt. Three sites were suggested by the Council: behind the apartment houses on the northeast corner of Laurel Hill Road and Ridge Road; behind the 7 Court of Southway; and near the 24 Court of Ridge Rd. The town plans to grade and level these areas and put in a softball field, and volley ball and basketball courts.

The report from the Drop-Inn showed that major repairs are needed on the roof, and the walls need strengthening. Town Manager McDonald said that funds are not available at this time for these necessary repairs because, in the lease with PHA for the land, the town is limited to spending $1000. annually on the maintenance and upkeep of the Drop-Inn building. He said experience of the past year has shown that this amount is inadequate. The council passed a motion that the town manager negotiate with PHA to amend this lease to increase the amount of money the town can spend for this purpose.

Kids Need Dental Care
The Health Department reported to the council that Dr. McCarl has examined the teeth of all the elementary school children in the last two months. Approximately half of them were found to have defects which required dental care, and notes were sent home to parents. This report said that one case in Greenbelt suspected as diphtheria last month was finally diagnosed as follicular tonsillitis. However, Councilman Lastner pointed out that the Health Department conducts an immunization clinic every Tuesday at 54-A Crescent, and that this is an opportunity for children and adults to obtain diphtheria booster shots as well as vaccinations and whooping cough shots. The Town Manager commented that the Health Department is considering purchasing an audiometer for use in giving hearing tests to the school children.

In connection with the report of the Department of Public Safety, Councilman Granahan questioned the advisability of the publication in the Cooperator of the Police Blotter, saying he had reason to believe people were hesitating to call the police because of their fear of embarrassing publicity. Mr. McDonald stated that the policy of the police department is to give names only in cases where some official action such as an arrest, is made. After some discussion the Council asked that the Town Manager study the problem of police news in this city, and in other cities of comparable size and report back to the council on his findings.

The Council voted at this meeting to hold only one meeting a month during June, July and August. They plan to meet on the second Monday of these months.

Ballots Are Due

Greenbelters are reminded to send, deliver or mail their referendum ballots to the Town Office next to the bank, so that they may arrive not later than next Monday afternoon at 5 p.m. PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack emphasized the importance of a sizeable vote cast in order that there be a good and fair representation of town opinion.

St. Hugh's Breaks Ground for New Building

Father Victor J. Dowgiallo, pastor of St. Hugh's Parish, broke ground Sunday for the school and hall to be erected at the Crescent Road site. About 100 Greenbelters were present at the ceremony, including Town Manager Charles T. McDonald and Mayor Thomas Canning, and followed the pastor in removing the traditional shovelful of dirt from the site.

Let's Kick It Out

On June 2 a referendum will be taken on whether or not slot machines will be put in places of business throughout Prince Georges County. The thin excuse of "increased revenue" that would be derived from these one-armed bandits is ridiculous, especially when we consider the amount of money that would be pouring out of the county if such a plan goes through.

Just how can they hope to keep juveniles from playing the machines? Place a cop in every store, bar and gas station in the county? Walk in almost any bar in the county now and count the suspiciously young-looking youngsters being served as fast as they can empty a glass.

Take a look around and see how many places you can find in Prince Georges County now that pay-off on slot machines. We don't need any more.

The proponents of the plan have organized their fight well and have a large backing in the county, but Greenbelt has enough votes to kick the plan out of the door, if everyone of us makes it his business to do so.

Scare Sheet

We would hate to believe that people are afraid to call the police because of the Cooperator. We don't think that the people of Greenbelt are that stupid. Perhaps someone can suggest another way to recognize the fact that all of us are not perfect angels all of the time, or that in a town of 9,000 there are bound to be cases of delinquency of one sort or another.

Some may prefer to ignore delinquency; we prefer to recognize it. We would much rather get facts from official, public records than vague stories from mouth-to-ear sources.

APPALLED

To the Editor:

For some time, I've wondered who was responsible for the lay-out of news items in your newspaper, and tonight I am really appalled at his or her lack of judgment and "news sense."

Since the very beginning of Greenbelt, there has been a noticeable lack of buildings dedicated to religious worship, and education, and now the article telling of the breaking of ground for one of the first of these, a dream come true for many in the community, is relegated to the bottom of Page Three, while such epoch-making headlines as "Students To See Dairy," and "Shamrocks Win 7-6 in Season Opener" hold forth on Page One.

