

DOLLARS & SENSE

By Morris J. Solomon

What Are You Eating?

This column believes that the consumer is entitled to know what is put in the food he is buying. Will the maker of your favorite bread tell you what he puts into the mix? How much milk goes into the bread? Is a shortening extender used? (We cannot be sure of the safety of shortening extenders). Is a bread softener used? (The tentative bread standard proposed by the Food and Drug Administration would not permit its use.) Is the "enrichment" synthetic or natural? What is the nutritional value of the product? These and other questions are important to those who buy the bread.

Questionnaire Being Prepared

This column is preparing a questionnaire to be sent out to all baking companies selling bread in Greenbelt. It will be sent by registered mail. The information requested will be sufficient to judge each bread product as to safety and nutritional value. To avoid asking for "trade secrets", the exact baking formula will not be requested.

Text of Letter

A sample of the letter going with each questionnaire is as follows: Gentlemen,

The column "Dollars and Sense" of this newspaper is planning a series of articles on the various breads sold in this community for the information of its readers. We would like to get enough information about the ingredients used in your bread to have a basis of evaluation of their merit.

The enclosed questionnaire is being sent to all baking companies selling bread products in this community. It is expected that all results will be tabulated and published. Specific questions that are unanswered will be tabulated as "no answer".

We would appreciate receiving the completed questionnaire within three weeks.

Very truly yours,
Morris J. Solomon

Library Contest Ends November 8

We apologize for the error in last week's story about the Library Contest. Families of Cooperator staff members are eligible to enter the contest, as the Cooperator has no connection with either the judges or the prizegiving.

This is the last week and the last warning. The contest closes November 8. Entries (if you have forgotten) must be legible, 300 words or under, and bring fresh light to the subject, What the Public Library Means to Me. Mail your essays to the Contest Editor, Greenbelt Cooperator, and they will be turned over to the judges, Miss Thelma Smith, Mrs. Marjorie Muir, and Mayor Frank Lastner.

NCJW Holds First Study On Greenbelt

The first of a series of study groups on Greenbelt, sponsored by the Greenbelt section, National Council of Jewish Women, will be held at the home of Mrs. William Nicholas, 18-F Crescent Road, on Tuesday, November 6 at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Nicholas, chairman of social legislation for the Section, will lead the discussion. Mrs. Elliot Bukzin will discuss the historical background of Greenbelt; Mrs. Sidney Rubin, the Greenbelt city charter and government; and Mrs. Estelle Dolgoff, the relation between PHA and the city of Greenbelt.

Community Chest Drive Ends Nov. 8

Greenbelt's Red Feather drive, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Chasanow, is still heading for 100 percent coverage of the city. November 8 is the deadline for collection. Anyone who has not been contacted by that time is asked to call Mrs. Chasanow at 8611.

In a recent interview with E. di Bella, executive director of the Prince Georges County Community Chest, it was revealed that approximately $83,000 from the Chest went to Greenbelt during the past year.

It was estimated that the 602 Greenbelt children who belong to the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Boys Club cost the Chest about $11 apiece last year for administrative supervisory and equipment expenses. There were 16 family welfare cases in the city requiring close to $60 each, as well as 10 or 12 hospitalization cases needing $70 each.

This breakdown, Mrs. Chasanow pointed out, reveals the extent to which Greenbelt has been indebted to the Community Chest, and underlines the importance of the present drive for total participation.

Local Girl Scouts Have Two Men Members

Having believed with all our hearts that the Girl Scouts were as sacrosanctly female as the suffragettes, we underwent a serious shock the other day when we discovered that in the roll call of the Greenbelt Girl Scouts the names of two MEN loom prominently.

But at least one of the gentlemen—Norman Granims, 2-S Plateau—seems to have taken the whole thing in his stride. With three out of his four daughters busy in Scouts, Granims tells us, he felt it only fair that he do his share for Mrs. John Elder's troop last year. After a year of transporting thither and yon, escorting and otherwise being useful to the small fair sex, Granims was awarded the Girl Scout pin at the annual award-giving ceremonies in which Brownies, Fly-ups and other brand-new Scouts shared the honors with him.

Our other local tradition-maker (or is it breaker) Gordon A. Finlay of 7 Forestway, was not at home to tell us his saga but Mrs. Finlay obligingly explained that her husband had received HIS honor pin 3 years ago and has since aroused a good deal of comment, not to mention banter, among the men's club members whom he meets on his semi-annual business trips.

The Finlay family has two out of three potential Girl Scouts; the Granims, three out of four. Q.E.D.: The father of many daughters may aspire to be a Girl Scout—and more power to him!

ON STATION WCFM CO-OPS AT WORK

On November 5, Cooperative Radio Station WCFM features another program in the Co-ops at Work series. The title is "The Joneses Join Their Neighbors". It is a drama produced by the Public Affairs Institute in cooperation with the Cooperative League of the USA telling about a family's introduction to cooperatives.

County Insurance Bill Raised Another $600

The Prince Georges county commissioners seem to have considerable difficulty dropping the hot potato they picked up when they accepted a $7,000 bid for insurance of county vehicles in preference to a $5,000 bid for the same coverage. It now appears that the company which the commissioners thought was asking $7,000 has submitted a bill for $7,600.53.

When the new premium was brought to the attention of the commissioners at their meeting on October 26, they referred the matter to their insurance committee. It was pointed out in the Washington Post of October 26 that A. R. Keir, the Hyattsville insurance man whose bid was accepted, is a member of this committee.

The commissioners are now in a position where they are paying over 50% more than the $5,000 bid offered by the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies. An ironic aspect of the new development is that a principal argument advanced in favor of paying the higher premium was the claim that a mutual company might change its rates, whereas, as commissioner Edward J. Waters put it, "With stock company insurance, we know where we stand for the duration of the policy." Actually Farm Bureau made a fixed written offer of $5,000 for the year, while it now appears that the stock company has upped its figure about 10%.

At the same meeting, on October 27, the commissioners turned down a request from the City of Takoma Park for 50-50 participation by the county and the city in meeting the cost of having school crossing guards stationed at two school crossings. The Montgomery County commissioners recently approved such an arrangement, at a cost of about $1,500 each to county and city governments; but, to quote the Post, "the Prince Georges commissioners said there is no provision for such a move in their budget."

It is interesting to note that the saving available to the commissioners if they would accept Farm Bureau's policy would be more than enough to provide protection for the lives of the school children.

The commissioners are now considering accepting a bid of $350,000 for construction of a new road from Branchville to Beltsville. provided the county attorney rules that it is legal to award the contract without competitive bidding. The commissioners might also consider whether it is in the public interest to award construction or insurance contracts without competitive bidding.

Since the above story was written, the county commissioners have met again, and voted 4 to 1 to pay the $7,600 insurance bill. Commissioners voting in favor were Daniel A. Abbott, W. Everett Marton, H. Wilson Spicknall and Edward J. Waters. The lone dissenting vote was cast by board president Thomas E. Latimer.

Although three commissioners had stated that Keir was a member of the insurance committee, Keir denied that this was the case. Commissioner Abbott, who was reported to believe that Keir was a member of the committee, stated that he plans to present a motion to abolish the committee.

Keir stated that the $600 boost in the premium for the policy resulted from the fact that additional vehicles were covered. It is understood, however, that the policy still covers only the 74 vehicles upon which the Farm Bureau bid of $5,000 was based.

In another action at the meeting on Tuesday, the commissioners voted unanimously to award the $350,000 construction contract to

GCS Membership Meeting and New Store Opening Scheduled Nov. 7

Drugstore delivery of prescriptions has been inaugurated in Greenbelt, the board of directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services learned last Friday night at the regular board meeting. (See drugstore ad in this issue on page 3.)

78 Cub Leaders Begin Training

Seventy-eight Den Mothers, Den Dads, Cubmasters and other Cubbers crowded into the arts and crafts room at the Center school on Monday night, October 29 for the first session of the Cub Leaders Training Course.