I've no doubt that these are very worthy items, but please let us get our values straight, and put first things first. Sports, and entertainment will always be a very real part of our lives, but don't let God and Religion come out a poor second best.

Very truly yours,
Dorothy M. Holland
(Mrs. Thomas A. Holland, Jr.)

ANIMAL CRACKER

To the Editor:

Concerning this pet question: all I have to say is that I have yet to see the cat or small dog that can compare with some of the dirty, ill-mannered, unwanted children that roam around this town. I've seen better and cleaner stables and more intelligent, cleaner horses than house ad mother some of these unfortunate children.

As for the "sandpiles being defiled by animals," to quote your biased editorial, "What Price Pets," what nonsense! Have you ever been present when one of the future juvenile delinquents have removed their panties and gone to the bathroom in said sandpiles? Or decided to water the flowers on the side of the neighbor's house?

Such things are permitted, no doubt, because the poor darlings can't find the way to the bathrooms in their own homes anyway, what with the filth all over the house and mama sitting on her fanny, (where she's been most of the day) reading the latest issue of "True Romances" or "Wowsy Detective." All the while completely oblivious to the fact that a little applied elbow grease on the house, Junior or Susie and herself, would perform wonders in getting her out of the rut she's in. No need to state that pets could probably teach these children something they aren't getting at home. Ever watch a cat wash himself?

No don't worry about the animal problem, dear Editor. The majority of houses in this town are fastly being over-run by animals anyway — PIGS!!

Yours truly,
Disgusted resident.

Zinder Tells JCC Of "New Democracy"

Harry Zinder, Israeli press attaché in Washington, told members of the Greenbelt Jewish Community Center Monday night that Israel will become the "Switzerland of the Middle East" if present plans materialize.

Telling of the "newest democracy's first year of history, Zinder said that the 210,000 displaced persons received in Israeli were equivalent, in effect upon the nation's economy, to 40,000,000 immigrants to the United States in the same length of time.

Future plans are divided into three concurrent phases; admission of at least 250,000 displaced Jews annually; a practical balance between agriculture and industrialization; and peace.

Belts Tightened

To prepare for the first phase, Israel has initiated an "austerity" program, which Zinder compared to that in effect in England during the war.

Establishing a sound economy, he said, will depend upon the spirit of the people, "the country's main resource." He pointed to the lack of coal, iron, gold, and oil, and said that, in addition to these, food must be imported. Farm, consumer, and producer cooperatives, he said, have played a major part in building the country's economy. He added that there is a high income-tax structure.

Peace Possible

The two main obstacles to peace — Palestine's holy places and Arab refugees — he said could be easily settled. Ninety-five percent of the holy places, he said, are held by Arabs. Peaceful settlement of this issue was seen as possible, if outside interference is stopped.

Arab refugees were called "a political weapon against the Jews." The Arabs, he said, were asked by the Jews not to leave Israel. Those that remained have been treated with exact equality with the Jews, he added. He disclaimed moral responsibility on the part of the Jews for the refugee problem, pointing out that the Jews did not initiate the war.

However, he said, Israeli Jews can appreciate, from experience, the problems of displaced persons, and are willing to repatriate some of the refugee Arabs, provided adjacent Arab nations cooperate.

Seen A Blue Female?

"So we were left with an odd lovebird and it was no time for flippancy.

"Because a lovebird without its own lovebird will pine away and die of the discrepancy . . ."

So Ogden Nash said it, in his lovebird lament, "Two and One Are A Problem."

And so says the Brosmer family, of 33-B Ridge. They had a pair of lovebirds, who alternated lovers' billing and cooing with lovers' quarrels. Until last week, when the swain lost his bright blue companion, while their cage was being cleaned.

Anyone finding a bright blue female lovebird, pining away, can prevent her mate from dying of the discrepancy by returning her to the Brosmers.

Along Our Street

with Aunt Penny

My telephone table in the hall is a regular "catch-all" for books, magazines, old letters and recipes. This morning, I noticed that the telephone receiver was propped up on some of these books and what-have-you. I'd just put it back on the hook when someone rang the doorbell.

It was a young man from the telephone company. He said one of the other parties on my party line had reported his telephone out-of-order. He explained that when one receiver was off the hook, it took the whole line out of service. When he asked me if I would check my telephone, I turned a deep shade of crimson and told him what I'd discovered.

I made a note then and there to put a sign up over the telephone. In big, bold letters, I wrote, "Always replace the receiver carefully after each call."