After the registration was completed, W. Haward Hunt, neighborhood scout commissioner of Greenbelt, opened the course by introducing City Manager Charles T. McDonald who officially welcomed the visiting Cubbers to Greenbelt. The new field executive of Prince Georges County District, Tom Offelman, was then introduced. The Course Cubmaster, Myron T. Brock with his Course Den Chiefs, Ed Bowen, Sam Krakow and Anthony Holmead, took charge of the rest of the session. A film strip was shown on "Fundamentals of Scouting & What Cub Scouting Is". The group was then divided into four "Dens" and recessed to various classrooms for discussion periods under the supervision of the Course Den Chiefs—with the field executive serving as Den Chief for one group for which a leader had not yet been obtained.

Anyone interested in taking this course can still get full credit and a certificate by attending the next five sessions to be held on the following five Monday nights from 8 to 10 p.m.

Duplicate Bridge

The Cooperator's Duplicate Bridge Contest, scheduled for Friday, November 16 at the Center school under the direction of Mrs. Eva Daly, is now open to single entries.

The registration fee will be 25c and applications will be accepted up to and including November 8. Lone players will be teamed with each other as vacancies occur.

Community Church Has Parents Forum

Greenbelters are invited by the Community Church to hear an authority on Christian education for children. This Friday afternoon at 3 p.m., and again at 8 in the evening, Mrs. Mildred Widber of Boston will speak and lead a discussion on this subject. No question will be too great or too small to be asked in this "forum for parents."

Mrs. Widber is speaking at various Washington Churches throughout this week. For the convenience of Greenbelt families, she has consented to be at Community Church both afternoon and evening. Chairman of the discussion in the afternoon session will be Reverend Eric T. Braund, and at night Harold Hufendick.

Mrs. Widber is an author and current writer for various publications in church school curriculum, including the "Pilgrim Series". She is a staff member of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America. She is particularly interested in giving guidance to the parents of young children. All are invited.

the General Excavating Company of Beltsville.

Because the new drug-variety store opening scheduled for next Wednesday, November 7, coincided with the 3rd quarterly membership meeting, Samuel Ashelman, general manager, asked that the meeting take place at the Takoma Park store location. According to Martin Bickford, the planning of the membership meeting was directed to new members and new residents of Greenbelt and he felt that residents of Greenbelt would not want to go to Takoma Park for a meeting. Ellie Ritchie pointed out that Roy McCorkle, scheduled to speak to new residents this week was accomplishing the same ends which the membership meeting had been planned to serve. She said "that lack of coordination" between management and the planning committee was evident. The board voted to hold the membership meeting in Greenbelt November 7, as previously planned.

Clinton Thomas, chief, and Earl Hampden of the Greenbelt Rescue Squad presented a check of $2,000 at the board meeting requesting that it be invested in GCS stock. They said this was one way of showing appreciation of the many contributions GCS has made in the past to the Rescue Squad.

Ben Rosenzweig was elected to be sent as a delegate to the planning meeting of the Wellesley Institute to be held in New York.

Domchick Awarded Damages In Suit

George Domchick was awarded $3400 damages in a lawsuit involving Greenbelt Consumer Services, general manager, Sam Ashelman and three other employees. The suit charged slander and libel.

Judge Dudley Digges directed a verdict in favor of Ashelman and GCS, stating their "communications were privileged". The jury awarded Domchick damages of $3000 against Elmer Faulconer, and $200 each against Virgil McIntyre and George Daffan. Prosecution of another employee was discontinued because of his return to the armed forces.

The trial was held last Thursday at Circuit Court in Upper Marlboro. Domchick was represented by local attorney Abe Chasanow.

Bell Arrowheads Given To Jr. High

A collection of arrowheads, considered to be one of the best in the country, was presented to the Greenbelt junior high school by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bell, Sr. in memoriam of their son, L. H. Bell, Jr. The collection was accumulated by Bell, Jr. as a hobby, and were gathered from sites near the Greenbelt Area.

L. H. Bell, Jr. was killed in the invasion of Leyte, in the Philippines during World War II. Bell was graduated from Greenbelt High School in 1940, and was a star athlete. He was 25 years old.

According to Allan Chotiner, principal of the school, the collection will be put on public display and used in the classrooms. A picture of Bell was presented along with the collection.

Good Sense

Readers of the Cooperator may not be aware of the exclusiveness of the information being offered in the column "Dollars and Sense" by Morris Solomon. It is seldom indeed that newspapers our size can out-perform large metropolitan dailies. Fortunately, in a cooperative venture like ours, we can attract staff members with a keen sense of community spirit. Unfortunately, large newspapers must submit to pressures uncommon to this paper, and their employees' good intentions are often compromised.

Solomon, devoted to consumer protection, has unearthed valuable information regarding our economical and physical well-being. It is information available to anyone; but it has received little publicity. It took a competent, hard-working amateur reporter to evaluate a series of congressional hearings on the use of chemicals in food production and present the important facts to our readers.

Some of the facts are alarming. For the first time, many of our readers are using extreme caution and careful selection in providing food for their families. We believe this is wise. But it is not to frighten our readers that we print Solomon's column. The presentation of factual truth to an interested and concerned consumer, we feel, must result in greater protection. The stakes are too high for frivolous consideration of the consumers' health. "Dollars and Sense" makes good sense!

Letters To The Editor

CONFLICT

In an effort to improve attendance the GCS board decided on October 12 to hold the Fall membership meeting on the regular date, Wednesday November 7. Members were called on to help plan an interesting and valuable program. Takoma Park members were to be especially urged to attend.

At the board meeting Friday, October 26, management announced that, after the usual number of delays, the opening of the Takoma Park Super Drug Store will be Wednesday, November 7, the same night as the membership meeting. No action was taken by board or management to resolve this conflict.

It has been many "quarters" since GCS has held a membership meeting at the regular time. Postponement, for adequate reason and within legal limits, is quite proper, but it is recognized as one of the factors causing poor attendance. Now that a meeting is finally scheduled for the regular meeting date, a competing event is announced by our own general manager.

Is this a deliberate attempt to discourage board and membership effort and participation? To keep Takoma Park members away from the meeting? To keep Greenbelt members away from the "Grand" opening?

Are prizes of equal value being given away in Greenbelt - at a membership activity that should be as important as a store opening?

Will the general manager be in Greenbelt to explain lower margins, less savings? Or will he be at Takoma Park to oversee the opening of a large and crucial part of his expansion program?

Perhaps he wants to assure the continuance of the present auditing committee by preventing a quorum. The committee thanks him but believes that some decisions should be made by the board and the membership.

FROM KOREA

I have to date received two issues of the Cooperator, and I certainly want to thank you for sending them to me. There isn't anything more gratifying to a fellow away from home than to receive a copy of his home-town paper. Keeps me up on all the local happenings and makes me feel not quite so much of an exile. Also want to thank all of the people who have written to me, especially my former students from Greenbelt High School, for it is always wonderful to hear from them. One of the intangible rewards of teaching is the many wonderful little friends you make every year. While I am 8,800 miles away from you all, my thoughts are continually back there with you. I have learned recently that I will be back there next summer—probably next July or August.

Old man winter is moving into Korea for an extended visit, for it has turned quiet cold. However, American forces are much better prepared to face a winter now than they were last year. I do not know what the people of Korea do when it gets cold for they have hardly any clothing, and most of their homes have been destroyed. It just shows what people can stand when they have to. I only pray that our wonderful country never has to go through anything as devastating as this country has had to endure. They are slowly getting their capital city of Seoul to look a little civilized for they have filled in all the bomb holes in the streets, and even have some of their street cars going again—don't any of you growl about the Capital Transit any more! These street cars have no windows and no seats. The people just pack themselves in the cars and hold on to each other. However, they will never be arrested for speeding, for you can walk faster than the cars run.

Thanks again for the Cooperator—puts my morale way up. Best of luck to you and best wishes to all my friends and neighbors in Greenbelt. Write me when ever any of you get the chance.

Trattler Chatter

Oh! my aching back . . . How about you? Did you work hard scraping the soap off your windows? Aren't some kids "little brats"? Now, when I was a little girl, a few years back—but come to think of it, we must have done things like that too. Oh, well, it's all in a day's fun . . . and no serious damage done. (Folks, just a line to say that in case your item does not appear the week you called me, please remember that sometimes we can't print everything due to lack of space, but it will be in the following week for sure. Thanks.)

Come to think of it I have a very good suggestion: Want to spend an enjoyable evening with your hubby, away from Greenbelt, and do something different? Well, then, how about seeing an Elizabethan comedy titled "The Knight of the Burning Pestle" by Beaumont and Fletcher? John Walter Corwin, formerly of Greenbelt, now living in D. C. is appearing in this play. It's being put on by the Mt. Vernon Players, at 900 Massachusetts Avenue N.W. and will run from November 1 to November 17. For more information please contact Mrs. Corwin at DE. 3860.

"Money Is The Root Of All Evil". I'm singing this to you, Mrs. Wm. F. Donahue 7-B Crescent. A little birdie told me you hit the Bingo jackpot Friday night for $150 at St. Hugh's Church. It couldn't have happened to a nicer gal, but how about sending some down this-a-way? Let's see, I need a new dress a new coat, some shoes, and lots more, but I guess I'll have to get it the hard way. Why wasn't I born lucky instead of . . . ?

"Ship Ahoy!" Bet that's what the first words little David Fred Spector, who was born on Oct. 27, at Naval Bethesda Hospital, will mutter. His daddy and mother live at 18-P Ridge. Oh! pardon me, I almost forgot to mention sister Ellen is so happy that it's a boy baby.

Councilman and Mrs. James N. Wolfe are new grandparents. Daughter Dolores Clift, 7-D Laurel Hill, presented them with a little baby girl, Candyce Esther, on Oct. 17. O. K., Daddy Clift you have my permission to walk around with that happy grin on your handsome face. The whole Clift family are staying with grandparents at 4-D Ridge.

"What Is This Thing Called Love?" Don't you really know? Well, then, march right down to the Post Office and ask George Eshbaugh - or better still call up Mrs. Eshbaugh and ask her why she's going around beaming. Oh, why bother, I'll tell you myself. First of all, the Eshbaughs celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary on October 11, and were given a lovely party at the home of Mrs. A. J. Frank of Takoma Park (lots of Greenbelt friends were there too). Secondly, they also just became grandparents. Mother Sara Jane (she's the former Linhardt gal) had her baby girl on October 15. Sailor Mahlon and Sara Jane live in Annapolis. (Next time I have a party I know whom to ask to lend me their "silver-ware".)

Mr. Stork has sure been busy this month. Guess he must like our little town. I just received a message from his secretary that he paid a visit to the following homes: On October 20 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kish, Mr. Stork made the family happy by leaving a lovely baby boy, Michael S. Now there will be three boys and three girls sitting down to dinner. (Sure would love a picture of this happy group.)

On October 26 he left nother little boy Thomas R. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander M. Radko, 4-U Laurel Hill. This makes three little boys at the Radko family. (Cheer up boys, you can always borrow your brothers' shirts and socks . . . and maybe even take his girl out sometimes.)

Guess Mr. Stork thought that as See CHATTER, Page 4

GOOD NEWS for HOMEMAKERS
BY Anne Marshall

MAGIC TRICKS to help you make the most of meat are like money in your pocket these days. And here's one idea that's bright as a new penny. Combine the meat with a condensed soup sauce to make a generous dish that feeds the whole family.

For example, cut up the last of Sunday's chicken and team it with condensed cream of chicken soup. Grand for chicken pie with biscuits on top or for chicken a la king. And a hearty meat dish with condensed tomato soup is this one.

Tomato-Beef Skillet Supper

- 1/2 pound ground beef
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1 can (1 1/4 cups) condensed tomato soup
- 2 cups cooked whole kernel corn, drained (fresh, canned, or frozen)

Cook beef, onion and green pepper in shortening in skillet until lightly browned; stir gently to keep meat in bite-size pieces. Add tomato soup and corn; simmer 5 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

BABY ENJOYS SOUP: As soon as your baby is ready for soft-chewing foods, he can begin eating condensed soup. More than half of them eat soup before their first birthday. You can serve the same good soup to baby and to the rest of the family—so it's a handy dish. Favorites for baby are cream of asparagus, beef noodle, cream of celery, chicken noodle, chicken (with rice), green pea, Scotch broth, tomato, vegetable, vegetable beef and vegetarian vegetable.

Bums Drop Northend to Fifth

The Bums took 3 from the Northend to take over first. Martin banged out a 375 for the Bums to help along a 1665 set. Northend dropped all the way to fifth.

The Misfits took 2 from the Rescue Squad and maintained their hold on second with a 1582 set.

Changing their name seems to have helped the Miles Glass Co., as they won 3 from the Comets to move up to third place.

Norman Motors held on to fourth by winning 2 from the reorganized Cliffdwellers. S. Milbourne is the new Captain of the Dwellers and needs a steady bowler to make up his team.

The Cosmics took 2 from the Bluedevils to move up to seventh. The Bluedevils muffed a chance here as both losses were decided by the handicap.

Drop Inn Data

By Bobbie Baxter

Two well-known members, Bill Kelleher and Don Thompkins, were home on leave from the Navy for the past two weeks. Another well-known member, Harry Fox, was home on leave for a week-end from Fork Union Military School. These boys looked real good and everyone was glad to see them back. We are all looking forward to seeing them back with us Christmas.

A hayride is being planned for November. Boys and girls will bring their own eats, and drinks will be obtained from the Drop Inn. The hayride will consist of riding around Beltsville and then going to the park for a weenie roast. Parents will be asked to come and help chaperon the party. Notice will be sent out as to definite date and time of the ride.

All membership cards must be bought by the first of November. Only members of the Drop Inn will be able to take part in the different activities each month. If you don't want to miss out on the hayride better buy your cards.

Recreation for girls is every day from Tuesday through Friday, 3:30 to 5:30. All girls interested in tumbling or basketball, come up to the Center school.

Bath-Time Fun

Bath time can be fun for both mother and baby, but mother should take care to set the right note at the start. Most babies seem to take naturally to their baths, but at a time when everything is new and strange to them they need the feeling of security that only a confident, unhurried and cheerful mother can provide.

Mother should talk gently and reassuringly to her little squirmmer while she lathers him and rinses him off. If she laughs at his first tentative kicks and splashes he will be encouraged to laugh with her. She must hold him firmly to keep him from slipping down into the water, and to support his head and back, but a firm hold does not mean a tight clutch. Baby will struggle against a hold that is uncomfortable or that suggests tension on the part of the holder.

If all tension has been avoided, and baby has been encouraged to laugh, gurgle and splash while he is being bathed, he will love the after-bath lotion routine, the over-all application of a pure oil-and-water emulsion with lanolin and antiseptic added, which helps protect his tender skin from chafing, prickles and diaper rash. Unhindered by clothing, he will be free to stretch, kick and squirm while mother uses a cotton ball moistened with the lotion, to pat the lotion into each tiny crease and fold.

As baby gets older he will enjoy a floating toy in his bath. When he is old enough to graduate to the family bathtub some of the water can be let out after he has been bathed, and he can be allowed to play and splash about in the remaining five or six inches, while mother keeps a careful watch to see that all goes well.

Boys Club Activities

By Lee

Our football teams came through again this past week, every team winning its game. The 90-lb. team went over to Snug Harbor (Landover Hills) Saturday and defeated Landover in a fairly close battle, 14-6. The 90-lb. team (also known as the Hurricanes) took the opening kickoff, marched down the field and were within Landover's 30 yd line in four plays. On the next play Teddy McCord tossed a ten yard pass to Jay Gallagher and he raced the remaining twenty yards for the score. McCord converted, score was 7 to 0 when the quarter ended. In the second quarter the Hurricanes started another drive which seemed to be halted on the Landover 12-yd line, but Gallagher came through again with a nice swap around the right side of the line for the TD. McCord again converted and the score stood 14-0. Greenbelt kicked off to Landover to open the second half, and Landover ran the ball the entire distance for a TD. Their conversion was blocked by the fine defensive play of Lew Castle. Score, Greenbelt Hurricanes 14, Landover 6. That was all the scoring for either team—a very nice football game. This team has won 2, tied 1, and lost 1 so far.

The 105 lb. team defeated Lanham in a runaway 32 to 0. They are now tied with Bladensburg for first place in the League with 3 wins and 1 loss. Highlights of this game were not reported. The 150 lb. Packer Jr., won their game from Beltsville 13 to 6. See Wolfe Tales for details.

All games this week will be on Sunday, due to Maryland's homecoming, since most everyone will be there. The 105-lb. team plays Bladensburg at Fletcher's field on Edmonston road Sunday at 1 p.m. A double-header will be played here at Braden Field with the 90-lb. team taking on Green Meadows at 1 p.m. and the Packer Jr. 150 lb. team plays Colmar Manor at 2:30 p.m. These should be two very good games and you will be missing something by not seeing them. Come out and support the boys. Give them a little cheer for their efforts. See you next week.

long as he was passing out boys he might just as well leave one for the Bain family, 2-V Laurel Hill. Which he did. On October 24, the little boy arrived and they named it William Michael. This of course made brothers Tommy and Albert very happy. Of course, not to mention how overjoyed the parents, Albert and Grace, were to receive such a wonderful gift.

Well, folks that's about all for tonight as I must help my fellow slaves put the newspaper to bed. (I'm ready for it myself.) See you all soon.

TALES

Packers Remain Undefeated

Greenbelt's Junior Packers are still undefeated as they downed their rivals at Beltsville to the tune of 13 to 6. Difference of the game was again Greenbelt's powerful forward wall consisting of Rich Ward and Company. Beltsville had to kick but was blocked by Greenbelt. The ball fell on the two-yard line and on the first play Stu. Knott took it over for Greenbelt's first score. In writing these articles it is usually the backfield who receive all the credit, but in this case it was the line who held Beltsville to a low score. This line is something to watch as they are in the opposition's backfield all the time. Don Flynn, Rich Ward, Burt Steinman, and Dick Hampton make up the defensive line, and Gene Poole, Len Mogervera and Ed. Barbara are the offensive line. On the end are Jim Denevan, Frank Lagana, Frank Kelnher, Bob Gross, Ray Cox and David Lee.

Greenbelt did not wake up till the latter part of the third quarter, when Joe Brosmer began to roll and the team followed. A 65-yd. march, and a quarterback sneak by Brosmer put Greenbelt in the lead. The conversion was made when Brosmer faked a kick and passed to Dave Lee in the end zone. Bob Kosisky and Rich Stevenson were the standout on both the offense and the defense. Both of these boys back up the forward line and play fullback and quarterback. It's a pleasure to coach these boys as you can put them most anywhere and they play well.

Next game will also be played at Greenbelt, when Colmar Manor will try to give Greenbelt its first defeat. Game time, 2:30 p.m. Come down and see your boys in action as they need your support from the side line.

Men's Gym
More men are needed to fill a schedule in badminton also volleyball and pingpong. Bring a friend and enjoy an evening while getting that exercise after a hard day at work. Basketball will be on the program in the near future, so begin to think of the team that you would like to play on. If you are interested and don't know anybody, just come to the Gym in the Center School and we will put you on a team. See you this Thursday at 8 p.m.

"Defense is your job, too!"

SAYS GENERAL HOYT VANDENBERG

TODAY there are no far away places. For London, Paris, Moscow and Tokyo are only a matter of hours by air. And with every passing day, new advances in aviation bring us nearer to our enemies.

That is why we are now engaged in building the most effective air force the world has ever seen. An air force designed for but one purpose. To defend you and all of the things you hold dear!

But defense is your job, too! And one of the best ways to do your job is by buying U. S. Defense Bonds regularly. Why not start now—make today your "D" Day! By buying bonds you help build the great economic strength that backs up our armed forces. And today history has taught us one lesson—peace is for the strong!

Remember, too, when you buy bonds you make one of the safest investments in the world today. For Defense Bonds are as safe as America!

Start yourself on the road to personal financial independence through U. S. Defense Bonds

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own can automatically go on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not just $25—but as much as $33.33! A $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. And remember bankers recommend United States Defense Bonds as one of the safest forms of investment!

No safer investment in the world today... U. S. Defense Bonds!
